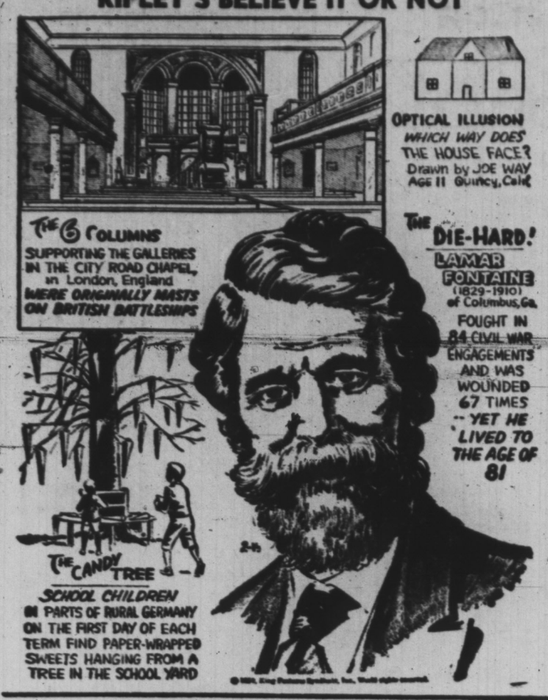
RIPLEY'S BELIEVE IT OR NOT



CONTRACT BRIDGE

By B. JAY BECKER

QUIZ

You are the dealer, both sides vulnerable, and have opened One Heart. Partner has responded One Notrump. What would you now bid with each of the following five hands?

1. ♠AQ2 ♥QJ765 ♦AJ87 ♣64
2. ♠AJ6 ♥A1094 ♦KQ75 ♣J2
3. ♠AK ♥AQJ756 ♦8 ♣A942
4. ♠— ♥J98643 ♦AKJ5 ♣AJ6
5. ♠— ♥AKJ76 ♦KQ94 ♣KQ82

1. Pass. Before discussng the rebid after partner has responded with one notrump, it might be best to consider what is indicated by the notrump response. Generally, partner will have 6 to 9 points in high cards and a balanced hand which contains insufficient trump support to raise the suit named by the opening bidder.

Once the meaning of the notrump response is defined, it becomes evident that this is not apt to be a game-going hand. The combined hands can scarcely contain the 26 points usually required for game. There being no indication that the part score will play better in a suit contract, the notrump response by partner is passed.

2. Two notrump. Since there is a possibility the responder may have 8 or 9 points, an invitation is extended to him to go on to game in notrump. A two notrump rebid in this sequence announces 17 to 19 points. Partner then goes on or not, depending on the caliber of his initial response. The two notrump bid is strongly invitational.

3. Four hearts. Indications are strong that game can be made in hearts once partner has kept the bidding going with a notrump. Responder needs little more than one or two key cards for ten tricks to be made. The important thing is to avoid a jump bid to three hearts, which is only invitational and not forcing. There is no good reason to give partner the opportunity to pass under game.

4. Two diamonds. Game is unlikely unless partner can show a delayed heart fit. If responder passes two diamonds, indicating a relatively poor hand and lack of heart support, the chances are that it is the best final contract. There should be no qualms about showing the diamond suit in preference to rebidding the six-card heart suit. Partner should be given a voice in the matter of finding the best playable trump suit.

5. Three diamonds. The jump shift rebid forces partner to speak again. Since responder did not bid a spade over a heart, he is bound to have satisfactory trump support for one of our three suits.

A game becomes practically certain as soon as partner responds with a notrump. The plan is to show all three suits, if necessary. Whichever one partner eventually shows a preference for will be acceptable as the trump suit.

Maritime Dealers May Ship Cars Here By Water Route

HALIFAX (CP) — Maritime automobile dealers, alarmed at rising railway freight costs, may shift to water or highway transport to bring in car shipments from central Canada.

The Nova Srotia Automobile Dealers Association discussed these alternatives Friday and decided to investigate them further.

Some dealers said the opening of the St. Lawrence Seaway may make it economical to ship from Ontario ports by water during the summer. Foreign cars landed at Halifax for central Canada could provide a return cargo.

A Yarmouth, N.S., dealer said he is studying a plan to ship by road transport to Bar Harbor, Me., and then by auto ferry to western Nova Scotia.

Halifax port manager J. R. Mitchell said Atlantic coast ports are equipped to handle automobile shipments. "It would help the port of Halifax, especially during the summer shipping lull."

Association spokesmen said unless cheaper transport is found the recent 17-per-cent rail freight increase will mean still higher prices for Maritime car and truck buyers.

Sugar Tariff Cut Would Aid Fishermen

OTTAWA (CP) — Removal of discrimination in tariffs on raw sugar would help Maritime fishermen, a Nova Scotia fisheries processor said Friday in the Commons.

Lloyd R. Crouse (PC—Queens-Lunenburg) urged the government to review the tariff to ease discrimination against such non-Commonwealth sugar producers as the Dominican Republic which is a major market for Nova Scotia salt fish.

The Dominican Republic had a big adverse trade balance in dealings with Canada, he said. Canada hadn't bought sugar there since 1955 because of a lower tariff on Commonwealth-grown raw sugar.

Now Norway was trying to interest the Dominican Republic in expanding trade and, if the Norwegian trade mission was successful, the impact on Nova Scotia fishermen would be serious because no alternative market exists for their product.

Girl Guides To Purchase New Building

TORONTO (CP) — The Canadian Girl Guides Association's national executive decided Friday the nation's 162,000 guides need a national headquarters.

Guide officials now occupy three separate buildings in Toronto.

The national executive agreed to buy a new building to house national offices, stores and Ontario headquarters under one roof.

The first conference for guide commissioners from all parts of Canada will be held at Ste. Anne de Bellevue, Que., from June 8-10, to be attended by about 200 women.

Next year is the 50th anniversary of the girl guide movement, and plans for jubilee celebrations in Canada will be announced next month.

Floods Worst Since 1913 In U.S. Districts

CHICAGO (AP)—Frigid floods—the worst since 1913 in some areas—have caused widespread damage and left thousands homeless in the eastern United States.

Thousands of mill and factory hands and miners were idle Friday in Ohio and Pennsylvania. Losses rose by the millions with the rising rivers.

The highest flood waters since 1913 broke a sandbag barrier at Chillicothe, Ohio, and icy waters of the Scioto River inundated more than a third of that city of 27,000.
