St. Mark's Church Is Scene Of Pretty Summer Wedding

KENNINGTON — Bouquets of summer flowers in baskets and vases made a charming setting for the marriage of Edna Marlene, daughter of Mr. Annie Burt, Kennington, and Gerard Alphonsus, son of Mr. Ollie Sheen and the late Mrs. Sheen.

The ceremony was officiated by Rev. Ronald Parsons in the presence of invited guests and interested friends.

Mrs. William Pidgeon was in charge of the nuptial music.

The bride who was given in marriage by her brother, Colin Burt, wore a gown of white nylon net and embroidery, over satin. The fitted bodice featured a high neckline finished with simulated pearl and long fitted sleeves ending in flared cuffs. Her shoulder length veil floated gracefully from a headpiece of pearls, and she carried a bouquet of red and white carnations.

Mrs. Francis Dunning, attending her sister as matron of honor, was attired in carnation pink organza, fashioned with a fitted bodice and full skirt. She wore a matching headress and carried a bouquet of yellow and white carnations.

Mrs. Elmer Burt, sister-in-law, and Mrs. Ronald Macdonald, sister of the bride, wore gowns of similar design of net over tulle. Mrs. Burt wearing yellow and carrying mauve bouquets, and Mrs. Macdonald in tulle accented with a bouquet of yellow mums. Both wore lower headresses.

The best man was Elmer Burt, brother of the bride, and P.S. Dunning and Donald Burt shared the guests to the feast. The bride and groom were greeted with sweet peas and ferns tied with bows of white ribbons.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Burt chose blue printed tulle with white accessories and a bouquet of white carnations. Mrs. Sheen, step-mother of the bride, wore printed tulle in tones of grey, with ivory accessories, and a corsage of white carnations.

A reception was held at the home of Mrs. Burt for 30 guests. The bride's table was centered with a beautifully decorated three-tiered wedding cake flanked by white tapers in crystal holders. The toast to the bride was proposed by Rev. Ronald Parsons and responded to by the groom.

The guest book was circulated by Miss Esther Paynter.

For a honeymoon tour in the Maritime, the bride donned a new piece dress in geranium pink with white accessories, and lined with a corsage of white carnations.

The groom is employed with the Hall Manufacturing Co. at TIGNISH

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Bering, St. Catharines, Ont., and their four daughters, were at the home of Mrs. Bering's mother, Mrs. Octave Gaudet, Tignish.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Gaudet, Montreal, are visiting at the home of Mr. Gaudet's mother, Mrs. Charles Gaudet, Tignish, with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Abraham Gaudet, Tignish.

Several 4-H members from the Tignish schools took prizes at the Alberton exhibition on Wednesday and Thursday.

An interesting display of 4-H handicraft at the exhibition was given high praise by local people and tourists.
