Is Discharged On Sedition Charge

ST. CATHERINES, Ont., June 9.—Edmund Ellbacher, 34, Bavarian-born tailor, who had been in custody for 48 hours charged with uttering sedition, was discharged by Magistrate J. H. Campbell today with the warning that if Canada was not satisfactory, the sooner he got out the better.

The joke that brought a chuckle from Sir Ronald Lindsay? Well, it was confidential. But the British ambassador, right, and Secretary of State Cordell Hull were in high humors as they chatted about welcome formalities and Washington festivities for king and queen.

Charlottetown B. C. Commencement Exercises

The 1938-1939 term of the Charlottetown Business College was concluded Tuesday morning, May 30, and those who had completed their various courses of study and had successfully proven by their written examinations that they were worthy of graduation were granted the certificate and diploma of the College.

Mr. Paquet, of the Business Training Department, reviewed briefly the work of the term and congratulated the students on their splendid results and the exceedingly close application which the great majority of them had given to the work, which today is bearing fruit in their graduation. He also stressed the point that this College did not look to the number of students that it could graduate, but rather to the quality, and in this way it is the envy of the College to safeguard the employing public.

In continuing his remarks, Mr. Paquet paid the highest tribute to the late Mr. L. B. Miller, former principal of the College, who had pressed his deep regret that those students who had entered the College for the first time this year had been denied the privilege of studying under such a beloved teacher.

Mrs. Sutherland, of the Shorthand and Typewriting Department spoke briefly with regard to the work done in her department. She congratulated the students who had been successful in obtaining their diplomas, and expressed her confidence in their ability to fill any position which might be awaiting them.

Mrs. Sutherland said that she felt that special mention should be made of two students who had been most successful this term, Miss Mary MacKay and Miss Lillian Clark. Miss MacKay, during her short term at the College, has completed her course in the Business Training Department, a very full course indeed, one drawn up by the late Mr. Miller upon the request of the business men of Charlottetown. She has also completed her shorthand and Typewriting Course with a speed of one hundred and seven words a minute in Shorthand and forty-five words a minute in Typewriting. Miss Clark, during her eight months stay at the College completed her Shorthand and Typewriting Course with a speed of one hundred and two words a minute in Shorthand and fifty-four words a minute in Typewriting, as well as filling a part-time position during the last few months of the term.

Mr. Paquet and Mrs. Sutherland both expressed the pleasure they would feel in welcoming back to their familiar places those students who had entered the College late in the term and had not completed their course, but hoped they would be listed among the graduates of next year.

The following students have been granted certificates from the Business Training Department: Mildred Fraser, Alberton. Irene Farrish, Milton. Wesley Fraser, Elmira. William Hambley, City. Alice MacLennan, City. Margaret MacLennan, City. Jack MacLennan, City. Mary MacKay, Dundas. Stuart Richardson, City. Pearl Rowe, City. Claire MacNeill, City. Preston Roper, City. Bert Townsend, City. Gregory Kelley, City.

INCORPORATED 1885—Through a typographical error Charlottetown's date of incorporation was given as 1885 instead of 1855 in Saturday's issue.

A SUCCESSFUL PLAY—On Wednesday evening, May 31st, the Mayfield Dramatic Club presented "The Gate to Happiness", a three-act comedy drama, to a large crowd in Mayfield Hall. The cast of characters were as follows: Jack Gray (Eden's brother), Erwin Andrew, Jenny Gay (Eden's lame sister), Jennie Smith, Mrs. Blake (the minister's wife), Mrs. Gordon (Houston), Aunt Sara Gray (who has shock pains), Martha Brown; Eden Gray (the dancer Carlotta), Mrs. Blair Andrew; Oscar Gray (Eden's father), McBurn McDowell; Rev. Blake (the minister), Edward Lovell; Stephen Blake (his son), Willie Johnson; Rex Curtis (Eden's New York admirer) Lloyd Houston; Sunny Gay (Jack's bride), Cora Toombs. It would not be wise to give special credit to any one player, as each one excelled in carrying out his or her own part, which was greeted with an overwhelming applause. Mr. Lewis Toombs capably acted as chairman. The following specialties were rendered between acts: Instrumental music by "The Rustico Orchestra"; trio by "The Wandering Minstrel"; and a duet by Billie and George Andrew was also encored, and a reading by Mr. DeWitt Brown. There was also a sale of candy. The night proved a great success and a large sum was realized. The Club again presented their drama in Fredericton hall, on June 5th. Although the weather was very disagreeable they were greeted by a very appreciative audience. Much credit is due Mrs. Lewis Toombs who so graciously assisted the cast.
