NEW YORK

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market's losses deepened Tuesday.

Tobaccos, some aluminums, specialty steels and selected issues bucked the downtrend, a few posting sizable gains. Most key stocks, however, dropped from fractions to a point.

Based on the drop in The Associated Press average, the quoted value of stocks listed on the New York Stock Exchange fell an estimated $1,800,000,000.

Coppers continued to retreat as prices dropped for the metal. On the other hand, tobaccos were encouraged by the latest figures showing an increase in cigaret smoking. Aluminums were well ahead most of the day in further response to news of booming production and demand for the metal.

The AP 60-stock average had a moderately severe decline of 1.40 to $221.50.

Aluminum Ltd., was off ⅛ at 33, losing a fractional gain it held in early dealings.

Among others on the Canadian list, Walker Gooderham lost ⅛, Canadian Pacific and Dome Mines both ¼ and Hudson Bay Mining ¾. International Nickel ⅝ and McIntyre Porcupine ½. Distillers Seagrams and Granby Mining, both gained ¼.

Active Canadian issues on the American stock exchange included Canadian Marconi down ⅛ and Jupiter Oils down 1-16. Preston East Dome was up ⅛ and Sapphire Petroleums 1-16.
