McKAY WOOLEN CO., The Swell Tailors.

Yes, it's time to order your Summer outfit, and in matters of dress the first commandment is: never put off for to-morrow what ought to be done to-day. The time to order is now, and the place—well, you won't have any doubt upon this point if you just step in and look over our stock of Summer Suitings, and furthermore, see what high-class tailoring really means, as illustrated and exemplified in the made-to-order suits which we are producing for the most stylishly dressed men in town, at from $13 to $35 each.

S. A. McDONALD, the Fashionable Tailor. Charlotteville, June 26, 1895-135

A Word in Season.

Don't Forget the engineers' spoon competition to-morrow afternoon.

J. O. L.—Rev. U. G. Miller will preach for the Orangemen in the Christian Church on Sabbath, July 7th, at 11 a. m.

Dox Tax.—The police are now on their annual rounds, collecting dog tax. Those who have not paid, better do so at once and save a fine.

Summons Issued.—Yesterday afternoon a summons was served on Margaret Callahan for a breach of the Sunday Observance Law. It is returnable on Monday.

In a Netshell.—2.30 o'clock in the hour, Wednesday night, Ferry Wharf is the place, pleasant the object. Don't miss it—the 1st Methodist Sunday School picnic.

Sr. Paul's Picnic.—The Sr. Paul's Sunday School picnic at West River yesterday was well attended by children of the school and others, and a very pleasant day was passed.

Home Again.—Sheriff Robertson and constables Campbell and Beards returned home last night, having landed the prisoners, Jackson, White and Mallar at Dorchester yesterday.

"The great successes of the world" have been affairs of a second, a third, nay, a fifth trial.—John Murray.

The great successes of the past in connection with Zion Church picnics warrant us in expecting even greater ones in the future. The next takes place at Morell on the 11th inst. See advt. tomorrow.

Picnic on Monday.—On Monday next at 9 o'clock a special train will leave this city for the Second Methodist S. S. Picnic at Elliott's Station. No person who wants a long good time should miss it. Some who did not attend last year afterwards regretted it. Don't be of that number. Return tickets only 40 cents. Tea and refreshments on the grounds.

For To-morrow.—Remember the tea at Victoria which will take place to-morrow. Be one of the party. Go and have a beautiful day and a good time, for it is very seldom such an opportunity is offered. The steamer leaves the Steam Navigation Company's wharf at 10 a. m. and leaves Capra at 6 p. m. The fare including tea is next to nothing—only 65 cents.

Festival at Hopfield.—The members of Hopfield Methodist Church intend holding a strawberry and ice cream festival on Wednesday, the 10th of July, beginning at 4 o'clock p. m. at Winslow Station, on the premises of Mr. Johnson. After the festival there will be a picnic in the Methodist Church by city talent. If the day prove unfavorable it will be held the following day.

Races at the Park.—The following entries have been made for the 2-year-old Futurity race to be held during the exhibition here next September: John McPhee, Lower Preston. Geo. H. Freeman, Truro.

A Big Picnic at Elliott's Station.—Everybody living in the vicinity of this beautiful little spot can have a jolly good time by attending the Second Methodist S. S. Picnic here on Monday next. A large train load of children, with their parents and friends from this city will arrive there between eleven and twelve o'clock a. m. As this will be a big picnic and preparations are being made for serving tea and refreshments to a large number, no person living near should miss it. See advertisement for particulars.

A Lucky Find.—While working in the cellar of his house, on the old Thomas Potter farm in Elm Valley, northeast of Delaware, O., John Hunt made his fortune by a lucky find. With a hired man, George Legg, he was cleaning out the cellar, which had not been much used for years. Legg came across a flat stone covered by a strange looking old earthenware jar. The cover was removed and the jar was found to contain hundreds of gold $20 pieces. The fortune is estimated at from $20,000 to $25,000.

Maritime Medical Association.—Sixty-five members of the Maritime Medical Association, in session at Halifax, spent most of Wednesday discussing topics of interest to the profession. Dr. Conroy, of Charlottetown, read a paper entitled "Combined Ovarianitis and Hysterectomy." In the afternoon the doctors attended an "at home" at the residence of President Farrell. The business session closed on Thursday, after which the Association went for a sail on the harbor and visited the quarantine station on Macnaught's Island, where dinner was served in the evening.

Fourth of July.—The "Glorious Fourth" was celebrated on board the Olivette last evening. The programme included a dinner, followed by a display of fireworks and a speech. The dinner was very good. The table was spread in splendid style, and ample justice was done "the good things provided." After dinner a number of toasts were responded to. Captain Hanlon presided. Among the invited guests were Mayor Dawson, P. Blake, President of the Board of Trade, and D. J. Kane, United States consul. There was a large gathering on the wharf to see the display of fireworks and the searchlight.

The Wesley Circle Social.—The garden social at Mr. Wm. Hearl's last evening was a decided success financially and as a means of enjoyment. It could hardly be otherwise when held in such a magnificent place and with the energy of the Wesley Circle at the back of it. The different refreshment tables were tastefully decorated and well patronized. Worth's Band furnished sweet music till ten o'clock, and closed up the evening of the glorious 4th by playing the beautiful strains of "God Save the Queen." Everyone seemed to enjoy themselves and to go home hoping that the Wesley Circle would soon furnish another garden party and that they would choose grounds as well situated and as beautiful.
