TORONTO

TORONTO (CP)—Few prices had more than fractional changes during extremely light trading on the stock market Thursday.

The sessions turnover was at its lowest point in more than a month with the final volume at about 2,500,000 shares. The observance of the Memorial Day holiday by several United States markets was believed partially responsible for the day's lack of activity.

Hayes Steel showed one of the largest industrial gains after the company announced a two-for-one stock split proposal which is to be presented to share-holders for approval. The stock jumped as much as 2¼ to a new 1963 high of 22 but was ahead only 1½ at the close.
only 1½ at the close.

Other gainers included Ontario Steel, up a point, Dominion Bridgeahead ½, and Slater, ahead ⅜. Interprovincial Pipe Line jumped ¾ and Bell Telephone and Consumer's Gas each rose ¼.

Losers included Molson A, down ¾, Calgary Power, off ⅝ and Great Lakes Power, down ½.

On index, industrials gained .59 to 645.29 and base metals advanced .97 to 215.67. Golds slipped .27 to 86.86 and western oils dropped .07 to 124.08. Final volume was 2,510,000 shares compared with 3,435,000 Wednesday.

Falconbridge and Hudson Bay Mining each rose ¾ and Cassiar and International Nickel both advanced ¼ to support a base metals rise.

Western oils were quiet throughout the session with Bailey-Selburn A dropping ⅜ and Pacific Petroleum easing ¼.
