RUNAWAY ACCIDENT.—A horse owned by Messrs. Mark Wright & Co. took fright and ran away on Water Street, between five and six o'clock last afternoon. The driver, Joseph Steele, was thrown from the wagon, and was badly cut about the head and bruised about the body. Dr. Conroy attended to his injuries.

LET THEM HAVE IT.—The drug clerks are agitating for a holiday from noon to 7 p. m., on Thursday, October 2—the last day of the races at the Driving Park. Their petition will likely have the signatures of all the druggists this evening, and be published to-morrow. The boot and shoe clerks are, we understand, about to make a move in the same direction, and the employes in other establishments will probably follow suit. THE EXAMINER trusts that the clerks and their employers will be able to make arrangements that will be mutually satisfactory.

The Princess Beatrice Disaster. The following letter appears in the Halifax Herald:

ISAAC'S HARBOR, Sept. 17, 1890. Messrs. Pickford & Black, Halifax, N. S.: Gentlemen, we the undersigned passengers on board the S.S. Princess Beatrice desire to offer our voluntary and unanimous testimony to the highly satisfactory manner in which Captain Crews commanded the ship during her last voyage. Under circumstances of peculiar difficulty he displayed the greatest care, and did everything in his power to secure her safety, and it was only through circumstances beyond the control of the most able seaman that the vessel grounded. His conduct from that time till the time of our boat finally leaving the ship was most satisfactory, and in every way creditable to his position as commander. It is our unanimous opinion that the captain, having used every precaution to prevent the catastrophe, should be exonerated from blame.

We cannot close this without stating in the highest terms our appreciation of the actions of the officers and crew in assisting us into the boats, keeping us comfortable as possible under the trying circumstances through the long night and rowing safely ashore in the morning.

We are gentlemen faithfully yours, Dyson, Hague, rector, St. Paul's, Halifax E. H. Ball, J. J. Whitman, J. P. Canso, Mary O'Donoghue, Antigonish, Frank S. Power, Halifax, Geo. C. Cook, Canso, John McMillan, J. P. Isaac's Harbor, Mrs. McKenzie and son, Canso.

SPECIAL DESPATCHES TO THE EXAMINER.

News From Ottawa

OTTAWA, Sept. 22.

The Fisheries department have advised that the salmon pack on the Fraser River, B. C., this season will be worth nearly a million and a half dollars.

Mr. Moore, editor of the agricultural department of the London Times, has returned from the Northwest. He has formed a most favorable impression of the agricultural capabilities of the country. He has already knocked the bottom out of the canards which have been floating through the press about the failure of this season's crop.

Baden Powell has arrived, and instead of the heavy diplomatic mission with which he was reported to be charged, it transpires that his mission is to examine the phosphate deposits of Canada in the interests of a London phosphate trust, of which he is the promoter. He will, however, post himself on the Behring Sea and Newfoundland questions before his return.

The Methodist Conference.

MONTREAL, Sept. 22.

The pulpits were largely supplied yesterday by members of the Conference. Several committees met this morning and transacted much business and presented reports to Conference. The one on the state of the work reported adversely to the memorials for the establishment of an order of discourses. But the matter has not yet been dealt with by the Conference. The day was chiefly devoted to the reception of fraternal delegates. Mr. Frost, Presbyterian, and Rev. Dr. Hodd, delegate from the Southern Methodist Church, were officially introduced, and addressed the conference. It is reported to-night that the eastern delegation intends to recommend Rev. Mr. Evans for Treasurer of the Supernumerary Fund, Rev. Mr. Huestis for book steward, and Rev. Dr. Lathern for editor of the Wesleyan.

The Burchall Murder Case.

WOODSTOCK, Ont., Sept. 22.

The opening day of the great Burchall trial broke bright and clear. The prisoner was brought to the Court room a little after 10.30 o'clock in a cab by Deputy Sheriff Percy. Burchall shows no emotion, except that of the man who felt himself to be in new surroundings, and under the scrutiny of a crowd. The prisoner when arraigned pleaded "not guilty," in a firm voice, and on being asked if he was ready for trial, Blackstock, Q. C., rose and announced himself as the prisoner's counsel and ready to proceed after about three quarters of an hour. The jurors having been sworn, Mr. Osler, Q. C., leading counsel for the Crown, rose to make the opening address. There was nothing new in his statement of facts, but the chain of evidence was closely formed, making a very strong case. His statement was only one side of the case however.

Attack on Halifax.

HALIFAX, Sept. 22.

Notwithstanding all reports to the contrary, there are lots of powder in the magazine of this garrison, and the biggest attack and defence this city has yet witnessed is to come off on Wednesday. It will take place in daylight, between 9 and 6 o'clock, as the fleet from Quebec comes into port.
