Senior's Golf Ch'ships Has Drawn Record Entry

By WALTER HAYES

VANCOUVER (CP)—A record entry of 131 golfers will tee off today on the scenic Capilano Golf and Country Club course for the Canadian Seniors golf championship.

Golf officials are enthusiastic about the entry, the largest in the four-year history of the championship. Only 57 golfers entered the match in Montreal last year.

The Capilano course, on the side of a mountain in West Vancouver, is described as being in peak condition.

Peter Bentley of the Royal Canadian Golf Association said Tuesday that the golfers—all over the age of 55—will play from slightly advanced tees on the 6,538-yard course.

"This is so they can enjoy their golf," he said. "We don't want to stretch it out."

TOP PLAYERS ENTER

Among the top entries is George C. Hevenor of Toronto, winner of the championship in 1963 and 1964. The 1962 winner, Bill Martins of Brantford, Ont., has also entered.

Missing from the lineup is C. R. (Sandy) Somerville of London, Ont., winner of the class B competition last year who has forsaken the championship this year to play in an international tournament in Europe. He is the only Canadian ever to win the U.S. amateur golf championship, which ends Friday.

In addition to over-all winners golfers will be divided into four classes: class A, age 55 to 59; class B, 60 to 64; class C, 65 to 69, and class D, 70 and over.

SENIORS COMPETE ....

Four golfers from each provincial golf association will attempt to capture the senior inter-provincial team championship.

Members of these teams will be selected after the tournament is over on the basis of their lowest aggregate score for the 54 holes.

British Columbia, Alberta Saskatchewan, Manitoba and Ontario each have the required number of golfers to make up a team. Quebec, which lost out to Ontario last year in the team championship, has only three players entered in this year's tournament and can't field a team.

Ludwig Heimrath Moves Into Third

TORONTO — Defending champion Ludwig Heimrath of Toronto moved into second place in the big-car division of the Player's Challenge Trophy Competition.

Ludwig picked up four points for his third place finish in the Player's 200 behind world champion John Surtees and U.S. champ Jim Hall. With three straight events in Eastern Canada next on the championship calendar, Heimrath is expected to make his big move.

Only others to collect points Saturday were Wayne Kelly of Trenton (3) Eitel Maier, Thornhill, Ont. (2) and Nat Adams, Toronto (1). They were 4th, 5th and 6th respectively in the under 2,000 c.c. division.

Next championship event is June 19 at Mosport.

The standings:

Over 2,000 c.cs.

Wayne Jamieson, Winnipeg, Sunbeam Tiger 9; Laurie Craig, Vancouver, Corvette, 4; Ludwig Heimrath, Toronto, McLaren Ford, 4; Cliff Lindberg, Vancouver, Corvette, 3.

Under 2,000 c.cs.

Power Kings Whip Firemen

In Commercial Softball League action last evening the Power Kings scored a 14-1 decision over the highly-rated Firemen. David "Preacher" Rowe was the key man for the Power Kings as he twirled a neat 4-hitter while fanning three. Rowe (3-0) was in complete control of the game as he did not issue a base on balls. Losing pitcher, Dick Murley (1-2) had equal control but could not silence the Power Kings bats. Murley allowed 15 hits, one walk and racked up five strikeouts. For the winners, Norm MacLeod and Tom Monaghan each collected three hits on four trips to the plate, "Hoss" Chandler and Gary Gallant went 2 for 3 and 2 for 4 respectively. The only batter for the Firemen to garner more than one hit off Rowe was Barry Turner as he struck for two hits. Pitcher Dick Murley provided the lone run for the losers with a circuit-clout in the third inning. Glen Thompson managed the fourth hit off Rowe for a 1 for 2 night. Norm MacLeod, stock little shortstop for the Power Kings made a terrific leaping catch off the bat of Roy Scantlebury for the fielding gem of the evening.

SPORTS FRONT

Jim Gilliam Back In Action

By JIM CULLEN

Jim Gilliam, trouble shooter, has resumed his old trick of rushing to the aid of the Los Angeles Dodgers. Gilliam has been pulling the Dodgers out of hot water for so many years that it has become a habit.

Gilliam started this season as a coach with the club, but all he needed to be reactivated was to notify the National league headquarters.

When the Dodgers began to flounder this season Gilliam stepped into the batter's box and poked a double in his first game for the squad and since then has been setting a terrific pace.

He has been batting close to .400 and also slammed out a couple of home runs. Gilliam has long been the unsung hero of the Dodgers. Often in spring training he would be shunted as the high powered Los Angeles propaganda machinery sang the praises of some new wonder who was ready to replace Gilliam.

Jim always managed to play his share of games for the Dodgers and usually recorded a pretty fair batting average in the process.

His switch to the status of coach for the current season was caused by a variety of reasons. They were: 1. a bow to his advanced age of 36, 2. a reward for faithful, uncomplaining service; 3. a desire to have his enormous baseball knowledge transmitted to newcomers and an unspoken idea that he'd be a mighty handy man to have on the premises in case one of his customary rescue jobs was needed.

Walter Alston, Dodger manager, stated he has no reason to regret his switching Gilliam from coach to player and that although he doesn't know how long he can keep this up that right now he's playing like a 25-year-old.

Tid Bits From Here And There

A former Prince Edward Islander, Albert MacEachern, now residing in Riverview, New Brunswick, was one of three truck drivers capturing a shield and prize money at the 1965 Maritime Truck Roadeo championships held recently at Amherst.

Albert is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph MacEachern, Fort Augustus.

Over 40 accident-free drivers took part in the competition.

The golfer's dream of a hole-in-one took a different slant in a golf tournament at Fort St. John, B.C., recently. Wes Crawley's 200-foot drive ricocheted off another golfer's belt and into the man's pocket while both were playing in a Petroleum Association tournament during the weekend.

Roy Emerson of Australia and Marie Bueno of Brazil were given top places in the Wimbleton seeding announced Tuesday by the All-England Tennis Club. Emerson and Miss Bueno are 1964 singles champions. No Canadians made the top eight.

The City recreation department was working on the Charlottetown tennis court yesterday and Jim Fox, city recreation director, told us he expects to have the courts available for use wihin the near future. There are three clay courts in Victoria Park and when these courts are in top shape we feel they rate with the best courts available in the Dominion.

The Charlottetown Inter-Club Dart League will hold its annual closing banquet at the RCAF club rooms tomorrow night. Forbie Kennedy will be the guest speaker for the affair which is scheduled to get underway at 6.30.

Staff members of the provincial department of physical education will be available this summer for anyone wishing instruction clinics in: baseball, softball, track and field as well as to conduct field days or any such service you may desire. Anyone wishing these services should contact David M. Boswell.

It is hoped that several provincial centres will have a track and field club organized for participation in the above local and provincial meets. All independents will be permitted to enter any of the above meets as well, or affiliate with any local club. In the meets sanctioned by the A.A.U. of C. participants must possess an A.A.U. of C. card. These cards can be obtained from the Provincial Division of Physical Education in Charlottetown.

The A.A.U. of C. and Division of Physical Education will sponsor a provincial track and field club representative of the best provincial athletes for competition in mainland meets. Unlike other activities, it is difficult to provide enough competition for track and field on a provincial level. For information concerning any of the above clubs, meets or field days the following people can be contacted:

Summerside Track and Field Club — James Hogan; Charlottetown Track and Field Club — Jack Kane and Donald LeClair; RCAF Track and Field Club — F-Lt. Summerside Legionnaires Whip C & B

SUMMERSIDE — Summerside Legionnaires trounced Curran and Briggs 10-4 here last evening in a regular town baseball league tilt behind the four-hit pitching of Stewart Muttart.

The winners also took advantage of eight costly errors by their opponents in running their end of the score into the double figures.

Muttart also fanned four, walked five and hit two batters.

Losing pitcher Gene Nawalski was hammered for ten hits including triples by George Taylor and George Dalton. He also issued four free passes while striking out six.

The longest hit for Curran and Briggs was a double by Alyre Poirier.
