

Strange But True

By F. M. MacArthur

Believe it or not, but Lord Haldane wrote to his mother every day, from 1877 until her death in 1925.

Eaton business grew to be the greatest success of its kind in Canada. Back in 1870 Mr. Eaton had but four employees.

Timothy Eaton passed away in January of 1907, 47 years after he arrived in Canada, an unknown Irish lad.

therless and penniless, is simply amazing. It is an example which should inspire any ambitious young man.

Take, for example, Robert Fulton, that pioneer shipbuilder who achieved undying fame before he shuffled off this mortal coil.

It is an amazing thing that this self-educated man, should have done so much for the benefit of his fellows.

He was created a baronet in 1911 and became Sir William Lever; in 1917 he was made Lord Leverhulme and in 1921, Viscount Leverhulme.

After much tinkering, they said the scales were one-half pound light, and that Maxim's actual weight was 175 1/2.

When Moore was weighed in at 172 1/2, Johnston insisted that Maxim be weighed again.

After reluctantly accepting the weights as official, Johnston yelled to Plan "It's a cinch we're not going to get the best of it tonight!"

OXFORD, England — (CP) — Police rushed to a local bank after a citizen reported he had seen a "masked bandit" on the premises.

Rhubarb At Weigh-In Almost Scuttles Bout

By MURRAY ROSE ST. LOUIS, Dec. 17 — (AP) — A threat by challenger Archie Moore's manager "to call the fight off," a double weigh-in for champion Joey Maxim, a faulty scale and lots of screaming enlivened the weigh-in today for tonight's 15-round light-heavyweight title scrap.

After once threatening to call the fight off, Charley Johnston, Moore's manager, calmed down and declared "The fight's on. After all we're shooting for the title, ain't we?"

One observer who watched the entire rhubarb said: "If the fight's as good as the weigh-in it ought to be a corker."

U. S. Soldiers Tell How Riot Was Quelled PONGAM ISLAND, Korea, Dec. 17 — (AP) — United States soldiers told today how they quelled an uprising Sunday by 4,500 Red prisoners, who roared Communist songs in a glassy-eyed trance heedless of a storm of gunfire.

Rules On Coronation Ceremony Details LONDON, Dec. 17 — (AP) — Supporting the Queen's arm while she holds the royal sceptre is a service which simply cannot be performed in a corporation, the Coronation Court of Claims held today.

Such services have long been the privilege of coronations of the Dukes of Newcastle. The company's claim was based on the fact the present Duke has left the country, but that most of his properties have been merged with the holdings of the corporation.

The court held the royal arm must be supported by a living duke and that a stock company, no matter who owns it, simply does not qualify.

4,500 prisoners took part. The trouble began at about 12:30 P. M. Sunday when prisoners in compound P broke out with Communist songs.

Miller said the eyes of the prisoners were glazed as if hypnotized by the singing, adding that "it is impossible to convey to you the state of frenzy."

Gas grenades were useless in the wind, and Miller said he ordered a volley of shotgun fire but "the wounded kept right on singing and the others lifted the wounded as they fell."

Prisoners in nearby compound B jammed into the compound courtyard and "were about ready to force the gate or fences," Miller said.

A five-officer board now is on Pongam investigating the incident. The rioting prisoners were pro-Communist civilian captives.
