Financial Aid Notices

There are two undergraduate scholarships with December deadlines available to UPEI students:

The Orville Erickson Memorial Scholarship Fund

This Fund was established in 1975 in memory of an outstanding conservationist and outdoorsperson, the late Orville Erickson, of Prince Albert, Saskatchewan. The purpose of the Fund is to provide financial assistance to students pursuing higher education in the field of conservation. In general, all students must be competent, full-time students registered in a recognized Canadian educational institute and be citizens of Canada, or landed immigrants, with the intent of working in Canada. All applicants must be in need of financial assistance to pursue their course of study. Trustees will evaluate applications in June and December. Applications are available at the Department of Student Services.

The Mary Ellen MacDonald Scholarship

This scholarship is administered by the St. Dunstan's University Board of Governors. It is to be awarded to a student entering Senior year at university who has, during previous years at university, given evidence of outstanding academic achievement and student leadership in the university community. Applications are available at the Registrar's Office or at Student Services. The deadline for applications is December 1st.

IF YOU'RE NOT EATING SQUARE PIZZA...

The last time you bought a round pizza, DID YOU EVER WONDER WHERE THE CORNERS WENT?

At GRECO we don't cut corners when it comes to quality, so we figured - Why cut corners when it comes to value?
