Howlan and Vicinity

Allan Boulter of O'Leary motored to Howlan on Friday.

Lorraine Gallant is spending a day or two in Summerside.

Peter Richard of Duvar was in Howlan on Wednesday.

Firmin Perry is visiting with members of his family who reside in Summerside.

John Platts of Howlan just finished loading a car load of pulp at Howlan.

Mrs. Alex Gallant of Duvar is now spending some time in Woodstock at the home of Mrs. Catherine Gallant.

Ferdinand Arsenault who spent the Yuletide vacation at his home in Howlan has now returned to his studies in St. Hyacinth's College, Quebec.

There arrived in Howlan from Saint John, N.B., on Saturday night Jack Gallant and his mother-in-law, Mrs. Joe Gallant, who was a former resident of Campbellton.

Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Finnan and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gallant of Howlan spent a pleasant evening in Woodstock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Finnan on Sunday.

Miss Freda MacAusland of Howlan spent a day or two in O'Leary during the Christmas vacation. On Friday she spent the day at the home of her grandmother, Mr. and Mrs. Alton Boulter.

Sympathy from their many friends in Howlan is extended to the wife and family, also his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Watson Silliker in the loss by death on Saturday of the late Ira Silliker at his home in Unipnvalle. His funeral on Tuesday from the home of his parents to Trinity United Church O'Leary.

The sympathy of their many friends in Howlan is extended to the widow and little children; also the brothers and sisters of the late Robert Martin whose death under such tragic circumstances occurred at his home in Bloomfield on Tuesday evening. His wife, the former Zella Pineau, and one young son Vincent, were in Summerside at the time being on their way to Halifax where Vincent is a pupil in the school for the blind.

On Thursday December 21 the Howlan School Christmas concert was presented to a large appreciative audience in the school room. A well balanced program of songs, recitations, drills and dialogues were very capably carried out under the direction of the teacher, Miss Reta Kelly. Home made candy was sold during the evening, and at the close of the program Santa, all decked up in his red suit, and furs, arrived and distributed gifts from a beautifully decorated and well laden Christmas tree, for the teacher and pupils. This district is indeed fortunate to have such an efficient teacher to train the children and the good order shows how well she is succeeding in her work.

The Ladies of St. Anne's Club of Howlan and Woodstock held a very enjoyable monthly meeting on Tuesday, Jan. 9 at the home of Mrs. Robert Gallant, in charge. In the absence of the president the vice president opened the meeting by prayer. Roll call was answered by naming the gift each one received through the Christmas gift exchange. Minutes of last meeting were read and adopted. Reports of sick committee given and new committee appointed. Miss

The Neighbors By George Clark

"I get a kick outa hearing those young draftees tell the boss off."

Beatrice Arsenault then kindly invited members to her home for February meeting when ice cream and cake will be served, meeting to be held on Mardi Gras, Feb. 6. The necessary ingredients for the ice-cream to be paid for out of the funds and lunch committee members to each furnish a cake. A Bingo among members will also be played. When all was decided on meeting again adjourned by prayer and then bingo was played which realized over $6.00 for the funds. Lunch was then served by hostess and others on committee.
