Memorial Service Held At Cornwall

CORNWALL — The annual memorial service was held at the cenotaph at Cornwall on Sunday afternoon.

Veterans from the surrounding districts followed by the school children formed up and paraded under marshal Norman MacDonald.

Following the reading of the roll of honor by D.J. McArthur, bugler Frank Smith sounded the Last Post followed by two minutes silence and Reveille.

Wreaths were placed by relatives and local organizations after which the children placed bouquets on each monument.

The guest speaker, Rev. Alan MacDonald and Rev. Donald Campbell spoke feelingly of the need of remembering the sacrifice of those who died in the great conflicts that we might enjoy our freedom which we all too often take for granted.

They pointed out that we have a duty to show by word and deed that our way of life is worthy of the great price which was paid.

Organ selections were rendered.

Queens against Liberal Harold P. Smith, has asked for a recount which will get underway at 10.30 a.m. on Wednesday of this week.

Judge J.S. DesRoches could not say last night just when he will hold a recount asked for by Leslie Hunter of Bridgetown in Fifth Queens. But the judge said he expected he would make an announcement today.

Mr. Hunter was tied with George E. Saville of Annandale with 675 votes apiece when the official returns were tallied on Declaration Day. Kings County Returning officer Edwin Reid cast a ballot to declare the election of Mr. Saville by a one-vote margin.

The returning officers vote gave the Liberals eight seats in the new assembly to 23 for the victorious Progressive Conservatives. The recounts could change the standings.

Prince County declaration day results will not be contested. They returned eight Progressive Conservatives and two Liberals. In both cases Liberal majorities were substantial.

The time for recount requests closed on Saturday.

"They have been in there when liquor was being sold, though. No later than last Wednesday two of them were in plain clothes and ordered soft drinks. They have also been in there in uniform."

Celebrated Novel Brilliantly Brought To Screen In Exciting Technicolor Production Of "The Nun's Story"

Seldom does a motion picture receive the critical acclaim that has been awarded, "The Nun's Story." Fred Zinnemann's Technicolor production for Warner Bros., starring Audrey Hepburn.

The film, which opens today at the Capitol Theatre, and Tuesday at the North River Drive-In, was more than a year in preparation and six months in production, during which thousands of miles were traveled by the company for filming in the Belgian Congo, Rome and in various cities of Belgium.

Audrey Hepburn, a truly international celebrity and one of the most appealing and gifted personalities of all time, stars as Sister Luke, the conscience-charged heroine of "The Nun's Story."

The cast of 108 speaking roles reads like a global "Who's Who." There are performers from American, England, Italy, France, Belgium, Holland, Ireland, Scotland, Portugal, Switzerland, Sweden, Australia, Germany, Czechoslovakia and Austria—and two Dames of the British Empire, a young Polish princess and a Nigerian character actor. It is truly an international motion picture.

The leading man in "The Nun's Story" is Peter Finch, the colorful Australian who is known to American audiences primarily for "Elephant Walk" and "A Town Like Alice." He is a top box office star in Great Britain, where he has appeared in 14 films. In the current production he plays the role of Dr. Fortunati, a brilliant doctor in the Congo.

The favorite American screen player, Dean Jagger, is seen as Miss Hepburn's father, Jagger holds an Academy Award for "Twelve O'Clock High," and has achieved many memorable portrayals.

Mildred Dunnoek, whose place on the American stage and screen is parallel to the British eminence of Dame Edith and Dame Peggy, has the important role of Sister Margharita. Miss Dunnoek will be remembered for her striking performance in Ella Kazan's film for Warner Bros., "Baby Doll."

Every role in "The Nun's Story," no matter how small, is filled by a player of exceptional distinction, especially chosen for the characterization by virtue of talent and physical appearance.

Baptist's Men's Retreat Believed First In Canada

What is believed to be the first Baptist retreat for men held in Canada was held at Dalvay-by-the-Sea over the weekend.

The retreat opened early Saturday morning with a sing-song led by Fred Lloyd of Moncton, N.B., who led the singing during the two day conference. Morning devotion was conducted by Earl Jenkins of the Hazelbrookfield.

The Baptist men and visitors from other denominations, were welcomed by the chairman, Charles Scranton, of the Charlottetown Baptist Church.

Ira Lewis, also of the Charlottetown church, introduced Rev. Neil Price of St. John, who gave the men a thought-provoking address.

DISCUSSION GROUPS

The group was then divided into five sections, and given topics for discussion. They later reported to the group as a whole.

The topics were: 1. What do we mean when we say, I believe in God? 2. Does God speak to men today? 3. Does God have a plan for individual lives? 4. What happens when man interferes with God's plan? 5. What happens when man mars God's plan?

The afternoon session got underway with a sing-song, and a devotional period conducted by the Bedouche church. This was led by Roy Campbell, assisted by Harry Waugh. A solo, "Spirit of God", by J.B. Lewis, added much to the service.

The chairman, C. S. Scranton introduced the Maritime Baptist Men's President, B. D. Stevens of Halifax, who spoke on "The Responsibility of Men". He stressed the great need of helping men to a better understanding of God, and to a better way of life; having a clear witness; that the church should be first in men's lives; and they should continue to tell others the good news. Again discussion groups were formed and the following topics were suggested:

1. Are we depending too much on our clergymen? 2. Does God hold us responsible for deeds of the body? 3. Are all Christian believers ministers of Christ?

JOINT MEETING

For the supper meal, the men journeyed to the Stanhope Inn to have Christian fellowship with the United Church Brethren, who were holding their retreat there. A grand time of fellowship and spiritual uplifting was experienced by all. A special feature of the get-together was the singing of several of the old hymns, led by Dr. Peter MacDonald, with his accompanist, James Peach, on the organ.

Following supper, the combined groups returned to Dalvay. The meeting was opened with prayer by Rev. George Goth, D.D., minister of Metropolitan Church, London, Ontario. We had a short period of singing, and during the course of the evening, we were favoured with solos by Raoul Raymond "Bless This House" and Stan Pierre of Moncton "How Great Thou Art".

Rev. Neil Price spoke on "The Call to the Ministry". He told how he was called to the Christian ministry. It is wonderful how God can work through human lives.

Larkin Is Freed On $2,000 Bond

Ralph Tweedy Larkin, convicted on a charge of joyriding and remanded from custody in City Police Court Saturday when he posted a bond with two sureties in the amounts of $1,000 each. Sentence was suspended for two years and he received some advice from Magistrate Allison Gillis who pointed out the faith in him shown by the two men who had signed his bond.

The magistrate, in noting the youth had been confined to Queens County Jail more than two weeks, told him that from that experience he could imagine what a sentence to Dorchester Penitentiary would be like. He advised him to steady down and make a good life for himself.

INTERNATIONAL CO-OPERATION means wise use of fishery resources

Canada has been a pioneer in the establishment of international commissions, the aims of which are to conserve and develop stocks of fish, sustaining their productive level whenever this is threatened by natural and human causes.

This country is a party to three bilateral fishery agreements with our neighbor to the south, and is also a member of four international conventions which include other countries in addition to the United States.

Fish populations renew themselves if given the chance. The purpose of international co-operation is to make sure that they are given this chance... through practical programmes of scientific research and by common sense fisheries regulations.
