McLellan - Starratt

Wedding

An event of interest to a wide circle of friends and relatives in this province and Nova Scotia took place on Friday, July 4th, at 7 p. m., in the Hantsport Baptist Church when Zelda Louise, elder daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Starratt of Hanstport, N. S., became the bride of Ivan Sinclair, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. William E. McLellan of Pleasant Valley, P. E. I.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, looked lovely in a strapless gown of nylon marquisette with a long sleeved lace bolero and a halo headdress from which fell a shoulder length veil of nylon tulle. She carried a bouquet of red roses and white baby's breath.

She was attended by her cousin, Miss Anna McNeil, who wore a gown of pink taffeta, a halo headdress, and carried a nosegay of pink and white carnations.

The bride's brother, Mr. Wilbur Starratt, was best man, and the ushers were Mr. Richard Starratt and Mr. Curtis McKinnon.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. Those serving were Mrs. Richard Starratt, Mrs. Austin Schofield, Mrs. Loma Harvey, Mrs. William Saller, and the Misses Mary McNeil, Pauline Isnor, Mary Lee Starratt, Shirley and Evelyn Demings, and Lily May and Alwen Starratt.

On the moonlight night, balmy with the sea breeze from the Gulf of St. Lawrence, a chartered bus from Charlottetown conveyed the passengers to the beach on Saturday, August 9, while others went in cars and truck.

A camp-fire soon sent a merry spirit of comradeship among the jolly bunch. A number of the party enjoyed salt sea bathing while others enjoyed a campfire while others enjoyed a worthy of songs, guitar music and a vocal solo very sweetly.

Among this jolly group was a number of new Canadian citizens among them some from Greece and Sweden. A lovely Swedish lady sang very sweetly with words in the Swedish language.

A delicious buffet lunch of fried wieners and rolls, together with doughnuts and soft drinks satisfied the ravenous appetites thus created. At a late hour, happy with the pleasure of this lovely outing the bus and cars conveyed them home, after they had expressed their gratitude to their host and employer.
