The 40-acre park was formerly a fox ranch owned by Graham Rogers, and known as Rogers' ranch.

The idea of converting the area into a park was stated a number of years ago when town councillor J. Ernest Morrison was mayor. The past two winters the land was being cleared under the winter works program.

The park includes an area for tents and trailers, picnic tables, cooking shelters, a few pumps and toilet facilities. It is hoped that electricity will be installed in the near future.

A name the park contest for school children was sponsored by the park committee. The name "Timber Trail" was entered by Raymond MacDonald, Jr., of Summerside. Many of the roads or trails through the park have been named for cartoon characters.

Following the official opening the town held a reception at the local Legion. Later in the evening a reception was held aboard the Bluenose II for town councillors, members of the provincial cabinet and carnival officials.

52 Orphans Join In Carnival Fun

Some 52 children from the province's Catholic and Protestant children's homes joined in the fun at the Summerside Lobster Carnival yesterday.

The trip was arranged by the provincial command of the Royal Canadian Legion, which chartered an Island Motor Transport bus to Summerside.

The children were treated with refreshments on the way to Summerside, where the outing was arranged by a committee of Summerside Legion members under Leslie Jenkins.

They attended the special children's show, and the Lynch show donated rides.

Also on the agenda was a lobster supper or chicken barbecue. On the return trip, the children were again given treats, and they visited Strathgartney Park.

One of the group, Debbie Marshall, won one of four bicycles given as door prizes at the vaudeville show.

The manager of the Lynch show donated an extra bicycle for the boys when he discovered who the prizewinner was.

A CARNIVAL IS FOR KIDS

With yesterday being children's day at the Summerside Lobster Carnival there were plenty of youngsters at the fairgrounds, anxious to get on the various midway rides. Here, two youngsters (left to right) Elizabeth Gunn, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Ken Gunn of Summerside and Tracy Durling, daughter of RCMP Constable and Mrs. D. W. Durling of Souris, show their excitement prior to a trip on the rocket ride.

YESTERDAY was children's day at the Summerside's Lobster Carnival and there were a number of events for the young fry. One of the competitions was a doll carriage contest yesterday morning. Winner of this event was Bonita Arsenault of Summerside (left) with her entry "Summerside Majorettes". Second and third place finishers were Little Red Riding Hood", Donna Yeo, also of Summerside, and Ann DesRoches of Summerside with a carriage displaying "Smoky The Bear".

CARNIVAL CONTINUES

Kids Exhaust Parents Enjoying Children's Day

SUMMERSIDE — Yesterday was children's day at the 10th annual lobster carnival and a busy fun-filled day it was.

Things got underway at 9 a.m. when the small fry turned out with their pets for the dog and cat show at Gaudet's Save Easy sponsored by Puss and Boots.

There were over 400 entries in the show. Judges for the event were Dick Dunn and Don MacDougall.

A doll carriage parade sponsored by the carnival, was also held in the morning. There were six entries in this event. The winners were Bonita Arsenault of Summerside with her carriage of the "Summerside Majorettes", Donna Yeo, Summerside, with her carriage of "Little Red Riding Hood", and Ann DesRoches with a carriage displaying "Smoky the Bear".

Winners were awarded prizes of $15, $10 and $5 respectively. The judges were Mrs. George Key, Jr., and Mrs. Carmen Carle.

At 9.30 pint-sized sluggers went into action in the little league playoffs at Queen Elizabeth Park.

ORPHAN CHILDREN

The winner in the pie-eating contest, Archie Broom of the Mt. Herbert orphanage, was awarded $3 for his efforts. And all that pie too!

Allan and Brian Callaghan of the Mt. Herbert Orphanage were awarded $3 and $1 respectively, in the balloon-blowing contest.

About 50 children from Protestant Children's Home and the Catholic Social Welfare Bureau enjoyed the many aspects of the carnival yesterday because of the generosity of the Royal Canadian Legion. They were accompanied by Sisters of St. Marthas, Ernie Fardy and Pius Smith of the Legion and officials from the Mt. Herbert Orphanage.

One of the lucky winners of the four bikes donated by Bill Lynch was an orphanage girl, Dobby Marshall. When Mr. Lynch learned of this he immediately donated a boy's bike to the orphanage.

The winners of the other bikes, drawn for by Miss P.E.I., for 1964 were: David Schurman, Summerside; Elmer Cormier, Summerside; and Bill Panham, Ottawa. Gordon Kelly of Summerside won a consolation prize of $5.

Lobster and chicken suppers were again featured yesterday with special prices for the children.

At 7 o'clock a Scottish concert was presented by the Presbyterian Church Pipe Band. The music of the bagpipes and the fairyland effect of the kilted performers was enough to interest even the smallest of children.

ANIMAL ATTRACTIONS

Most children are interested in animals but they weren't the only interested ones yesterday during the judging of the livestock. Naturally all the kids were there hoping that dad's prize heifer would come away with a red ribbon but mom was there too and so were the people from the next farm.

Many children who were not accustomed to the sight of farm animals took great pleasure in picking their special favorites in each class, then standing with fingers crossed awaiting the word of the judge, to jump with glee at "their" animal won.

The many rides in the Bill Lynch midway seem to have a special place in the hearts of all little boys and girls. It was a cool breezy afternoon and the youngster took advantage of the day to enjoy the many thrills offered by the merry-go-round, planes etc.

No amount of ups and downs or roundabouts seemed to have any effect on the tiny tummies and everybody wanted more and more. Mom and dad got a chance for a bit of a rest when the youngsters headed them toward civic stadium where a number of children's games had been arranged.

OX PULL PROVES REAL CROWD PLEASER

One of the highlights of Tuesday's Lobster Carnival festivities in Summerside, was the oxen pull, sponsored by the Prince County Horsemen's

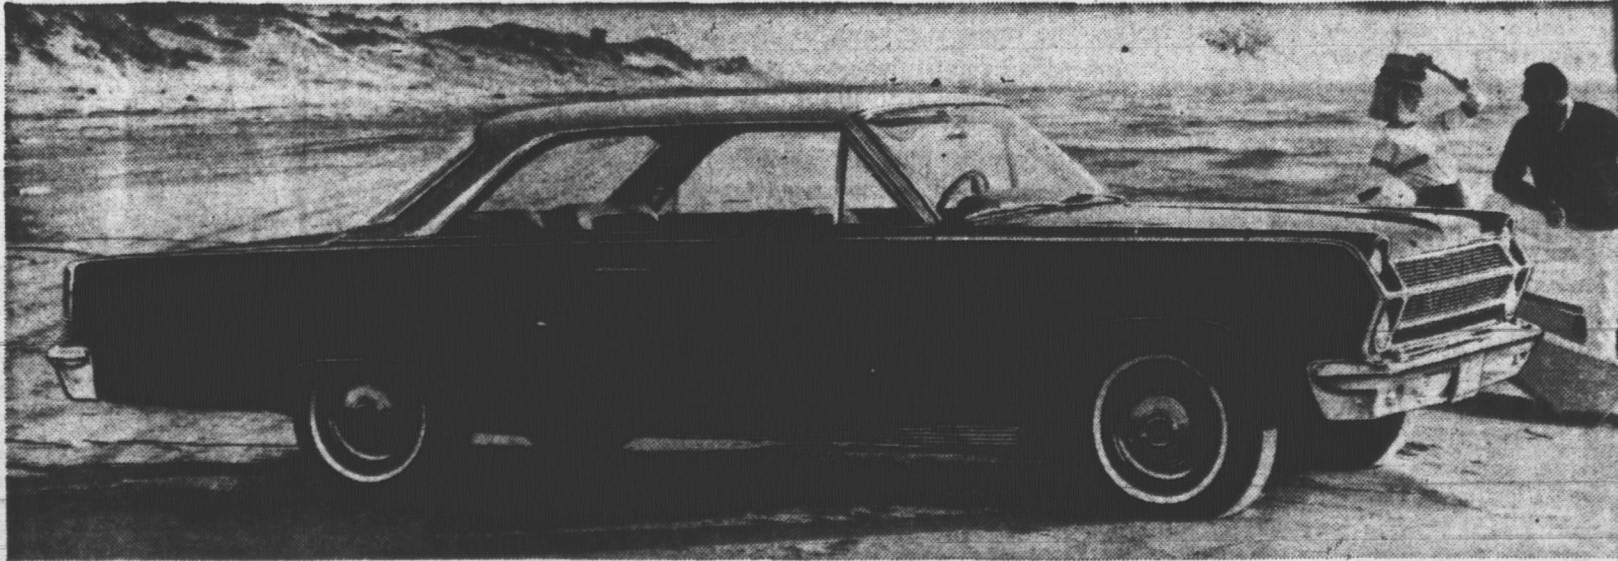

Club and seen for the first time on P.E.I. The show climaxed a five-dash race program at the Summerside Raceway and the spectators cheered their appreciation of the performance by these powerful animals with rounds of applause. One of the five teams performing pulled close to 5½ tons from a dead stop. Here one of the teamsters is seen urging his animals to pull their large and heavy load on the track in front of the grandstand.

2 out of 3 new Ambassador buyers switched from other manufacturers this year.

(Ambassador sales up 211%)

For thousands of people who had always been loyal to the other makes, 1965 was the year of the big switch. They turned their backs on cars they'd always bought and moved to Ambassador. You can bet they must have had some pretty good reasons. We bet disillusionment was one of them. (When you've put up with rust, rattles and repair bills year after year, you start wondering if you really have to.)

But we think the new Ambassador itself was the most important reason. This year's Ambassador is the biggest, most luxurious ever built—more solid Rambler quality designed for the larger car buyer. And the Ambassador offers more options this year—everything from bucket seats to power disc brakes. Improved performance, too—including the new 232 cu. in. Torque Command Six, the most powerful, smoothest-riding six on the road, and a mighty 327 cu. in. V8. Of course, Ambassador's truly outstanding interior must have sold quite a few people (or was it the big car luxury at a medium price that did the selling?).

No matter what their reasons were, you can probably think of some of your own to go Ambassador. Who knows—maybe the famous Rambler features (Deep Dip Rustproofing, Double Safety Brakes, Ceramic-Armoured Muffler, rattle-free Single Unit Construction) are beginning to make a lot of sense to you. They've already made a lot of sense to thousands of people who were in the same boat.
