Jesuit School Mourns Loss Of Their Teacher

GDN WOMEN'S MA
JESUIT SCHOOL MOURNS
 Rev. George K.S.J. McInerney, member of the Theological Faculty of the Jesuit Seminary of Toronto died suddenly on Thursday, September 18 at Halifax. He had a severe heart attack about a year ago.
 Born at St. John, N.B., he was a nephew of the late Archbishop Henry O'Leary of Charlottetown and Edmonton and of Bishop Souris O'Leary, also of Charlottetown. His father was a federal member of parliament at one time.
 He received his elementary and high school education at St. Dunstan's Charlottetown and entered the Jesuit Order in 1924 at Guelph. He spent three years there and went to Weston College, Weston, Mass., where he studied Philosophy for two years.

On his return to Canada he taught classics at Guelph and then at Loyola College, Montreal. He took his theological studies at Valkenburg, Holland, and Etghien, France, where he was ordained to the Priesthood in 1935.
 He spent one year studying ascetical theology at Beuno's College, St. Asaphs, Wales. In 1937 he began teaching history and rhetoric at Guelph until 1944 and that year was appointed lecturer in dogmatic theology at the Jesuit Seminary, Toronto, where he continued until his illness in 1957.
 He leaves a sister, Miss Grace McInerney, of Toronto, and two brothers, Judge H. McInerney, Saint John, N.B. and Blake McInerney of London, Eng.
 Funeral services were at Halifax, Saturday, September 20th.

ST. ANNE'S C.W.L.

The September meeting of St. Anne's Lot 65 sub-division of the C.W.L. was held on Sunday September 14 with a good attendance.

The president opened the meeting with the league prayer. The secretary read the minutes of the last meeting also one special, meeting.

The treasurer gave the financial report, which included proceeds from weekly dances, 3 party sales, 2 lawn parties etc. After all bills were paid, there was a substantial balance.

Three members paid fees. All correspondence was read, which included 2 thank you notes for gifts of money received from C.W.L. for two girls who left to join the Novitiate, Montreal.

A new electrolux has been purchased for the church.

The president gave a splendid detailed report of the C.W.L. Convention. She took home some worthwhile thoughts, one re-Dr. McMillan's address where he stressed the work the Catholic women play in the teaching of their children even before they come to the use of reason, also he mentioned a worthwhile pamphlet "The Pope speaks."

The provincial director, Father McCormick spoke of evening mass on the feast of our Lady of Good Counsel, and of all members received Holy Communion in a body.

All conveners gave their report and heart to take a really helpful interest in a quest like yours—and spend the time necessary to determine, with and for you, just what roads (if any) are open to you.

OTHER POSSIBILITIES

Other appropriate avenues of inquiry include: 1. The local YWCA which undoubtedly would know, or could find out for you, what leads to follow, to reach your goal (if possible). 2. The local Americanization School, or its equivalent, which specializes in helping immigrants get basic education, to increase their contributive value as citizens of democracy.

Your clergyman or spiritual director is still another suitable consultant. If he is worthy of his shepherd role in life, he should welcome the opportunity to encourage and promote your ambition to secure more education and pass it along. Especially in this era when dedicated teachers are rarely encountered, and when your youth was never in greater need of introduction to the love-of-learning.

My own advice is—don't listen to those (educators or others) who try to discourage you. Don't argue the matter, just sidestep courteously and continue to work at the blueprint of what you want. Remember: "Where there's a will there's a way." And, "Rome wasn't built in a day."

Your natural gifts and the ladders you've scaled already, with little formal schooling, persuade me that you can pretty much do what you choose to do, about the music in your heart. — M.H.

parts. The altar convener asked for new flowers for altar to be purchased. It was noted that flowers be bought when needed.

It was noted that Mrs. Lintus Trainor write the T.V. Station to have Bishop Sheen put back on T.V. and Radio. It was decided to purchase 4000 col liver oil capsules.

A discussion took place regarding a chicken supper. This was left for pastor and president to decide. There being no further business the meeting was brought to a close by the recitation of the Act of Consecration of the Blessed Virgin Mary.

BRAE C.W.L.

The September meeting of the sub-division of the C.W.L. was held at the home of Mrs. Emmett Greenan on September 11th with a good attendance of members.

The president Jean MacKinnon presided, and meeting opened with the league prayers, offered by the spiritual director, Rev. Louis Dooley.

The treasurer Mrs. Gerald Mac Allan read the financial statement and conveners were appointed for several committees.

The Rev. Director then addressed the meeting, and meeting closed by the Act of Consecration and the Rev. Director's blessing.

The next meeting is to be held at the home of Mrs. Gus Gallant.

Johnstone - Adams Marriage Solemnized In Alberton

Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Harold Johnstone of Toronto were married Wednesday morning Sept. 10th, in the O'Leary Baptist Church. The double ring ceremony was performed by the bride's cousin, Rev. Charles Taylor of Mossa, assisted by Rev. Ross Howard, pastor of the church.
 Mrs. Johnstone was the former Bonita Shirley Adams of O'Leary, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Adams.
 Following the ceremony a wedding dinner and formal reception was held at Mulberry Lodge, Sarnia, for about 75 guests. The wedding music was played by the organist of the church, Mrs. Melvin Ellis. During the ceremony "O Promise Me" and "Because" were nicely rendered by Mr. J. B. Lewis, Bedouque.
 Amid showers of confetti and the best wishes of all present, the happy couple left in the afternoon by plane on a honeymoon trip to Montreal, Toronto and other places of interest.

Colonial-Type Cookies Just Right At Teatime

By IDA BAILEY ALLEN
 While visiting in Norway, Conn I met Ruth Bigelow, a woman who loves oldtime furnishings, hospitality and tea—and who has done something special about them all.

Her home is a treasury of oldtime and foreign tea services. In the tea-serving corner of her living room, stands a "curator's assistant," a round, three-shelved pedestaled mahogany server about 4 feet high and used for dispensing tea—or to stand at a dining table at the hostess' right to hold foods when a meal is being served.

OLD CUSTOM
 This bright idea is not modern, but originated in the late Seventeen Hundreds, and soon became high style.

Mrs. Bigelow arranges the tea service and cookies on the lower shelf; cups and saucers on the middle shelf and tea plates on the small top shelf.

The rich Ceylon tea blend, Mrs. Bigelow serves is her own invention. It sparkles with built-in spices and fragrant orange.

She first tried it out on her friends. Everybody had plenty of advice.

Most of them said: "It's fine, but forget it! This can never become popular or commercial."

COULDN'T STOP HER
 But opposition never stopped a New England woman! Stubbornly she continued to grind the oranges and spices in an old coffee mill. She weighed the proportions on her kitchen scales; mixed the ingredients in a salad bowl; spooned the blend into cans and personally delivered the tea to nearby shores, along with her radiant smile.

The result? Another success chalked up to the imagination, persistence and hard work of an American woman! Her unique blend of tea is now sold around the world.

Bake a batch of crusty Dinner Rolls

• If you bake at home, you'll want to try a batch of crunchy Dinner Rolls. They're so easy to make when you use fast rising dry Best Yeast!

CRUSTY DINNER ROLLS
 Measure into a large bowl ½ c. lukewarm water; crumble and add 1 cake Best Yeast—or stir in 1 tsp. granulated sugar and sprinkle with 1 envelope Best dry Yeast. Let stand 10 minutes, THEN stir well. Add ¼ c. lukewarm water and 1 tsp. salt. Add, all at once, 3½ c. once-sifted all-purpose flour and work in with the hands; work in 3 lbs. soft shortening. Knead on lightly-floured board until smooth and elastic. Place in greased bowl. Cover with a damp cloth and set in warm place, free from draft. Let rise until doubled in bulk. Punch down dough in bowl, fold over, cover and again let rise until doubled in bulk. Turn out on lightly-floured board and divide into 2 equal portions; shape each portion into a long roll about 1½" in diameter. Cover with a damp cloth and let rest 15 mins. Using a floured sharp knife, cut dough into 2" lengths and place, well apart, on ungreased cookie sheets. Sprinkle rolls with cornmeal and let rise, uncovered, for ½ hour. Brush with cold water and let rise another ½ hour. Meanwhile, stand a broad shallow pan of hot water in the oven and preheat oven to hot, 425°. Remove pan of water from oven and bake the rolls in steam-filled oven for ½ hour, brushing them with cold water and sprinkling lightly with cornmeal after the first 15 mins., and again brushing them with cold water 2 minutes before removing baked buns from the oven. Yield—18 rolls.

WOODSTOCK W.I.

The regular monthly meeting of the Woodstock W.I. was held at the home of Mrs. John Finnan on Monday evening. Sixteen members answered roll call.
 Meeting opened by singing Institute Ode followed by the Collect. Roll call was answered by donations for an auction sale. In the absence of the president the vice-president, Mrs. Felix Arsenault, presided. A card of thanks from Mrs. Gordon Knolin was read.
 It was decided to send a card of sympathy to Mrs. Keir Thomas dairy sour cream. Serve warm to 6.
 Trick of the Chef: Add ¼ tsp. mixed crushed Italian herbs when cooking green beans combined with green peas.

MARY HAWORTH

Italian Born Matron Longs To Teach Music

Dear Mary Haworth: I was born in Italy in 1910 and had a very happy childhood there, going to school through the sixth grade.
 In 1922 I came to this country with my mother, whom I loved and remembered: "Where there's a will was meeting my father for the first time. He had been here for 10 years previously, but through letters and gifts, was no stranger to my brothers and me. We wore a picture pin of him always.
 Despite the language handicap, I continued school here and did quite well, although I was an irregular pupil, as mother needed me at home a good deal. At 16 I had to quit, to help her with her new set of twins. "Girls don't need much education," she said; but she granted my request for piano lessons. After seven years my tutor gave me a "teachers' certificate," as was his custom.
 My entire youth was confined to family, home and housework. But at age 30 I managed to break away from mother's apronstrings and father's preaching and took a business college course.
GOVERNMENT POSITION
 Later I passed a civil service test and got a clerk-typist job in government. After a year I asked to be transferred to the department of state, where I was soon promoted to code clerk—and rated "excellent."
 There I spent the most interesting years of my life. I married during the fourth year, and quit
