NEWS BY TELEGRAPH.

CANADA.

OTTAWA, June 4.

A large amount of counterfeit money is in circulation in the district of Ottawa.
Yesterday no less than nineteen counterfeit bills were successfully passed on farmers in market. The counterfeits are principally five dollar bills on the Commerce and British North American Banks. Dominion of Canada two dollar notes, changed into five dollars, are also in circulation. In the altered notes the "2" in the middle is blurred with acid, and the twos around the note are also changed. The Dominion issues no notes but of the value of one and two dollars.

An immense petition in favor of releasing Doyle, who is now under sentence for passing counterfeit money on a large scale, has been signed in an adjacent district.

The Supreme Court of Canada commenced its sittings yesterday at 12.15. The following judges were present, and took their seats on the bench: The Hon. the Chief Justice, Mr. Justice Strong, Mr.
Justice Fournier, Mr. Justice Henry, Mr.
Justice Taschereau and Mr. Justice Gwynne.
There were present from the Maritime Provinces the following counsel: Charles D. Weldon, Q. C.; Samuel R. Thompson, Q. C.; F. E. Baker, Q. C.; and F. McLeod, of St. John, N. B.; E. L. Wetmore, Frederickson, N. B.; W. F. McCoy, Q. C., Halifax, N. S.; and J. G. Foster, Halifax; Mr.
Pelletier, Q. C., Quebec. The first for the Maritime Provinces was proceeded with, Mr. Weldon, Q. C., and Mr. Haliburton, Q. C., for respondent, and Mr. Samuel R.
Thompson, Q. C., for the appellant.

The case of McLeod (Assignee) vs. the New Brunswick Railway was urged in the Supreme Court to-day. This case involves the question as to whether the payment of stampage dues by an accepted draft was only security or payment in full.

TORONTO, June 4.

During the month of May 809 English, 405 Irish, 224 Scotch, 111 German, and 581 Norwegian emigrants arrived here.
This is a great increase as compared with last year.

UNITED STATES.

NEW YORK, June 4.

Sixteen Brooklyn Aldermen, charged with contempt of Court, were fined $150 each or 30 days in jail.

The excitement at Littleton, Wescot, Va., incident to the arrest of a gang of Redmen who infested Wescot County, is very great. They were to have been tried to-day, but no Justice of the Peace is willing to risk his life in doing so. Several were notified by the Red-men that they would be killed if they assisted in bringing the gang to justice. The services of Justice Lemaster, of the Central District, has been obtained, and the trial is set for tomorrow morning. Governor Matthews is determined to have lawlessness crushed out. About 50 of the gang attacked the house of a prominent citizen of Mannington, on Monday, but finding the occupants well armed, rode off.

NEW YORK, June 4.

An investigation into the wholesale poisoning of children at Island Pond, Vt., who drank from a brook, discloses that diphtheria caused death. Diphtheria in a mild form had been in the vicinity, so that water poisoned by barnyard drainages was just the thing to feed it into the development of a terrible disease.

J. P. Caston, a young merchant of Rockhill, South Carolina, from the window of his store shot and killed Church Wilford.
They were rivals in the affections of a young lady. The feeling against Caston is so high that he was removed to Yorkville jail.

GERMANY.

BERLIN, June 4.

The German Government has demanded of the Khedive an immediate reply to its protest against the Khedive's recent decrees.

The Emperor William, while walking in the Bebersberg Palace yesterday, slipped and fell heavily, injuring his knee-cap, which is slightly swollen. Otherwise, his health is good.

RUSSIA.

NEW YORK, June 4.

Minister Stoughton, who returned from St. Petersburg last night, says of Nihilism that the difficulties in Russia are greatly exaggerated by correspondents professing to date letters from St. Petersburg. "A few miscreants who think they can gain something by assassination are banded together, but their numbers are insufficient and their purposes wicked. My opinion, based on my own observation, is that the people are fond of their Government and their Emperor, and the army is loyal."

St. Petersburg, June 4.

The trial of Alexander Solovieff, for an attempted assassination, on April 14th, of His Majesty the Czar, will commence on Friday next, the 6th inst., at St. Petersburg.

The Golas announces that 500 Dobestan mountaineers, who revolted during the late war, have been exiled to Perm.

The illness of the Grand Duke Vladimir's wife having taken an unfavorable turn, the Czar has renounced the intention of going

Berlin to be present at the golden wedding to the Emperor William.

Intelligence has been received from Irkutsk, 2nd June, which says the Amoor river and tributaries are overflowed. Much damage is done, and it is thought famine will ensue.

THE PITTSBURG STRIKERS.

NEW YORK, June 4.

A Pittsburg despatch says: The great iron workers strike throws out of employment in this city and in Alleghany about 40,000 workmen. It affects not only mill hands but coal diggers and men employed in other connections with the mills. Yesterday 200 puddlers marched to Hussey, Howe & Co's steel works, and ordered the employees, numbering 500, including 16 puddlers, to stop work. The men protested they would at night. The strikers ordered the men at other mills to quit.

ROME.

ROME, June 4.

The Rome Government has sent engineers to repair breach in bank of River Po., caused by the flood. Signor Depretis, President of the Council, announced in the House, to Italian deputies, that he would immediately introduce a bill granting aid to sufferers. Depretis has also proposed grants for the relief of sufferers by the eruption of Etna.

SPAIN.

HAVANA, June 4.

The Minister of Colonies transmitted to Cuba in full that part of the royal speech at the opening of the Cortes which refers to Cuba, and its publication had good effect.

The solution of financial and slavery questions is now believed to be near at hand.

The Spanish Bank will soon publicly burn $1,000,000 of paper currency.

EGYPT.

CAIRO, EGYPT, June 4.

The German Consul had an interview with the Khedive yesterday and pressed him for a reply to Germany's protest of May 17th, against the arbitrary manner in which the Khedive's decree, dated April 4th, dealt with creditors of the Egyptian Government. The Khedive replied by referring the Consul to the Sultan. The Consul refused to take the case to the Sultan. He declared that Germany held the Khedive responsible and expressed regret that the Egyptian question had entered this phase, which might have very serious consequences.

Our Manitoba Letter.

The immigration from the Eastern Provinces to this country still goes on as large as ever. Each week brings its hundreds of men, women and children to Manitoba, who were led to believe, from their reading of newspapers and pamphlets published here, that thousands of broad acres were open for location in convenient places to roads and markets. But their chagrin and disappointment can be better imagined than dis-cribed, when they arrive here and find out the bitter truth, that, altho' there are thousands of the best land in the Province unoccupied within a comparatively short distance of Winnipeg, that those lands are owned by the half-breeds or speculators; and that before they can get land that is laid open by the Government for location, they must travel, or rather wallow through mud and water, from 150 to 200 miles to get to it. They then must purchase tents, and other outfits, before starting on their weary and hazardous journey of seeking for a home in the North-West, which, after some weeks they may accomplish, by wading rivers, tenting with their wives and children on the wet earth, and enduring other hardships not generally known only to those who have participated in them. No better method could possibly have been adopted to retard the early settlement and development of Manitoba than the giving away of 240 acres of the best land in it to every man, woman and child of the half breeds. And to cap the climax of the ridiculous, they, through their agents, were permitted to select the best of the land, and in the most convenient places. True to their Indian instinct, the half breeds do not cultivate these lands, but are daily selling their claims to speculators, who hold them up to a figure beyond the reach of the immigrant with limited means to purchase.
Although it was necessary to give them some lands in order to nullify the Indian claim on the country, yet eighty acres would have been a sufficient apportionment for them.

It is remarked here by the oldest settlers in the country that they have never seen the land keeping so wet with so little rain falling. But it appears that last fall was a very wet one, and the water on the surface has not yet either evaporated or been absorbed by the earth, and hence the wetness of the land. Wherever the land was dry seeding has been completed some time ago, but there are some have farms here who are unable to sow a grain of seed yet. On the whole, the prospects of the new comer this year is rather gloomy. The best time for the intending settler to come to this country is in the month of September, when the prairie is dry, and he can travel over it without any inconvenience.
He can then have time to select his land, build a house and prepare for a crop the coming year.
