

Little Leaguers, Bantams And Minors Ready To Play

The Little League, Bantam and Minor league baseball activity is ready to roll.

Three teams comprise the bantam league, six outfits make up the Little League circuit and five teams are in the minor leagues.

Anyone who has a boy who still wishes to register should have the lad do so Monday June 29 at Memorial Field.

Coaches are required for a number of teams and anyone interested in plotting one of the squads is asked to get in touch with Jack 'Sey' Ready at 3833. Here are the lineups.

22 Entered In Golf Play At Sydney

SYDNEY (CP)—Twenty-two players, six of them pros, have entered the Nova Scotia open golf championships opening here Friday, tournament chairman Gordie Maccoy announced Wednesday.

Cecil (Buddy) Dowling of Charlottetown will defend the crown which brings a $250 top prize.

Other pros entered are Allan Ogilvie, Halifax; John Jackson, Liverpool; John Smith, Chester; Peter Shymko, Corner Brook, and John (Kook) Muir of Toronto. Muir is from nearby Reserve and a former Nova Scotia amateur champion. He turned pro recently and this season was appointed assistant pro at the Toronto course.

WORLD TITLE ON LINE TONIGHT

Champ Still Solid Choice To Retain Heavy Crown

By JACK HAND

NEW YORK (AP) — Heavyweight champion Floyd Patterson remained a solid 4-1 favorite Wednesday over Sweden's Ingemar Johansson, the unbeaten European titleholder, in tonight's 15-round match at Yankee Stadium.

The weatherman was not overly optimistic about the outlook for the fight, predicting a partly cloudy day with a chance of showers. However, the promotion was driving ahead with promoter Bill Rosenzohn still predicting a gate of $600,000. That would mean between 35,000 and 40,000 paying fans.

Exact figures on ticket sales were hard to come by although Rosenzohn said Tuesday the advance had reached the $450,000 mark. Business was reported brisk.

ESTIMATES DOWN

Original estimates of a $1,000,000 gate had to be scaled down when the match ran into a series of disturbing developments. A law suit threatened to block the fight for several days and still may hold up the purses. The promoter and Cus D'Amato, the champion's manager, had an argument during which the fight almost was moved to another city. Patterson's "warmup" title defense against Brian London in Indianapolis, May 1 was widely criticized.

Failure of Johansson to cut loose with his right in training awakened serious doubt in the minds of boxing writers. Only his perfect record (21 fights, 21 victories and 13 knockouts) and his one-round knockout of highly-ranked Eddie Machen last September made him appear a formidable challenger. "I am saving the right for Patterson," explained the Swede who still remains pretty much of a mystery to U.S. fans.

The match scheduled for 10:30 p.m. EDT, will not be seen on regular home television. It will be beamed into 190 locations in theaters and arenas in 135 cities by closed circuit television. The New York area will be blacked out on the theater TV but will join the rest of the country in the radio (ABC) broadcast.

BOXES 190 ROUNDS

The Swede, who hasn't fought since he flattened Machen Sept. 14, boxed over 190 rounds since arriving in this country with his mother, father, sister, two brothers, fiance and trainer. More recently he has been joined by his personal doctor and his adviser, Swedish promoter Edwin Ahlquist.

Judging a fighter in training can be fatal. Yet Americans have no other standard by which to rate Johansson. Off his sparring sessions he is a stand up boxer with a stinging left jab who sometimes flounders when he backs off under pressure. He appeared open to body punishment. The right? Well, take your pick. He has been "saving it" or it is overrated. He hasn't worked out since last Saturday.

The handsome Scandinavian will weigh about 190 pounds, approximately 15 more than the champion who usually has to give away weight when he defends his crown. The challenger is about an inch taller than Floyd and bigger all the way around.

Patterson weighed about 185 pounds when he finished boxing Monday afternoon. He expects to come in at about 194 when they weigh in today.

Three Top Americans Advance At Wimbledon

By JOHN FARROW

WIMBLEDON, England (AP)—Alec Onizco, Barry Mackay and Earl Buchholz Jr., all United States Davis Cup players, Wednesday went into the third round of men's singles at the rain-plagued tennis championships.

The only upset of the day came with the defeat of seventh-seeded Kurt Nielsen of Denmark, twice runner-up at Wimbledon. Rod Laver, a 20-year-old Australian redhead, licked Nielsen 10-8, 6-4, 7-5.

Nielsen's defeat means that two of the seeds in the top half of the draw—the one in which Mackay and Buchholz are drawn—have been knocked out. Buchholz eliminated Nicola Pietrangeli of Italy on Monday.

OLMEDO IN FORM

Olmedo, the 23-year-old Peruvian who lives in Los Angeles, took only 55 minutes to demolish 17-year-old Rodney Mandelstam of South Africa, 6-1, 6-1, 6-3. He next will meet India's 22-year-old Davis Cup star Ramanathan Krishnan, who beat him in a warmup tournament last week. Krishnan disposed of Bob Phillips-Moore of Australia, 6-2, 6-2, 6-3.

Buchholz, a lanky 18-year-old from St. Louis, beat Gordon Forbes, a Davis Cup player from South Africa, 3-4, 7-5, 11-9, 10-8 in a dragged-out match stopped three times by rain.

Mackay, an airman whose home is Dayton, Ohio, defeated Vladimir Skonecki of Poland, 6-4, 6-3, 3-6, 6-1 on a slippery court and showed signs of regaining form in his big game.

Mrs. Beverly Baker Fietz of Long Beach, Calif., and Darlene Hard of Montebello, Calif., seeded third and fourth, gained the third round of women's doubles.

Rain ruined program planning Wednesday and heavy downpours interrupted play, once for over an hour. Matches continued in fading light and on slippery courts.

GLOOMY COURT

Mrs. Fietz had to play two hours on the gloomy No. 1 court before she won a 4-6, 6-4, 6-2 victory over Italy's little Silvana Lazzarino, who plays a trick soft game. It was the second toughest game in a row for third-seeded Beverly. Miss Hard defeated Miss E. Osterman of Germany, 6-5, 6-2.

Others who reached the third round Wednesday included six seeded men players, topped by Olmedo, No. 1, and Australia's Neale Fraser, No. 2. Two Americans, Gardner Mulloy, the 45-year-old Miamian who plays like a younger man, and Jack Frost of Monterey, Calif., came through with a pair of good victories, but Jon Douglas, the former Stanford football player, and Myron Franks were eliminated.

In the women's singles, Belmar Gunderson of Chambersburg, Pa. gained the third round but Joan Johnson, the surprising school teacher from Wyandotte, Mich., went out.

Mulloy trounced 24-year-old Lew Gerrard of New Zealand 6-3, 7-5, 6-4 and Frost came through with a surprisingly easy 6-0, 6-0, 6-4 decision over Giuseppe Merlo of Italy.

WOMEN WIN

Miss Underdon, ranked No. 16 in the U.S., won 6-3, 6-2, 6-2 over Mrs. Shirley Bloomer Brasher, married a few weeks ago to Olympic runner, Chris Brasher. Rita Morrison of New Zealand eliminated Miss Johnson 6-3, 4-6, 6-0.

Olmedo never was extended by Mandelstam, although he dropped two services in the third set. He kept the youngster running with a booming serve, accurately angled volleys and cross court drives.

Mackay, playing on a slippery court, didn't go all out against the Polish veteran Skonecki. Still he served well enough to get to the net for the big game he prefers.

CHALLENGER IS CONFIDENT

NEW YORK (AP) — The pre-fight statements of Ingemar Johansson and Floyd Patterson.

Johansson: "I will win by points, if I don't stop Patterson. I'm strong enough to endure anything Floyd gives me. He won't and can't wear me down. I never plan in advance. When I face my opponent, I can tell in a few moments just how I should fight."

Patterson: "I am as eager for this fight as I was for the Archie Moore fight the night I won the title. I never have seen Johansson fight. I don't care whether he used the right in training or not. For all I know his left hand may be his best punch. How soon it will end depends upon Johansson. If he lets me, I will end it early. If he doesn't, he might even end it early. I am sharper than I was before the London fight."
