

ST. CLEMENT DANES CHURCH RECONSECRATED

This is a general view of ceremony as London's St. Clement Danes Church was re-consecrated Sunday. In center stand Queen Elizabeth II and Prince Philip. On altar in background is Dr. Henry Campbell, Bishop of London. The church, built by Sir Christopher Wren in 1681, was destroyed by Nazi fire bombs in World War II. It was rebuilt in the Wren style and re-consecrated as a Royal Air Force shrine of remembrance for all who died in two wars flying for Britain. (AP Wirephoto)

C.G.I.T. Groups Meetings Held

The Assembly Hall and adjoining rooms of the Kensington United Church are scenes of activity on Thursday evenings. About 40 girls are enrolled in C.G.I.T. groups, ranging in age from 12 to 17 years. Periods of recreation, study and worship have begun and during the last two weeks the Senior girls are learning to cut a skirt from a pattern, assisted by several ladies from the congregation.

The Intermediate Girls are making aprons, Kleenex flowers and plaques using the verse of scripture, Luke 2, 52 upon which their program is based. In the near future there will be an Initiation and Lanyard ceremony, and plans are being made to sponsor a campaign for "Shell out for UNICEF" on Halloween.

The following officers have been elected: Seniors, Mrs. Robert Carruthers, Leader; President, Gail Proffit; Vice-president, Elizabeth Ramsay; Secretary, Sheila Caseley; Treasurer, Margaret Walker; News reporter, Jean MacLeod; Seniors, Mrs. Duncan Picketts, Leader; President, Libby Shuman; Vice-president, Evelyn Moase; Secretary, Marilyn Bryant; Intermediates, Miss Dorothy MacKenzie, Leader; President, Donna Baker; Vice-president, Judy Picketts; Secretary, Judith Cousins; Intermediates, Mrs. Leslie Clark, Leader; President, Jane Beaching; Vice-president, Sharon Clark; Secretary, Norma Ramsay.

Meeting at the same time as the girls is a Tuxis Group for Senior Boys led by the Rev. L.M. Murray, and a Sigma-Group for Intermediate Boys with Mr. Keith Moase as leader.

W.M.S. Rally Held At Borden

Over fifty women representing twelve W.M.S. Auxiliaries met recently in Borden United Church for a most successful sectional Rally.

Mrs. Ralph MacCaull, Baby Band Secretary and Mrs. Kenneth Muttart, Mission Band secretary conducted this meeting. Mrs. John Simmons, Mrs. Joseph Trowsdale and Mrs. Ralph Myers of Crapaud Auxiliary presented an inspiring worship service based on the 23rd Psalm.

Mrs. Kenneth MacLennan, Borden, welcomed the ladies and a fitting reply was given by Mrs. John Haslam, Carleton.

Themes chosen was "Jesus and the Joy of Service" with the hymn "Go labor on spend and be spent". Interspersed throughout the service, Mrs. J. F. Easton presided at the organ.

Greetings were brought from Presbyterial by the president, Mrs. F.W. Cutcliffe, Fredericton. She also gave a report of general resolutions from Dominion Board and from Conference Branch. A fine number "The Light of the World" was given by the Borden Explorers and C.G.I.T. girls. Roll call of Auxiliaries was taken and offering received and dedicated.

An interesting report of Conference Branch was given by Mrs. Russell Leard, Casumpeque. Mrs. Cook Howatt, Carleton, favored the gathering with a vocal solo "The World needs a friend like Jesus." Following this Mrs. Alexander MacKay, Kensington, spoke on W.M.S. periodicals and urged greater emphasis on the reading of these magazines.

Mrs. Heber Hardy, Supply secretary, Alberton, spoke on her department. She stated that the need for good used warm clothing for foreign mission fields was still great, also such articles as powdered milk, soap, etc., if these articles could not be sent, money could be sent instead to the Mission Board at Toronto, which would be used to purchase these needed articles and sent to where the need was greatest.

The highlight of the afternoon was the forceful and enlightening address of the guest speaker Rev. Wilfred Dindial of Trinidad.

He described conditions in his native land, particularly regarding the different religions found there, and pressed the need for more workers to bring the Christian religion to Trinidad. He was introduced by Mrs. J.S. MacLeod, Hunter River and thanked by Mrs. MacCaull.

The treasurer's report was given by Mrs. MacLeod showing the givings to be $200.00 than this time last year. A fine display of literature was introduced and sold by the Literature secretary, Mrs. Harold Laird, Kensington. A very fine closing meditation based on the theme was given by Mrs. Kenneth Muttart, followed by the benediction. A delicious lunch was served by the Borden ladies and a social time enjoyed by all. A hearty vote of thanks was extended to these ladies by Mrs. Cutcliffe.

LONGEST STRIKE
The world's longest strike is believed to have been against a public house in Dublin. It began in 1939 and ended in 1953.
