Alberton Aquatic Day Set For Kildare Bridge

ALBERTON — The eighth annual Alberton Aquatic Sports Day, sponsored by the Alberton and West Prince Board of Trade, will be held July 31 at Kildare River bridge, original site for the event.

A meeting of the aquatic committee Friday returned the aquatic events to Kildare following two years at Alberton harbor where rough seas and high winds hampered the outdoor racing, water skiing and other classes.

Present plans are to expand the sports day into a complete afternoon and evening of entertainment. Besides the three-mile swim, sponsored by Eastern Batters, Ltd. of Saint John, swimming classes for all, a tourist swim, diving and skiing and outboard races, arrangements are being made for an exhibition of scuba diving and swimming.

Water polo, a chicken barbecue and a mammoth street dance in Alberton during the evening will wind up the day's activities.

The last time a street dance was held in the town was a long remembered celebration 23 years ago when the town's streets were paved.

The three mile swim was won last year by Morgan Mitchell of Charlottetown who is entered next Saturday in the Northumberland Strait swim. Helen Casrager of Minnigash, a Red Cross swimming instructor, was first in the ladies' division.

Chairman of the aquatic committee is Andy Wells.

FEDERAL MILK PROGRAM
OTTAWA (CP) — Agriculture Minister Hayes told the Commons Friday he expects to make an announcement "fairly soon" on the question of a federal milk program for school children. He was replying to a question by Stanley Korchiński (PC-Macdonald), whose query apparently referred to a Liberal election promise of a free milk program for schools in co-operation with the provinces.
