CARRYING THE CANADIAN MAILS.

Government has Made an Arrangement.

WITH THE ALLAN AND DOMINION LINES.

To use their best Boats Practically the old Service.

[SPECIAL TO THE EXAMINER.]

QUEBEC, Oct. 11.—It is reported on good authority, though no confirmation can be had, that an understanding has been arrived at between the Government and the Allan and Dominion lines for the carriage of the mails,—each line using its best boats, and thus giving better service than now exists.

This will practically be a renewal of the old arrangements.

Italy's Naval Programme.

[SPECIAL TO THE EXAMINER.]

ROME, Oct. 11.—Owing to Italy's financial straits, the Minister of Marine has renounced the sweeping naval programme involving an expenditure of 540,000,000 lire, and will be satisfied with a naval credit this year of 280,000,000 lire.

A ministerial crisis is thus averted.

A Big Failure.

[SPECIAL TO THE EXAMINER.]

LONDON, Oct. 11.—The failure is announced of Ernest Orger Lambert, financier, Trafalgar Building. Liabilities, a million pounds.

CZAR ASKED TO BALMORAL.

Queen Wanted to Discuss the Far Eastern Question.

LONDON, Oct. 10.—The St. Petersburg correspondent of the Daily Mail says: "Queen Victoria, it is reported here, invited Emperor Nicholas to Balmoral after the funeral of Queen Louise of Denmark with a view to a personal discussion of the far eastern question; but it is said the Czar is not likely to accept the invitation owing to the critical position of affairs."

Dalhousie Beats St. John.

[SPECIAL TO THE EXAMINER.]

HALIFAX, Oct. 11.—Dalhousie defeated St. John football, 16 to 0.

The Victor's Folly.

LONDON, Oct. 10.—A despatch to the Daily Chronicle from Alexandria says: The troops who have returned from Khartoum are dying like flies from enteric disorders, supposed to be due to canned beef and indulgence in cheap spirits."

Bismarck's Memoirs.

BERLIN, Oct. 9.—The Nord Deutsche Allgemeine Zeitung declares that the memoirs of Prince Bismarck will be found to contain no sensational disclosures, but to consist chiefly of grave thoughts and recollections which he has left as a legacy to the German people.

Wise Oriental.

LONDON, Oct. 10.—The Shanghai correspondent of the Times says: Rear Admiral Lord Charles Beresford, who has arrived here in the course of his tour as special commissioner for the Associated Chambers of Commerce, to inquire into the commercial conditions in China, has exchanged visits with Marquis Ito, the Japanese statesman. "Marquis Ito thinks that the anti-foreign policy recently adopted at Peking might be remedied by a joint representation by the powers."

Wheat in Australia.

VANCOUVER, B. C., Oct. 9.—According to Australian advices brought by the steamer Warrimoo, the New South Wales chamber of commerce estimates that the coming season will produce a yield of 15,000,000 bushels of wheat, of which 10,000,000 bushels will be required for home consumption, leaving 5,000,000 bushels, or roughly speaking, one hundred thousand tons, of wheat to be exported.

Russia Getting Ready.

LONDON, Oct. 10.—From St. Petersburg there comes a despatch which asserts that a new large credit for military purposes is to be proposed immediately.

William T. Stead, editor of the London Review of Reviews, in writing from Berlin recently says: "Disarmament, in the sense of one single soldier disarming himself—laying down his rifle and tramping off home—is not even to be thought of. The simple proposal to send one soldier home would precipitate that catastrophe the thought of which is the nightmare of Europe."

Another shrewd student of affairs, Edward Dicey, who for a long time was editor of the London Observer, points out the ominous resemblance which the present aspect of the relations between Russia and Great Britain bears to that which preceded the Crimean war.

Many Pilgrims to the Vatican.

ROME, Oct. 10.—Thirteen hundred and fifty French Catholics arrived in Rome Saturday on a pilgrimage to the Vatican. The Pope expressed much pleasure on receiving them yesterday. In his address he referred to the piety and affection shown by the pilgrims, and to their substantial contribution of Peter's pence.

Fashoda Negotiations.

PARIS, Oct. 10.—The French Government, it is asserted, is willing to begin negotiations with regard to Fashoda immediately, and M. Deicasse is prepared to approach the subject in a conciliatory spirit. The Government will not agree, however, to French evacuation of Fashoda as a condition precedent to negotiations.

Permanent Russian Escort.

LONDON, Oct. 10.—The Pekin correspondent of the Times says:—There is good reason to expect that the Russian Cossacks who have arrived here to protect the Russian Legation will be retained as a permanent escort.

Chen-Pao-Chen, Governor of the Province of Hu Nan, who is the most enlightened Governor of China, and has been acting in introducing for agricultural improvements, has just been cashiered."

How General Burt Was Tricked.

One day when General Andrew S. Burt was lieutenant colonel of the Seventeenth United States infantry Captain Charles A. Booth, then a lieutenant, met him on the rifle range.

Lieutenant Booth was shooting, and he "called" each shot as he fired, without waiting for the markers to signal the result.

"You're a pretty good guesser," said the colonel. "Why don't you admit you're guessing where those shots land?"

"I'll bet you a box of cigars," said the junior officer, "that I can call 20 shots in succession."

"Taken," said the old warrior. Lieutenant Booth fired.

"Miss," he announced, and a red flag from the target told that this was correct.

Another shot.
"Miss," he declared. A third shot.
"Miss again," he said. Fourth shot.
"Fourth miss," announced Booth. Another shot. "Miss," again sang out the lieutenant.

"Hold on there," put in Colonel Burt. "What are you trying to do? I thought you were going to fire at the target."

"I'm trying to win my box of cigars," said Lieutenant Booth.
"Don't fire any more," said the colonel. "They're yours."—Chicago Journal.

A Deadly Gas.

Millers and the owners of grain elevators look upon the bisulphide of carbon as one of their most useful agents. When a mill, an elevator or a granary becomes infested with weevil, bisulphide of carbon is the cheapest and most effective thing to exterminate the pest. So deadly is the gas, however, and so rapidly does it act that the utmost care must be taken in applying the bisulphide. It is usually sprinkled over the grain from watering pots. The liquid is rapidly converted into a gas, and the latter sinks through the grain, carrying death to the weevil and even to the unhatched eggs.

So long as the persons applying the liquid stand above the point of application they are pretty safe from the fumes, but occasionally the workmen breathe a little of the gas and have to be removed at once to the open air, as the heart is quickly paralyzed by the action of the bisulphide. It is usual to treat the lower floors of a granary first, so that those employed in the work may keep constantly above the gas. Any animal, as a cat or a dog, shut up in an apartment where the bisulphide is doing its work is found dead when the place is opened.—Chicago Inter-Ocean.

Charles Austin Bates Again.

"A great deal about advertising is uncertain, but some things I know. I know them so well that I wonder how anybody ever doubted them. One thing is that the highest-priced paper is likely to be the cheapest; another is that advertising in dull seasons and on 'off days' pays, and pays big."

Little Marble Imported Now.

The importation of marble to the United States has almost ceased. It is only now and then that a cargo arrives at this port, while a few years ago a fleet of sailing vessels brought many cargoes annually from the famous Carrara quarries in Italy to Philadelphia. Marble buildings seem to be becoming things of the past, and the tombstone makers find little demand for marble tombs, slabs or monuments. Granite has taken the place of marble everywhere, even in the cemeteries, where marble shafts and slabs were formerly the only proper things. Granite, unlike marble, does not require very frequent cleaning and looks well without being touched up for years. It also admits of a high polish and does not show the marks of rust by contact with metal, as marble does.—Philadelphia Record.

Filed Without the Knife by Dr. A. W. Chase's Ointment.

Mr. Geo. Crowne, painter, of Woodville, Ont., Victoria Co., says:—"For thirteen years I was a sufferer from bleeding piles and the intense agony which I passed through during those years and relief obtained by Chase's Ointment prompts me to give this testimonial. My physician wished me to have an operation but I felt I could be cured without the knife. Three boxes of Dr. Chase's Ointment stopped the bleeding and effected a permanent cure."

Modern Millinery

"Up-to-dateness" needn't cost any more than the ordinary "found-anywhere millinery. It's perhaps a little harder to find though.

This "ad" is a guide post. It's here to tell you where millinery is ALWAYS "up-to-date."

Where millinery trimmings is done for people now on earth.

Where modern style combines with careful conscientious workmanship—and both with moderate price.
