OBITUARY

Inserted by relatives and friends as a tribute to the deceased.

MRS. WILLIAM CLARK

The death occurred in Charlottetown on June 11, 1962 of Patience Rowe Clark, widow of the late Wm. Clark, and a former resident of Brackley.

She was the oply daughter of the late George and Mary Rowe and was born in Carbonear, Newfoundland in 1873. She, as a child, immigrated to this Province with her parents and brother, William Rowe, since deceased, and resided in Charlottetown until her marriage in 1913 to William Clark of Alberton.

She was an active member of the Methodist Church, afterwards United, from her early youth.

A woman of many parts and with the courage of her convictions, she gave of her time and talents in the service of the Master with that untiring zeal and energy that characterized her every activity.

She served for many years as Superintendent and teacher in Brackley Sabbath School. For twenty years she was President of the Auxiliary of the W.M.S. She was also President of the Community Red Cross Society during later war years.

Truly it can be said of her "She hath done what she could, and her good works do follow her."

There are left to mourn four step-children: Marion, Mrs. MacNevin of Worcester, Mass., Alan and Hooper Clark of Saskatchewan and Earl of Brackley.

She passed from this life in Charlottetown in her 89th year. The influence of her Christian teaching and exemplary life will long be felt in the community of which she formed an integral part.

"There is no death!
The stars go down to rise upon
some fairer shore,
And bright in Heaven's jewelled
crown
They shine forever more."

Pallbearers were: Victor Purdy, Edwin Weeks, Russell Leard, Hedley Stewart, Leonard Cudmore, Roy Pursey.
