

WHERE'S MOMMY?

This forlorn little girl lost her mother while looking for eggs in the annual Easter egg hunt Thursday at Schenectady, N.Y. She quit seeking eggs, found her mother, then both were swallowed up by the throng of egg-hunters before the photographer could get their names.

QUESTIONNAIRE TO MPS HAS 30 PROPOSITIONS

OTTAWA (CP)—The controversial questionnaire being circulated among MPs by the royal commission on bilingualism and biculturalism comprises 30 propositions. MPs are being asked whether they agree, disagree or are inclined to disagree with the following statements:

1. Most of the time front bench policy is already decided before a back benches has a chance to exert influence.
2. An MP can tell most of the time what his constituents will think about an issue before he even asks them.
3. It would be better if French-speaking ministers always spoke in French, they would express themselves more satisfactorily.
4. The welfare services an MP performs for his constituents are important in getting him re-elected.
5. Dominion-provincial conferences detract from the importance of parliament.
6. Politics is a dirty game.
7. The local party organization has had very little to do with getting me elected.
8. A Senate conceived of as a "chamber of nationalities", representing English and French in equal proportions, would be a useful reform to our parliamentary system.
9. People tend to judge a party by the quality of its leader.
10. The provincial caucus is an unwelcome and disruptive addition to the party system in the House of Commons.
11. Most new MPs learn more by keeping their mouths shut than by trying to prove how smart they are.
12. The way an MP votes is always a true indication of the way he feels.

13. People continually overrate the importance of the party caucus. It is a place to let off steam, perhaps, but it is not a place for influencing policy.
14. The Quebec MP tends to be more concerned with looking after his constituents than with national policies.
15. MPs, in view of the demands made upon them, are chronically underpaid.
16. Experience on the back benches is absolutely essential before a man should be given a cabinet post.
17. The Commons would be a more efficient institution if it were cut to say, 150 members, each with paid assistants.
18. Most constituents are more interested in the services an MP can perform for them than in his views on legislation before the house.
19. Party discipline is too strict today.
20. The notion of alternating the leadership of political parties from English-Canadians to French-Canadians is a good one and ought to be followed generally.
21. Often MPs get so involved in affairs in Ottawa that they lose touch with their constituents.
22. Back benches receive far too few invitations to air their views in public.
23. Most constituents will respect you all the more if you stick to your own views in face of their opposition.
24. The main concern of the English-Canadian MP is not to rock the party boat.
25. The House of Commons should equip itself with a more extensive, professional staff in order to have its own

Wheat Stocks Down, Ottawa Report Shows

OTTAWA (CP)—Canadian wheat stocks totalled 717,193,000 bushels on March 31, compared with 784,500,000 a year previous, and 669,000,000 in 1963, the bureau of statistics has reported. The record for wheat stocks was set in 1957 when they totalled 904,400,000 bushels at March 31. The 1955-64 average was 746,100,000 bushels. The bureau makes an annual survey which will determine the estimated grain supply position. It calculates that 381,000,000 bushels of wheat remained on farms on March 31, compared with 431,600,000 a year ago. Other total stocks at March 31 with year previous figures in brackets:

Oats 241,445,000 bushels (302,700,000); barley 171,514,000 (200,000,000); rye 11,779,000 (11,300,000); flaxseed 14,042,000 (13,600,000).

FARM STOCKS DOWN
Farm stocks of all five grains were an estimated 709,200,000 bushels compared with 839,600,000 at the same date in 1964. The 1955-64 average was 752,900,000. About 73 per cent of all the oats on farms and 95 per cent of the wheat, barley, rye and flax on farms were located on the prairies.

Farm stocks on the prairies at March 31:

Manitoba — wheat 39,000,000 bushels, oats 35,000,000, barley 9,000,000, rye 1,300,000, flaxseed 1,800,000.

Saskatchewan — wheat 263,000,000, oats 55,000,000, barley 37,000,000, rye 3,400,000, flaxseed 2,400,000.

Alberta — wheat 74,000,000, oats 33,000,000, barley 68,000,000.

sources of technical information.

26. Our parliamentary system assumes that back benches will play a minor role in framing legislation.

28. Translation facilities should be extended to all committee rooms whatever the cost.

27. English-Canadian MPs enjoy more freedom from their party organizations than French-Canadian MPs.

29. When you come to Ottawa you may have great ideas, but you soon learn that your ideas "don't get you anywhere."

30. Constituents are always asking MPs to do something which has nothing to do with their jobs in Ottawa; more often than not it turns out to be a provincial or even a municipal matter.

000, rye 1,800,000, flaxseed 1,000,000. The percentage of farm-held stocks varied. Wheat was an estimated 53 per cent of the total supply, oats were 81 per cent, barley 70 per cent, rye 56 per cent and flaxseed 37 per cent. The bureau compiles its information from a March 31 survey of farms, from mill returns and from information made available by the board of grain commissioners.

New Synthetic Penicillin Goes On Sale

NEW YORK (AP)—Bristol Laboratories division of Bristol-Myers Co. said here it is marketing a new synthetic penicillin at prices comparable with those of the older natural penicillins. The new antibiotic will be the sixth synthetic penicillin to be marketed in the United States since 1959. Bristol-Myers claimed its new synthetic penicillin, named Tegopen, is a general-purpose penicillin effective against a wider range of germs than earlier natural or synthetic penicillins.

NAMED MILITARY ATTACHE
OTTAWA (CP)—Wing Cmdr. A. J. P. Byford, 45, of Ottawa will be promoted to acting group captain and appointed military attache at Prague in July, the defence department announced Tuesday. He was a bomber pilot in the Second World War.
