

Board Sponsors Meeting
On Agriculture Marketing

The first meeting of the Federation Board of Directors since the annual meeting was held on Tuesday afternoon with very encouraging attendance. Among the more important matters considered was that of requesting the privilege of presenting a brief to the members of the legislature. Resolutions from the annual meeting were considered and decisions arrived at on matters to be emphasized in the proposed brief.

Through the respective provincial federations or directly. The original motion was moved by a delegate from Ontario and seconded by a Saskatchewan delegate whose affiliation with the G.F.A. is through the Saskatchewan Farmers Union. The mover and seconder of the amendment were both delegates whose affiliation with the CFA is through the positions they hold with the Farmers' Unions of Alberta and Saskatchewan.

THE WEEK AT SDU

Musical Carousel Is Hailed; Another Play Is Prepared

By FRANK CORCORAN
SDU Correspondent
With all the magic aura, that usually surrounds the premiere of a play on Broadway, the musical 'Carousel' was twice presented to a packed house, once at the Alumni Auditorium at SDU and once at the Queen's Charlotte High School. This production, which has been termed by many the greatest by St. Dunstons actors and singers, ever. Directed by Rev. Arsenault, music scores conducted by Sr. Mary Pauline, with choreography by Mrs. Hilton, and with Miss Patty Grant at the piano, the play exceeded the rather lavish predictions of its success.

The musical is scheduled for production in at least two other Island centres, before its run is finished, and Charlie Smith, as Billy Bigelow, Pat Leightner, as Julie Jordan, "Crash" Sautner as Jigger, Dick Mans and Peggy MacIntyre as Mrs. and Mr. Snow, Mary Donovan and Miss Bigelow, and with the fine singing voices of Eileen Grant and Virginia MacDougall, backed by a cast of seventy it is practically guaranteed to send you from the theatre after more than two hours of sparkling entertainment, with smiles, and perhaps even a tearful turn.

And on the stage, Blood Wedding, the captivating 3-act play by Federico Lorca, is nearing its production date. Exams are scheduled at SDU next Friday, Saturday, and Monday, so rehearsals are suspended until then, but the play will be before the public in March, sometime. Mike Lane, Bill MacLeod, Patricia Leightner, Lois Hughes, are only a few of the names that will be assuming a more maracabre role, in this stage effort, and shortly before its premiere. I'll have more on that production.

BASKETBALL
Well, for Thursday, Friday, and Saturday of this week, the SDU Varsity basketball team is away, at Mt. Allison University for the three game mid-winter tournament, the first of its kind to be held at Mt. A. in years.

The JV Basketball team, coached by Don Desroches, has been doing quite well in the city league and are currently tied with the Pirates, coached by Jack Ross. The collegians have been going great guns, with Pat Smith and Peter Grant, always up in the double figures for the Red and White, and with Rene Perry and Phil Mullally rounding out the scoring.

ONE VOICE
Prior to 1935 agriculture spoke with many voices and often in conflict. It was the need of unity that sparked the development of Canadian Federation of Agriculture. However, the federation has not been the only group speaking for Canadian farmers.

FENCING TARIFF
Removal of the federal sales tax on farm fencing materials was requested in a joint presentation to Finance Minister Fleming this afternoon by the Ontario Federation of Agriculture and the Ontario Farmers' Union. The brief was supported by representatives of the two national farm organizations, the Canadian Federation of Agriculture and the National Farmers' Union.

POSSESSION OF STOLEN GOODS
Case Adjudged In Ch'town
Following the testimony of one crown witness, the case of William Harry Poulton, Charlottetown, charged with possession of stolen goods, was adjudged on Feb. 22 by Magistrate A.J. Haslam in city police office.

'BAHA'I'

Oneness of Religion:
Terrible today is the plight of mankind, unbelief, defiance of divine law, degradation, hardness of heart.
Baha'ullah foretold these wars and tribulations, proclaimed that God's love was greater than his wrath, that his mercy would outreach his judgment. He who come to earth to seek his lost children would seek until he found. Man's heart would be changed and cleansed, his hardened eyes would be opened, he would behold his God, and be saved.
