Island Navigator Is Graduate

Flight Cadet R.L. MacLaughlin (now Pilot Officer) being congratulated by Air Vice Marshall F.R. Miller, C.B.E., following the presentation of his navigator's wings at the wings parade at the Summerside R.C.A.F. Station last Saturday. Pilot Officer MacLaughlin is a son of Mrs. James H. MacLaughlin of Stanhope, P.E.I. and is the first Islander to graduate as an Air Force navigator since the war. Prior to enlisting in the Air Force in July, 1948, he attended Prince of Wales College and Queen's University, Kingston, Ont. — S. R. C. A. F. Photo

IN MEMORIAM

MIS LAURA A. HARDY
Following years of failing health and some months of confinement to bed, Miss Laura Hardy entered into rest on Monday morning, May 15, 1950, in the Western Hospital, Alberton. She was eighty years of age. Miss Hardy was a daughter of the late James and Martha, (Ramsay), Hardy of Montrose. A good many years of her life were spent in the United States, but she also spent much time at the family home in Montrose. She was known by many friends as a gentle, quiet-mannered Christian lady whose life exemplified the principles in which she believed.
She was a member of Montrose United Church and so long as health permitted, took an active part in its life and work. Surviving are three sisters and one brother: Mrs. Fred Good, (Ida), of Worcester, Mass.; Mrs. David Campbell, (Eliza), at present in Worcester; Mrs. Alan Clark, (Barbara), Alma, and Ramsay Hardy of Montrose.
The funeral, on Wednesday afternoon from the home of her brother, was conducted by Rev. P. A. Fitzpatrick and Rev. J. M. Sheen. Hymns sung were: "What a Friend We Have in Jesus" and "Forever With the Lord." Burial by six neighbors, Dawson Quiley, Hudson Pridham, Raymond Shea, Peter McIntyre, Kenneth Gordon and Howard Bowness, her body was laid to rest in beautiful Montrose Cemetery. The flower-bearers were: Byron Bowness, Hillard Pridham, Colwill Pridham and Edwin Hardy.

IN MEMORIAM

WILFRED CONNOLLY

Citizens of Bedouque were very shocked to hear of the sudden passing of Wilfred Connolly at the age of 65. Although Mr. Connolly had not been enjoying good health for the past two years, was about his duties as usual, until the day of his demise.
The late Mr. Connolly was born in Charlottetown, but spent most of his life in Bedouque, where he was well and favourably known and highly esteemed. Being of a keen mind, he was a brilliant conversationalist, and could always give a word of good advice, as well as a helpful hand.
He wished to mourn his sorrowing widow the former, Maud Malone of Freetown; also two children, Bernadette teaching in Craupud and Maurice on the homestead. Also one sister Mrs. Wilbert McCarville of Boston. Four brothers, Owen, Jack and Vincent of Bedouque; Bernard of Charlottetown and Charles who preceded him three years ago.
He was a devout member of St. Peter's Church, Seven Mile Bay, where his very largely attended funeral was held May 16th. Requiem High Mass was sung by his pastor Reverend W. V. MacDonald who also conducted the service at the grave. The pallbearers were: Earl Noonan, Lewis Muttart, Ralph Callbeck, John Green, Lewis O'Connor, Thomas Hammill. May his soul rest in peace.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of our dear Dad, Prosper Bernard, who died June 15th, 1944.
Memories are treasures
No one can steal
Death is a heartache
No one can heal
Some may forget you
Now that you're gone
But we will remember
No matter how long.
Lovingly Remembered by Daughters
Doris and Reta Bernard.
