THE DAILY EXAMINER

OCTOBER 21, 1896.

BRITONS, HOLD YOUR OWN.

The account of the battle of Glencoe published by THE EXAMINER, today, makes exciting reading. With what they believed to be an overwhelming force, the Boers attacked the British from a position of vantage; and the defence was in keeping with the glorious traditions of the British army. The Boers have learned such a lesson at Mafeking and Glencoe as they are not likely soon to forget. If the British can but hold their own until the reinforcements in transit shall have arrived, there will soon be an end to the war and another great triumph of the cause of liberty, justice and civilization.

BOURASSA'S RESIGNATION.

Mr. Bourassa has resigned his position in the House of Commons, the alleged ground being that a Canadian contingent is to be sent to the Transvaal. This looks very like a put up job—and a job of which the Master of the Administration is the instigator. Mr. Tarte is anxious for an election, because he sees clearly that the longer he and his friends remain in office, the less likelihood there is that they will be returned to office. Tarte is a bold man, and would rather take his chance now than await inevitable defeat at the end of the Parliamentary term. So he has, we believe, put Mr. Bourassa up to resign his seat upon a question about which he hopes that the French-Canadian population will unite. Probably one or two other French-Canadian members will be found to follow suit,—and then the Government will have a good excuse to go to the country, in the hope that they will come back with an almost solid Quebec contingent and a not materially reduced support, upon the ground of good times—from the other Provinces of Canada. It is not at all likely that Mr. Bourassa has acted upon his own motion. He is an intimate friend of Laurier and Tarte, and has been selected for a Cabinet position—which he will obtain at once, if only the game can be successfully played.

DIFFERING OPINIONS.

SIR LOUIS DAVIES, in England, sounded a note very different from that of his colleague Sir Wilfred Laurier and Mr. Tarte, Master of the Administration in Canada, speaking at a banquet a few evenings ago, Sir Louis asserted that the contingent of 1,000 men was only a vanguard of what would be forthcoming if necessity demanded a further call. The policy of the Empire, broad and liberal, based upon equal rights and justice to all, had evoked unbounded enthusiasm among Canadians. Come what might, Canada, irrespective of party differences, would be found united on the question of duty to the Mother Country. Canadians were loyally determined to stand by the Empire in the securing of justice and equality for all her subjects." It is greatly to be regretted that Sir Wilfrid and Mr. Tarte have spoken and acted in a sense so very far removed from these just sentiments. Perhaps Sir Louis didn't know, when he spoke, that the Government of Canada had acted tardily, with evident unwillingness, and only when forced to do so by the voice of public opinion.

There is No Better Furniture
 No Furniture Prices are So Reasonable

The furniture market is flooded with trash—quickly made, light weight stuff, presented with the glitter of little price. None of this has ever leaked in here. It cannot. The furniture we sell is, first of all, reliable, carefully and strongly made and neatly finished. We value your friendship too highly to risk it upon trash. Once a patron always a patron here—if excellent quality careful service and reasonable price can combine to clinch the friendship.

BAD BARGAIN FOR CANADA.

We fear that Sir Louis Davies has not, while in England, made a good bargain for Canada;—because papers published on the other side of the line are well satisfied that a very good bargain has been made for the United States! Thus, the correspondent of the New York Sun says:

"Altogether the arrangement is perfectly satisfactory to this government, for it not only practically assures a continuance of peace between the rival miners, with all that such a condition means, but it leaves the United States in possession of every water inlet and outlet to the Klondike country, retains within American territory the ports of Dyea and Skagway, one of which Great Britain wanted at one time actually claimed, and gives to the United States the bulk, if not all, of the Klondike trade."

And the Sun remarks:—
 "By this agreement Great Britain does not get a port on tide-water, or a place on a stream leading to tide-water that is even navigable by canoes."

We sincerely hope that the United States advances lack the essential element. If the United States have been accorded possession of the disputed points in the meantime, it will be difficult to persuade them to consent to an arbitration which may result in a finding for Canada. The arrangement made with Sir Louis Davies, being "perfectly satisfactory" to Uncle Sam, Uncle Sam will not be in a hurry to make another arrangement.

NOTES AND COMMENTS.

—The sermon of Rev. James Simpson, published (by request) in another column is worthy of perusal by the young and old of every class and denomination.

—It is reported today upon good authority that Mr. Irving is canvassing the electors of Belfast as an Independent. What has Premier Farquharson to say to this? Are there none so poor to do him reverence?

—The Montreal Gazette remarks, truly: The action of the Canadian Government has been dilatory and unsatisfactory to the majority of the Canadian people. The Government took no action until frightened out of their wits by the free expression of public opinion, and then did as little as they could.

Montreal Star: Liberals in different parts of the country have been freely expressing their discontent with the performances of the Liberal Government. Will they vote as they have protested? There is no reason why they should not except for a mistaken loyalty to party. Remove that remnant of mental slavery from their "make-up" and they would, as a matter of course, vote against the thing they do not like.

DOES NOT FIT.

To Hon. Donald Farquharson.

SIR,—After having carefully considered the matter, we the teachers of P. E. Island have decided that a stenographer in Prince of Wales College will not fill the bill. If you wish, you may go and offer a teacher of stenography to the teachers of P. W. C., where perhaps your offer may be appreciated. To us, it is not of sufficient interest to require a very long speech to announce it.

If you cannot fill the order we gave you at a previous convention—supplemental allowances—we must go to another firm.

It is very likely we would have told you so, had you made your offer in open convention—instead of waiting until the convention was over and then making it at a concert, where we could not even have the privilege of thanking you for it?

No, Mr. Farquharson it does not fit. Close your (political) shop; the machine is not turning out work made as per order.

TEACHER.

TOO BAD

SIR,—Can it be true that there is not to be an officer from the 82nd Battalion go to the Transvaal, when the contingent is supposed to be all infantry? There should at least be one of our own officers.
