Methodist Women's Missionary Society.

A large congregation assembled in the Methodist Church, Montague Bridge, on the 12th inst., that being the date upon which Miss Cartmell visited the Montague Auxiliary of the above Society and addressed the congregation in its interests. The public meeting was opened by devotional exercises, conducted by the pastor, the Rev. J. Goldsmith, after which the local President, Mrs. R. W. Sprague, took charge of the meeting. In a very interesting address she stated the object for which the meeting had been called, reviewed the constitution of the W. M. Society and the work which has been accomplished through its instrumentality. She then called upon Miss Bessie Moore, of Union Road, who read a very carefully prepared and full report of the Montague Auxiliary, from which it appeared that, though not yet a year in existence, very profitable monthly meetings have been held and a second Auxiliary formed on the circuit, which is to meet monthly at Lower Montague.

The choir, under the direction of Prof. Theakston, then sang "Lo, the Golden Fields are Smiling," after which Mrs. Sprague introduced Miss Cartmell, who referred to herself as coming from one of the Golden Fields, and impressed upon the congregation the truth of the chorus, "For the Lord Hath Need of Thee." Then for an hour and a half she held the close attention of the audience as she dwelt upon the work of the W. M. Society as it is being carried on in Japan, where she had been at work for four years.

At the close, a collection, amounting to $7.16, was taken up by Mrs. D. Martin, Corresponding Secretary, and Miss Moore, Recording Secretary of the Society.

Fife and Louise.

MARRIAGE OF THE QUEEN'S GRANDDAUGHTER AND THE SCOTCH EARL.

As intimated in THE EXAMINER'S special despatches yesterday, Her Royal Highness Princess Louise Victoria Alexandrina Dagmar, eldest daughter of the Prince of Wales, was married at noon on Saturday to Alexander William George, Earl of Fife, Knight of the Thistle. The weather was unpropitious, rain falling. The ceremony took place in the private chapel of Buckingham Palace. This was the first marriage that ever took place in the chapel, which is small, and the number of guests was therefore limited. The bride and groom arrived privately. The Princess of Wales, Crown Prince of Denmark, King of Greece, Prince Albert Victor, and Prince George of Wales assembled in the Bow Library of Buckingham Palace at 11.45 o'clock, and there awaited the arrival of the Queen from her private apartments. The bridal party, consisting of the Prince of Wales, Princess Louise and Princess Victoria and Maud of Wales, left Marlborough House at 11.40 o'clock for Buckingham Palace. Notwithstanding the rain, the route to the palace was crowded with spectators. There was a vast concourse of people opposite the palace. The Prince of Wales was enthusiastically cheered. On arrival in Bow Library of the Queen, accompanied by the Grand Duke of Hesse, the procession to the chapel was formed. It comprised the Queen, members of the royal family who had gathered in the library, the King of Greece, Crown Prince of Denmark and other guests and officers of the royal household. The procession on its way to the chapel passed through several royal apartments in which many of the guests who had found it impossible to enter the chapel were seated. Upon reaching the chapel the Queen was escorted to the seat prepared for her, while the other royal personages took seats on either side of the altar. The clerical officiating were the Archbishop of Canterbury, Bishop of London, Dean of Windsor, the domestic chaplain of the Queen, Rev. F. A. J. Hervey, domestic chaplain to the Prince of Wales, and Rev. T. Leigmoor Shore. The Prince of Wales gave away the bride. The choral service was sung by the choir of Chapel Royal, St. James. The feature of the service was the singing of a special anthem entitled "O Perseus Love," composed by Joseph Barnaby. Many of the ministers were present. Gladstone was also among the guests. After the benediction the Queen kissed the bride and cordially greeted the groom.

Canada's Crops.

RETURNS FROM ALL PARTS OF THE DOMINION.

The Toronto Empire publishes special reports from six hundred places, covering the whole of Canada, regarding the state of the crops—grain, fruit and roots. Following is the summary of the whole: In Western Ontario, wheat, oats, barley, peas, corn, etc., will be a magnificent yield. Hay has been heavy and roots are looking well. Fruit is a failure except in the Western Lake Erie counties. Potatoes show rot on low land, but generally will be a big yield. In Eastern Ontario, with the exception of fruit, there will be the greatest yield in all classes known for years, and farmers are jubilant. In Quebec, there is a heavy crop and grain is above the average, while roots are promising. The same may be said of New Brunswick, Nova Scotia, Prince Edward Island and Cape Breton. The outlook throughout the Maritime Provinces is favorable. In Manitoba and the Territories recent rains have improved the outlook wonderfully, and there is every prospect of a good average.

THOUSANDS have been relieved of indigestion and loss of appetite by a single bottle of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. The use of this medicine, by giving tone and strength to the assimilative organs has made innumerable cures of chronic dyspepsia. Price $1. Worth $5 a bottle.

Tenants' Defence League.

THE RULES AND REGULATIONS AS AGREED ON BY THE IRISH PARLIAMENTARIANS.

The New York Sun's special cable gives the rules and regulations of the new Tenants' Defence League, as follows:

1. The Irish Tenants' Defence League is founded to assert and maintain the right of the tenant farmers of Ireland now attacked or threatened by aggressive combinations of Irish landlords, to protect their legal and equitable interest in their holding by defensive combination among themselves.

2. The object of the League is to counteract by legal means all combinations of landlords used to exact excessive rents, to extort unjust arrears, or to impose inequitable forms of purchase, or to stimulate eviction, or in any way to destroy or imperil the security of tenants in their holdings.

3. In order to effect this purpose tenants throughout Ireland are invited to contribute to the tenants' defence fund in fixed proportion to the poor law valuation holdings.

4. Tenants on any one or more estates combining to assist the league and subscribing to the tenants' defence fund will be entitled to the help of the league in case of need.

5. Branches of the league will not be formed, but each body of tenants combining to sustain the league will appoint, at a meeting held annually for the purpose, the treasurers to collect and remit their contributions, and the secretaries to communicate with the council of the league whenever occasion may arise; and such treasurers and secretaries shall be recognized by the court and by the league in the transaction of all affairs in which the interests of such tenants are directly concerned.

6. In the event of an emergency, the council of the league may vote the collection of a special levy from the associated tenants, such levy not to exceed the amount of the annual contribution.

7. The league will exert itself to inform the public, especially in Great Britain, of the proceedings and aims of the combination of landlords in Ireland, and will devote particular care to contested bye-elections.

8. The league will afford legal advice to tenants in connection with any proceedings constituted or threatened by or at the instance of any combination of landlords or by any landlord who is engaged or concerned in such combination, and in the event of the eviction of any such tenants from their holdings, as the result of such proceedings, the league, to the full extent of its power, will afford them shelter and support, provided the council is satisfied such are willing to refer to arbitration the questions in dispute between them and their landlords.

9. The affairs of the league shall be directed by a council of fifteen members, elected annually from their own body by members of the league, the first council to be elected within a month from the formation of the league.

10. The admission to membership of the league shall be determined by the council.

11. The subscription of members shall be any sum not less than £1 per annum.

12. Donors of sums of £10 and upwards will be eligible for election by the council as honorary members of the league.

13. The meetings of the league will be held from time to time, as summoned by the council.

14. The council will make and publish, from time to time, such further rules and alterations in the constitution of the league as it may deem to be expedient.

CANADIANS WHO CLAIM OWNERSHIP OF 60 ACRES IN NEW YORK CITY.

A Hamilton, Ont., despatch says that the claimants of the estate of the late Annela Jans who live in that vicinity met recently at the residence of J. Vandanus. They were about fifteen in all, and they came from Watertown, Freetown, Millgrove, Jerseyville, and some belonged to the city. Other heirs are scattered over the country. The estate is a very large one, and the heirs claim the last of the persons entitled to the estate by bequest died some forty years ago, after which the estate, which is in Holland, and is now valued at $1,500,000, passed into the control of the Dutch government. The present heirs claim the heirship of Ameka Jans Bogardus. The other claim is to property in the Harlem flats, near New York. The claimants will prepare their genealogy, and will send a responsible party to New York to look after the matter.

The Pleasures of Editing.

Editing a paper, says a provincial editor, is a pleasant thing. If it contains too much political matter people won't have it; if it contains too little, they won't have it. If the type is too large, it doesn't contain enough reading matter; if the type is too small, they can't read it. If telegraphic reports are published, some folks say they are nothing but hashes up; if they are omitted, they say there is a want of enterprise. If we put in a few jokes, folks say we are nothing but a rattle-head; if we omit jokes, they say we are an old fossil. If we publish original matter, they condemn us for not giving them selections; if we publish selections, folks say we are lazy for not giving them what they have not read in some other paper. If we give a man complimentary notices we are censured for being partial; if we do not, all hands say we are a great boor. If we insert an article which pleases the ladies, men become jealous; if we do not cater to their wishes, the paper is not fit to be in their hands. If we attend church, they say it is only for effect; if we do not, they denounce us as deceitful and desperately wicked. If we speak well of any act, folks say we dare not do otherwise; if we censure, they call us a traitor. If we remain in our office and attend to business, folks say we are too proud to mingle with our fellows; if we go about a bit, they say we had better stay at home and get on with our work. If we do not pay all bills promptly, folks say we are not to be trusted; if we do pay promptly, they say we stole the money.—Exchange.

Modus Vivendi Licenses.

NEWFOUNDLAND OFFICIALS WILL NOT RECOGNIZE THE DOCUMENTS ISSUED BY CANADA.

A Canso despatch to the Halifax Herald, dated July 26th, says: Capt. Diggins, of the schr. Sarah B. Putnam, of Salem, arrived here this morning from Grand Banks with a very slim fare for over three months' fishing, attributing his failure in securing a full trip to the treatment he received from the Newfoundland customs officials in connection with the modus vivendi license, obtained at this port on the 25th of July, 1888, good one year from date and so unexpired. Officer Carter, of the Ferryland Customs Office, refused to allow him to buy bait or ice thereunder, demanding the taking out of a Newfoundland license. On his refusal to do this till he communicated with his owners, permission was given for that baiting on the payment of $20 in fees, but after he had his bait and ice in at a cost of $100, the officer came with a telegram from the head office at St. John's demanding that he take out a license to cover the transaction refusing to carry out the Dominion's part of the contract since the 31st of last December. This he refused to do, and the officer threatened to seize his vessel. He had to go nine miles to get to a telegraph office, and while waiting a reply from his owners the wind changed and he had to hurry away to get his vessel out of an exposed position and so left. In the meantime the detention caused the loss of his bait and ice, and from the consul he received word in the banks that it would not be advisable for him to come again, as his vessel would be seized. This is one of the many cases where the Newfoundland officials have not only ignored the rights guaranteed the U. S. vessels in the modus vivendi license issued under the seal of their own government, but have repudiated the privileges promised in those documents issued by the Dominion of Canada, and because thereof fully twenty schooners refused to take licenses here when going to Newfoundland this season. This statement of the captain's is verified by Alfred Shriver of this place, one of his crew.

Telegraphic Odds and Ends.

A BUDGET OF GENERAL NEWS FROM ALL PARTS OF THE WORLD.

HALIFAX, July 28.—A large shed, 300 feet long, used for storing coke for the Londonderry blast furnace, was burned on Saturday. The whole works of the company had an exceedingly narrow escape from destruction, as 3,000 tons of coke caught fire and the works were only saved by the exertions of a small army of workmen. The loss is about $6,000.

VIENNA, July 28.—A cyclone in Hungary, Transylvania and Bukovina to-day swept over several thousand square miles of territory. Hundreds of persons were killed, crops destroyed, and enormous damage done to houses and churches. The districts of Crossowden in Zagedin and Mohacs were completely ravaged.

MONTREAL, July 27.—The civil rights people are beginning to talk about candidates. John R. Douglall, of the Witness, aspires to be returned to parliament from Montreal West, while his sub-editor, James Harper, will endeavor to pull Colby's majority in Stanstead down to a thousand.

RIO JANEIRO, July 28.—The Portuguese who fired the shot at Dom Pedro on July 16th is named Adriana Valle. He declares he was instigated by the republican association.

HALIFAX, July 28.—The saw mill and store of W. P. Cameron, Maitland, Hants Co., was burned yesterday. Loss, $7,000; no insurance.

NEW MARKET, Ont., July 28.—John Hopper, a farmer near here, while walking on the railway track intoxicated, was struck by the evening express and killed.

MONTREAL, July 27.—Miss Mulcahey used the following language before Judge Dugas to-day: "You can say what you like and do what you like, but Miss Tibbits and no other was the girl who was seen at our door last February."

Odds and Ends.

An editor's simile of man's career is summed up in the lines: "Man's a vapour full of wces, starts a paper, busts and goes."

"No news is good news" is an old time-honored saying, but it won't do to practise it too often on the man who pays for his paper.

A placard posted up throughout the town of Dundee once announced the opening of the Theatre Royal, "under the management of Miss Goddard newly decorated and painted."

AN ENERGETIC POTATO.—A few days ago one of Mr. Donald Steele's children brought to him a ball of yarn with what she supposed to be a crochet needle obstinately fastened in it, says the North Sydney Herald. Instead of a needle Mr. Steele saw a vigorous potato sprout. It seems that some one of the family had used a potato to wind the yarn upon, but the potato possessing all the indomitable push and energy characteristic of a native of Cape Breton was not to be hindered from extending its growth by any such slight obstacle.

BOSTON PRICES.—Hatheway & Co.'s circular of the 25th, at hand this morning, says that arrivals of potatoes have been free during the week, and that all good stock are quoted about the same as previously stated. The egg market is heavily stocked, and Island firsts are selling at 13 to 14 cents. Mackerel are in better supply, but most of the stock has come from Great Britain or the Provinces. No. 2 sell at from $20 to $21 per barrel, while No. 3 large-rimmed, and No. 3 plain, bring $16 Canned mackerel sell at $1.25 per doz., one-pound tin, and canned lob at $1.55.

GO AND DO LIKEWISE. If your whiskers are grizzly and unbecoming use Buckingham's Dye, and they will look as when you were younger.
