

HOROSCOPES

SCORPIO (OCT 24 - NOV 22)

Despair not, my sweet. Tension breaks midweek and releases you from its chains. Let loose and take advantage of this primo situation.

SAGITTARIUS (NOV 23 - DEC 21)

Hint: A holdfast dog is better than a brag. Expect greatness this week if your trap remains closed when necessary. Don't pursue broken dreams.

CAPRICORN (DEC 22 - JAN 20)

Faith kept is better than released despair. Hold back your paranoid delusions until the weekend. Stop looking over your shoulder and maybe the path might clear. Reject the impulse to be self-conscious. The world does not keep its eyes on your sole form.

AQUARIUS (JAN 21 - FEB 19)

Strut your stuff this week. Everything should come together. Stress may accumulate at the homefront; but don't concern yourself with things beyond your control.

PISCES (FEB 20 - MARCH 20)

Blind truth may prick at your happiness this week. Ignore rumours at all cost. Remember that talk is mere words, and that the pesky phonemes might be arranged falsely.

ARIES (MARCH 21 - APRIL 20)

Love is on the way. Open your eyes to the obvious. Disinfect your fears and you might be able to grasp this awesome prospect.

TAURUS (APRIL 21 - MAY 21)

Loneliness may try to penetrate if you let it. Socialize with friends rather than exercise your fears. Use conversation to your benefit.

GEMINI (MAY 22 - JUNE 21)

Unplug your expanding energy and use this power to your advantage. Break out some Lauriers (money, okay?) and treat a bud to Bud.

CANCER (JUNE 22 - JULY 23)

You can be a real Tasmanian Devil when the occasion calls -- but hold back the spins until the weekend. Keep the psycho inside until your academic duties are met.

LEO (JULY 24 - AUG 23)

Guilt is a powerful master. Free yourself from its shackles. No one is white as snow -- society has polluted us all. Don't strive for the unobtainable goal of perfection.

VIRGO (AUG 24 - SEPT 23)

Drive up the social ladder. Don't let anyone tell you where to go. Be the master of your location. Yeah, this does sound like a mysterious prospect; but read between the lines and see the meaning in the spaces, okay?

LIBRA (SEPT 24 - OCT 22)

Kill the monkey that wears you down. Let this be your weekend of triumph. Don't ignore dire responsibilities, however. Release yourself after it's scholastically possible.

Personals

Stunning brunette with blue eyes. 20. University student.

Are you tired of the club scene?

One night stands?

Relationships with no purpose or future?

Personals are not my style, however, if a gentleman 20-35 who still believes in friendship, honesty, trust, and possibly build into romance then please reply with photo and self description.
