CORNWALL W. M. S.

The April meeting of Cornwall W. M. S. was held at the home of Mrs. Walter Boyle with a goodly number present despite unfavorable weather conditions. In the absence of the secretary Mrs. Watson Livingstone recorded the minutes.

It was the Easter service and worship was led by Mrs. Harry Crosby. Mrs. Herbert Scott read and Mrs. Swan.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Brehaut and son were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Will Watts on Sunday evening, April 12th.

the Scripture from Mark's gospel Chapter sixteen and all joined in the singing of two well known Easter hymns. A solo, "I remember Calvary", was beautifully rendered by Mrs. Stewart Drake. The prayer and meditation were given by the leader who closed the worship with Benediction.

As a sequence to the recent study of Angola the story of David Livingstone at Victoria Falls was told by Miss Laura Crosby. It told of his monument overlooking the falls and of relics reserved in the Rhodes-Livingstone museum as seen by the writer, Miss Atling, on a recent journey through Rhodesia, and depicted the modern village of the workmen of the copper belt. One thing was lacking—there was no church.

Mention was made by the president, Mrs. Harry Hyde, of the retirement of Dr. Winifred Thomas after a lifetime of service in the church, the last twenty years of which were spent as General Secretary of the Dominion Board of the United Church in Canada and older members recalled pleasant memories of her early life in Cornwall when with her parents she lived at the Parsonage.

A story entitled, "After the darkness the dawn" was read very feelingly by Mrs. Earl Moore and told of the renewed courage and hope which Easter Sunday brought to two young people saddened by the death of a dear friend.

Two new members were welcomed and a two minute silence was observed in token of esteem for the late Mrs. Herbert Frizzell, for many years a life member of this society.

Having previously decided to hold a Rally at Cornwall, a day in June was decided upon.

A recently compiled W. M. S. quilt was displayed; also the mat hooked by the Ladies Aid. A special collection was taken to defray expenses of sending a box of clothing for Overseas Relief.

Mrs. Douglas MacDonald and Mrs. J. D. MacFarlane consented to act as leaders for the Cornwall branch of the Mission Band at their next meeting. Those of the W. M. S. with April birthdays contributed according to their years to the Mission Band birthday box.

The next meeting will be at the Parsonage with Mrs. MacFarlane as hostess; assisting will be Mrs. Brewer Boyle, Mrs. Charles Hyde and Mrs. Watson Livingstone. The Christian citizenship convener, Mrs. Stanley Murchison will have charge of the worship service. Roll call will be answered by a verse of scripture commencing with the letter "T".

The meeting closed with the Mizpah Benediction. Lunch and a social hour followed.

STOCKHOLM, (CP)—The number of cremations in Sweden in 1952 reached 11,686 or about 17 per cent of all registered deaths. In some cities cremation now is more common than interment. In Sundsvall, 85 per cent of all deceased were cremated.
