

Yolande Pompey Flattens Yvon Durelle In Seventh

LONDON, (CP)—Yolande Pompey of Trinidad, fourth-ranked challenger for the world light heavyweight title, knocked out Yvon Durelle of Baie Ste. Anne, N. B., Canadian champion, in the seventh round of the 10-round fight at Harringay Arena here Tuesday night.

Pompey put Durelle away with a right uppercut after two minutes of the round in a hard-punching battle that had the crowd of 10,000 roaring with excitement.

The one-time lobster fisherman, who claims 59 knockouts in 63 fights, started out vigorously and exchanged blows evenly with Pompey.

But in the third round, he hurt his right hand. Then just before the bell in the fourth, Pompey connected with a forceful blow to the stomach which brought a pained gasp from Durelle.

LOW PUNCHES

In the sixth, Pompey was warned for punching low and Durelle fought from a crouched position. The Trinidad blaster, aggressive and dangerous at close range, took command in the seventh and punished the Canadian severely.

Crushing right uppercuts dropped Durelle for counts of eight and nine. The Canadian tried vainly to box off Pompey but there was no denying the Trinidad fighter as he hammered home lefts and rights before applying the pay-off punch. Pompey weighed 169½ pounds and Durelle 173½.

"RAW DEAL"

Afterwards, Durelle's Canadian manager, Harry Sheppard, claimed "raw deal" because of Pompey's low blows. He said he would protest to the British Boxing Board of Control.

"This is Durelle's second visit to England and the second time he has got the worst of it," Sheppard said.

Earlier this year Durelle was disqualified in the third round of a fight against Ron Barton.

In another fight on the same card, Ewart Potgieter, seven-foot-two South African, stopped Jamaica's Noel Reid in the third round of their scheduled 10-rounder. It was his ninth straight victory.

The 324-pound Potgieter had a 102-pound advantage over Reid and towered 14 inches above his Jamaican opponent.

Nomads Football Team To Begin Funds Drive Today

The Nomads Football Club will launch a campaign for funds to assist the team during the next few weeks, it was announced last night following a meeting of the executive and the team.

The Charlottetown team, at present in second place in the Maritime Rugby League face a rugged schedule this weekend when they meet New Glasgow and Windsor in weekend games.

Both games will be played away from home. In order to meet expenses for this trip the club has decided to launch the drive immediately and complete as much of it as possible by Friday. The campaign got away to a splendid start last night when a half dozen calls netted the club $50.00.

At a special meeting of the team last night the players elected the following slate of officers for the Club: President, Desmond Burge; Vice President, J. E. Devine; Secretary, Treasurer, J. Elmer Blanchard; Executive Members, Earl Nicholson and Bill Ledwell.

To date the Nomads have played two league games. They lost to New Glasgow by a 3-2 score in the opening game and then trounced Truro 14-6 here a little over a week ago.

The Nomads also played an exhibition game with the Saints losing by a 5-0 score. Gate receipts from the Saints game and the Truro game netted the Nomads approximately $80.00.

Their expenses already have risen considerably over this figure through the purchase of equipment, jerseys and the trip to New Glasgow.

Coach Dr. Frank Jelks has been holding regular workouts with his players to keep them in condition for the important games this weekend. Dr. Jelks and the team feel that the next two games are the most important of the season.

A double win for the Nomads would elevate them to first place in the League standings. That would leave them with two games left in the schedule with both these games being played in Charlottetown.

The Nomads have their sights set on winning the League championship and getting a crack at the Intercollegiate champions for the Maritime Senior Rugby Championship and the McCurdy Cup.

Bud Smith Expects To K.O. Jimmy Carter Tonight

CINCINNATI (AP)—The records show that Jimmy Carter, frequent champion of the lightweight boxers, has been knocked out only once in 98 fights, but Bud Smith, who dethroned him last, expects to do it here tonight.

"Almost had him when I took the title in Boston in June, and sure will get him this time," Smith, a Cincinnati boy, said Tuesday. "I'm ready, too, and eager."

So is Carter, accused of fighting best only when the big chips are down. And they are down for the scheduled 15-rounder, because some say the little New Yorker is slipping.

STOPPED BY LEWIS

Back in 1947 Carter, with less than two years' experience, was stopped in seven rounds by Charles (Cabe) Lewis. Lewis was quite a fighter in those days.

Smith, too, has been stopped once—by Joe Mitchell in five rounds in an overweight match in 1954.

Smith, who has made little money in seven years of professional boxing and 48 bouts, believes his left hook is better than that of the three-time champion, and that it carries more power.

But Carter has a reputation for calmness, patience, and the ability to take advantage of his opponents' mistakes. He said he has studied the motion pictures of the last fight with Smith and saw where he made mistakes.

WON'T STOP FOR CUTS

Slender, lithe Carter is free of one worry. The Cincinnati Boxing Commission agreed that the bout will not be stopped for any excessive bleeding.

Carter is a bleeder. He was once badly cut around the eyes and face in the bout with Smith in Boston that it took 20 stitches to close the wounds.

Smith, who fought on the American team in the 1948 Olympics games, is heavily muscled and thick shouldered. He has shown no tendency to get heavy armed, however.

Promoter Sam Becker has guaranteed each fighter $9,000, with the option of 30 per cent of the net receipts. It also was understood each man will get $9,000 from the television proceeds.

In This Corner

There seldom is a great deal of interest in lightweight battles, even if they are the best in the world. Most boxing fans would rather spend an evening watching the Marcanos, Moores and Olsens. But this evening at least a good number of the fight faithful will be looking with interest for the result of the Bud Smith — Jimmy Carter scrap if for no other reason than out of sheer curiosity.

Carter has won and lost the lightweight title as often as any fighter in the history of the ring and if he comes out the winner in tonight's bout he will reign as the only man in history to have won the crown four times. This on-again — off-again — champ again apparently fights his best when the odds are against him for in his three previous losing bouts he was on the long end of the betting while in his three victories he was a noticeable underdog. This situation might lead some speculators to jump to conclusions but as someone once said "Sometimes the only way you can get to a conclusion is to jump at it." We would venture a guess that if Carter goes into the ring at even money or better he will come out of it the champ once again.

Over in England last night Canada's lightweightweight hope Yvon Durelle took a beating from Yolande Pompey and a Canadian middleweight Gordon Wallace called a halt to the fighting days of Randy Turpin. Turpin was scheduled to go with Archie Moore in the near future but it was probably a lucky stroke for the Englishman that he never got the chance to enter the ring with the light-heavy king for if an average Joe like Wallace could put him away in the fourth round there is no telling what might have happened if he had been subjected to the murderous fists of Moore.

Starting today the Nomads, the local entry in the N. S. - P. E. I. football league will be starting a drive for funds that it is hoped will help take them safely over the rocky financial road during the remainder of the league schedule. At a boosters meeting held last evening Des Burge was elected president of the club and together with his executive will be spearheading this drive during the next few weeks. We hope that Charlottetown fans will meet this effort with approval and will dig in a little to help the boys out.

The crowds haven't been at all overflowing during the games played thus far and with the heavy burden of transportation, jerseys and other equipment facing them, these strictly amateur athletes who partake in this sometimes hazardous sport for nothing more than the fun they get out of it will be very grateful and appreciative of any assistance given them — be it ever so small.

Chadwick's Swim Record Holds

DOVER, England (AP)—The English Channel Swimming Association Tuesday accepted Florence Chadwick's swim from Dover to France in 13 hours 55 minutes as a record.

The 34-year-old San Diego, Calif., swimmer set it Oct. 11. Her time was 11 minutes better than that established by England's Bill Pickering in August.

Turpin's Boxing Career Ended By Husky Canuck

LONDON, (CP)—Gordon Wallace, hard-punching Canadian from Brantford, Ont., ended the boxing career of Britain's Randy Turpin Tuesday night by knocking out the former world middleweight champion with a terrific right hand punch to the jaw in the fourth round of their scheduled 10-rounder in Harringay arena.

Minutes later Turpin, holder of the British and Empire light heavyweight title, announced his retirement from the ring.

The 26-year-old Wallace, unranked among the world's light heavyweights, knocked Turpin to the canvas four times before he applied the final crusher midway through the fourth. Turpin tried to rise at the count of nine but couldn't make it.

The defeat killed plans for a world light heavyweight title match between champion Archie Moore and Turpin which has been proposed for London Jan. 10.

Shortly after the fight promoter Jack Solomons announced that he was trying to get fourth-ranked Yolande Pompey of Trinidad a crack at the title.

Both men were well inside the 177-pound weight limit but the exact weights were not announced.

Wallace bled from the nose and a slight cut above the right eye at the end of the first round.

STRONG RETURN

But the broad-shouldered Canadian came back strongly in the second and floored the 27-year-old Turpin for a count of six with a right to the chin. Turpin staggered to his feet but went down again—this time for a count of eight—from a flurry of punches. But Turpin recovered and had the Canadian in trouble at the end of the round.

The third was Turpin's best round. His left jab and two heavy rights floored Wallace for a count of six but the Canadian got up to stagger Turpin with a right to the jaw. As the round ended Wallace wandered to a neutral corner and had to be led to his stool.

"Ain't No Justice," Cries Zulueta's Manager Fierro

SAINT JOHN, N.B. (CP)—Fred die Fierro the Brooklyn, N.Y. trainer for Cuban boxer Orlando Zulueta said Tuesday boxing may have its "big time scandals but there just isn't a thing the pros can teach them down in Halifax."

Fierro claims "there just ain't no justice in the Nova Scotia capital."

He said his fighter was robbed when he lost a 10-round split decision in Halifax Monday night to Halifax's Richard "Kid Howard." It was the fourth meeting between Zulueta and the Canadian light weight champion.

Zulueta outdistanced Howard in their first meeting three years ago but was defeated in a second bout in Halifax a year ago.

DRIPPED IN FOURTH

Turpin connected with a right to the nose as soon as the fourth round got under way. A pile-driving right by Wallace put Turpin down for a count of nine. Turpin got up with blinking eyes but Wallace dropped him for the fourth time with another swinging right. That was the end.

Afterwards Turpin's manager, George Middleton, said: "This is the end of the road for Randy and he will never fight another punch for he has retired."

Turpin simply had this to add: "Yes, I have retired."

Turpin gave a pathetic display and took considerable punishment. He was only a shell of his former self in the days back in 1951 when he won the world middleweight crown from Ray Robinson in London only to lose it in a return bout in New York in 1952.

Bill Beer Cops Muscle Men's Golf Tourney

The first division competitions in the Muscle Men's Golf Tournament held at the Charlottetown Golf Course last weekend was won by Bill Beer with a score of 57. Cecil Dowling was runner-up with 62.

The golfers played 13 holes, teeing off on one hole and shooting for the green on another hole throughout the match.

Wendell Gillis was the second division winner when he carded a 72. Runner-up was Norman Nicholson with 80.

In the third division Ralph Carr took the honors with a score of 81 followed by R. Greenough with 84.

Willie Marshall Rejoins Leafs

TORONTO (CP)—Centre Willie Marshall, leading scorer with Pittsburgh Hornets of the American Hockey League, has been recalled coach King Clancy of Toronto Maple Leafs announced Tuesday.

Clancy said Leaf forward Bob Bailey has been sent down to replace Marshall with the Hornets. Marshall will join the Leafs in New York today in time for Leafs regular National Hockey League game against Rangers.

Kiner Named Gen. Manager At San Diego

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP)—Former National League homerun king Ralph Kiner, 32, was named general manager of the Pacific Coast Leagues San Diego Padres Tuesday.

He obtained his release as a player from Cleveland Indians to take the frontoffice job.

Kiner, who hit 369 homers in 10 years in the majors, with Pittsburgh, the Chicago Cubs and Cleveland, was hired by the San Diego club's new owner, the Westgate-California Tuna Packing Co.

Kiner reached a top salary with Pittsburgh of $90,000 in 1952.

His contract with San Diego is for one year at a reported salary of $25,000.
