THE SEMI-ANNUAL EXAMINATION.
The semi-annual examination of the Vernon River school took place in the above school on the 9th inst. All the school officers and a goodly number of rate-payers were present. The primary department was first examined by the principal and all were pleased with the examination. Then the advanced department was examined by several in the different subjects and the scholars did remarkably well.

THE ARMEANIAN ATROCITIES.
According to a London despatch the story which has been thrilling the world for some time past of the wife of the Armenian leader, Grego, who rather than Turkish persecutors herself with her child in arms into the abyss and was followed by other women until the ravine was filled with corpses, has been exploded, as many persons predicted it would be at the time it was sprung upon the public. It has been discovered that the horrible narrative is the production, with additions and embellishments to suit the occasion of an old tale told in poetry by Mrs. Hermans years ago, under the title of the "Suliot Mother." This discovery suggests a possibility, not to say a probability, that the "Armenian atrocities" were to a large extent figments of the brain of some imaginative fanatic, originated for gain, revenge, or with some other similar object and has caused a marked cessation of anti-Turkish excitement upon all sides, except among professional Armenian agitators who have always been addicted to paroxysms of activity. These persons refuse to believe the story to have no better basis than Mrs. Hermans' rhapsody, and await with perfect confidence, the report of the investigating commission which is already in Armenian territory. Doctor Baronian, pastor of the Armenian church in London, in an interview, expressed perfect confidence that whatever justice it is possible to obtain for Armenia would be obtained in England.

TRAVELLERS, away from the comforts of home, will find in Hawker's liver pills a speedy cure for all disturbance of the stomach.
