

IS IMITATION THE SINCEREST FORM OF FLATTERY."

The best proof that
MINARD'S LINIMENT

has extraordinary merits, and is in good repute with the public, is that IT IS EXTENSIVELY IMITATED. The imitations resemble the genuine article in appearance only. They lack the general excellence of Genuine.

This notice is necessary, as injurious and dangerous imitations, called WHITE LINIMENT, ST. & Co., liable to produce chronic inflammation of the skin, are often substituted for MINARD'S LINIMENT by Dealers, because they pay a larger profit.

They all Sell on the Merits and Advertising of MINARD'S.

One in particular claiming to be made by a former proprietor of MINARD'S LINIMENT, which simply is a lie.

THE DAILY EXAMINER

MARCH 22 1900

NOTES AND COMMENTS

—Rah for the Stanley.
—Canadian subscriptions for khakis amount to ten millions of dollars.

—The Stanley has "broken the ice." The Minto may be expected in a few days.

—An Ottawa despatch says there is no knowing when the session will end. But the Government's finish is in sight.

—The Guardian should not take the Patriot too seriously. When the Patriot announced some weeks ago that the Provincial Legislature would meet in March it meant well but didn't meet.

—The New Brunswick Government has given $4000 towards an exhibition to be held in St. John this year. It is understood that the expending of the grant is to be left entirely with the directors of the Exhibition Association.

—An exchange rises to remark that when Britain says she does not intend to accept any offer of intervention from Europe it is singular with what unanimity the continental powers come to the conclusion that they do not intend to offer their services.

—It is said that several persons were refused work on the Stanley yesterday because they were not supporters of the grip party, and were therefore not in a position to get an order from one of the grip politicians. Could anything be smaller than this?

—The McKenzie Government held power for four years. Then the Government of Sir John McDonald took hold and held the reins for eighteen years—until defeated by the race and religious cry. History has a knack of repeating itself.

—The Patriot cannot (or rather will not) see a threat in the language of Sir Louis Davies at the Pownall meeting. But the people of the Belfast and Murray Harbor Districts saw the threat, and all who read the reports of the meeting published by the Guardian and the Patriot saw it!

—The Guardian points out that while the Stanley was yesterday fighting her way into Charlottetown harbor the Minto was plying on the Georgetown-Pictou route. It seems strange that a boat like the Minto, which is claimed to be so superior to the Stanley, was not sent to Charlottetown and the Stanley put on the Georgetown-Pictou route.

—In the British House of Commons a few days ago when asked regarding the reports of trouble threatening in China, the Parliamentary Secretary of the Foreign Office, William St. John Broderick, said Her Majesty's Government had taken and continued to take all steps to protect British interests in this connection. The British Government may always be relied upon to protect British interests.

THE CHURCH CONVENTION AT SUMMERSIDE

Interesting Papers and Discussions—Sunday Schools and Live Churchmen.

During the forenoon on Wednesday, Mr. J. B. Millman, of Irishtown, read an excellent paper on "The Needs of the Church," the discussion of which, with the transaction of business, occupied the Convention till one o'clock.

At the afternoon session the Rev. J. M. Withycombe, rector of St. Eleanor's and Summerside, took up the subject of Sunday Schools, dealing with it under the headings of:—

1. The teacher's object.
2. The teacher's ideal.
3. The teacher's practical qualifications—(a) power of control; (b) punctuality; (c) regularity; (d) separation of lessons.
4. The ideal superintendent.
5. The ideal pastor.

The address was admirable and valuable to all engaged in Sunday School work, and we hope to publish it in extenso, together with a short but capital supplementary paper by Mrs. Green, in the course of a few days.

The subject was discussed by Rev. Leo Williams, Rev. Mr. Alwyn, Rev. Mr. Dobie, Mr. Percy Pope, Mr. Cotton, Mrs. Brennan, Mrs. Beairisto and others.

A resolution expressive of regret at the absence, through illness, of Mr. Justice Fitzgerald, Vice President of the Convention, was unanimously adopted.

In the evening a public meeting was held, Rev. J. M. Withycombe presiding. A short and eloquent address of welcome to the delegates was read by Mrs. David Rogers, after which Rev. Mr. Alwyn, rector of Kensington, delivered an interesting account of the Northwest and its missions.

Mr. Percy Pope followed with a paper on "The Principles of Church Finance," and the Rev. Leo Williams with an address on "The Attributes of a Live Churchman,"—both exceedingly able, and one the complement of another. We hope before long to be able to publish the former and a synopsis of the latter.

SOUBIS NOTES.

On Tuesday last, March 13th, Lavinia Sterns, widow of the late William Sterns, after a lingering illness borne with courage and patience, died leaving a family of five to mourn their loss and for whom much sympathy is felt. The large funeral procession that followed her remains to the cemetery in West Souris was a testimony to the esteem in which she was held by the community. As her pastor well said "She will be missed. Some of us that knew her best feel that it is well for us to have known a heart so large, so brave, so true. And although we mourn her departure with sincerest sorrow a will still live in our hearts by the memory of many a loving word and deed. She brightened life for many of us and now that she is gone it seems a little colder." The Helping Hand Society of the Presbyterian church in her death has lost a zealous member, and in token of love and respect placed a beautiful wreath on her bier with these words:—

Our circle is broken, our sister's at rest
While we are left to wail and weep
We bow our heads, "Thy will be done,"
"He giveth His beloved sleep."

For the dear children left orphans in the world we mourn and turn our sympathizing sorrow into a prayer that the comforting Christ may stand ever near them, and that God may be a "Father to the fatherless."

Rev. George Millar, of Brookfield, occupied the pulpit of the Presbyterian church last Sabbath. At the morning service he presented the claims of the "Century Fund." In response to his appeal over $500 was subscribed in the village. He goes from here to Bay Fortune where we trust he will have like success.

—The London Chronicle states that a number of girls at Stockwell school were discussing the meaning of the letters G. C. B., after Lord Roberts' name, when one girl quickly settled the difficulty by saying that the initials stood for "Generally Called Bobs."
