Carot Lodge Write-In Sees Dissatisfaction
CONCORD, N.H. (AP) - The unexpected New Hampshire presidential preference primary voting of Henry Cabot Lodge appears likely to entice the fight for the Republican nomination to contest the New York U.S. presidential election.
A show-biz write-in which gave the U.S. candidate South Viet Nam 33.4 per cent of the vote in a contest with three major contenders, led in part to spontaneous dissatisfaction with the present front-runner, Lyndon B. Johnson, opposing President Johnson in November.
Lodge's showing projected him into the thick of the presidential battle, it also served notice of other potential candidates, such as Pennsylvania Governor William W. Scranton, that nobody can claim a "cease fire" from the party faithful at this point.
Johnson himself gained some satisfaction in Democratic primary voting that he commanded the core of the vote in New England, regarded as one of the weak spots in his general election campaign.
With only two of the 302 precincts uncounted, the president polled 29,028 votes in New Hampshire, a similar write-in, Attorney General Robert P. Kennedy got 25,028 as a potential vice-presidential candidate.
An absent, unannounced candidate, Lodge has over 200 votes, said Barry Goldwater, Rep. At-Large, New York Governor.

CONTRACT BRIDGE
By R. JAY BECKER
You are South, neither side is vulnerable. The bidding has ended.
South West North East
1 Pass 1 Pass
2 Pass 2 Pass
What would you now bid with each of the following four hands?
1. ♠AQ72 ♠S AKJ74 ♠A5 2. ♠AK16 ♠S AKJ743 ♠A5 3. ♠AQ85 ♠S AKJ52 ♠AK74 4. ♠AQJ2 ♠S 7 ♠AKQ3 ♠A55
Two diamonds. The only bid choice for either side is two notrump. The more encouraging bid is two notrump, but that contract is unlikely that partner will pass two diamonds in view of the two forcing bids he has made. The best is to bid two diamonds, having only 14 high card points, and we have not yet identified as such, since we would have made the same first two bids with another queen of hearts.

Hate Campaign Disturbs Jews In Toronto Area
TORONTO (CP) - J. S. Midanik, a Canadian Jewish Congress official, said at a press conference here that anti-Semitic literature now has a tone that the Jewish community can no longer ignore.
The hate matter is "disturbing many sections of the Toronto community to the extent that it is difficult to live in dignity and peace," said Mr. Midanik.
He said the chairman of the congress' community relations committee, Dr. Nathan S. Margolis, will meet Thursday with representatives of the committee and Chairman Sydney Harris, former leader of the Jewish community.

OTAWA (CP) - The problem of hate literature is "underappreciated and very serious consideration," Justice Minister Fayrouz said in the Commons.
He was replying to Perry Ryan (L.) - Toronto Spadina, who referred to press reports that a 15-year-old Toronto youth is conducting a campaign to distribute anti-Semitic literature.
Mr. Ryan suggested that Mr. Fayrouz call a conference with legal and political attorneys-general to see whether steps can be taken to stop this and similar hate campaigns.

SLOW GROWTH
On the European continent population is growing more slowly - 0.8 per cent annually - than in any major region of the world.
