

THE DAILY EXAMINER, JUNE 18, 1881.

Who Pays the Duty?

The Patriot has long endeavored to demonstrate to the people of this Island that the consumer invariably pays the duty.

"We see a good deal about the adoption of the retaliation policy by the English people in the papers. It seems just possible that Canadian protectionists will get a taste of it for at from the Old Country that they have treated so scurvily.

Now, if the British consumer be obliged to pay the duty on produce which may be exported from this country, how can the morsel be bitter and costly to us? Will the Patriot explain?

A Rambler's Suggestions.

Our thanks are due "A Rambler" for his kind suggestions; and for the edification of the people of these Provinces, we take the liberty of publishing the latter part of his letter.

"I find the people of the Provinces as intelligent as they are in Ontario but not so progressive. And may I ask why? Have they not a country abounding in mineral wealth, spacious and magnificent harbors, open to navigation all the year, and good railway communication? What then is the drawback? Is it want of wealth or want of enterprise—or too much legislation? Where can be found finer land than on this Island? True, you have your drawbacks. You want a market. The thousands of acres of marsh lands throughout N. S., especially in the Annapolis Valley, are really magnificent. They tell me the farmers are lazy. New Brunswick has also some good tracts of land.

Put some life into your paper. Make it spicy. The material is there, if only cultivated. Wake up your people. Take up the cause of your merchants who complain that their goods are between two and three weeks coming from Ontario. You have the weapon; only use it right. If you have been forced into Confederation, make the best of it. Stand out for your rights; send good men to Parliament at Ottawa. Do away with this humbug here and advocate one House for three Provinces. Then and not till then will you have done your duty.

Provincial Exhibition.

A general meeting of the Board of Commissioners for managing the Provincial Exhibition was held yesterday at the Legislative Library, Provincial Building. Present: Hon. Senator Haythorne, Chairman; His Honor the Lieutenant Governor, who takes a deep interest in the Exhibition; H. Longworth, Charles C. Gardiner, D. Ferguson, M. McLeod, Alex. Laird, J. C. Underlay, John Balderston, G. W. DeBlois, James Nicholson, Wm. Haslam, P. J. D. Edmunds, Lawrence Peters, George Mason, Stephen McMillan, John Nichols, John Angus McDonald.

Minutes of last meeting read and approved. The Prize List, as prepared by the Committee appointed for that purpose, was read by the Secretary, and after considerable discussion, resulting in a few alterations, it was adopted.

The committee on exhibition buildings and cattle show grounds, reported that, in their opinion, the field which His Honor the Lieutenant Governor has kindly placed at their disposal for a cattle show ground could be utilized for that purpose.

It is contemplated to connect the exhibition building with the Governor's field, by the erection of a bridge across Governor's pond, so as to have the building and grounds under one enclosure, and also to erect suitable sheds for horses and cattle. The exhibition building and cattle show grounds both to be open to the public on the same days Wednesday and Thursday, 12th and 13th of October next.

The same Committee on field were then empowered by the Board to make such preparations for the proper arrangement and management of cattle show grounds as they consider advisable.

Committees for the appointment of judges from the three Counties were then agreed upon, of which Alexander Laird, Esq., is chairman for Prince County, J. C. Underlay chairman for King's County, and Geo. W. DeBlois, Esq., chairman for Queen's County.

A. McNEILL, Secretary Prov. Exhibition.

Climbing to Power on the Coffins of Opponents.

Reviewing the political situation, By-stander says:—"In the meantime, the great organ of the Reform, not of the Liberal party, as it is unprovided with principles and there is at present a dearth of the scandals which are its familiar food, is reduced to a precarious subsistence on the misdeeds of its opponents. It joyfully proclaimed that Sir John Macdonald was suffering from Bright's disease; but, that pleasant dream being dispelled, it is compelled to fall back in a tone of subdued hope, on a disease which makes less short work of the wicked. It must almost regret that it pronounced Sir Charles Tupper's illness a feint, since it is thereby precluded from visiting the iniquities of that human fiend with a creeping palsy or a cancer in the stomach. In Mr. Pope's constitution, however, the seeds of decay have happily been observed, and the faithful may hope that a similar mercy will soon be vouchsafed them in the case of Sir Charles Tupper. What is the policy of the Liberal leader, who has superseded the nominees of the Globe, and whom the Globe would at once strike if it dared, we cannot at present say, but we may be sure that it is something better than climbing to power on the coffins of opponents."

During the launch on the Clyde a few days ago of the new monster steamship of the Inman line, the "City of Rome," the boiler of a donkey engine on board the vessel exploded, instantly killing four men and fearfully mangle several others.

Supreme Court—Prince County. SUMMERSIDE, June 17.

The Fisher vs. McKenzie Case.—Newman the late confidential clerk of the defendant was got through with this evening. His direct examination was conducted by Mr. Fred. Peters, and his cross examination by Mr. E. J. Hodgson, Q. C. This cross examination was of the severest kind, so severe that the witness in the midst of it, asked permission to be allowed to have a chair in the witness box. In the interests of all parties we forbear to give even an outline of what this witness' testimony consisted of.

Samuel Reid and John Shapce were the next witnesses, but their testimony did not amount to much. Alexander J. Tait is now under cross examination, which will likely be concluded to-morrow morning. It is expected that the plaintiff's case will be closed to-morrow.

The defendant this evening issued the following bulletin which was distributed through the Court Room, and at the door. TO MY CUSTOMERS. Gentlemen—Having, in common with a large number of my fellow citizens, passed the most of my time during the present week in the Court House, listening to the case of Fisher vs. McKenzie, I will be unable to deliver a few of the garments ordered and promised to be finished this week. As I have always tried to be as good as my word in this respect, I hope that gentlemen whom I disappoint will pardon me.

Next week I hope, and will endeavor, to make up for lost time. In the meantime, gentlemen who wish to leave their measures can find me in my shop before and after Court.

In conclusion, I may say that I guarantee satisfaction and full value in each and every sale, my motto being Tact, Push, Principle. JOHN MACKENZIE. S. C., June, 1881.

P. S.—Lawyer's Discount.—A discount of 1 1/2 per cent from my usual prices will be allowed all lawyers not residing in Summerside. J. MACK.

The shipping interests between Montreal and Great Britain continue to develop with wonderful rapidity. The Dominion Steamship Company in addition to its present line fleet has two new steamers building on the Clyde of 3,800 tons each, and the Company has ordered another that will eclipse all the rest, being no less than 5,700 tons gross register, thus beating the Allan steamship Parisian, the largest at present afloat. An additional line of trans-Atlantic steamers has just been established to run between this port and West Hartlepool in England. It will commence with a fortnightly steamer, and if business increases the Company will soon have a weekly line.

HANDSOME FURNITURE.—On Monday, Mr. Dood, the Auctioneer, will commence to dispose of, at auction, all the valuable and handsome furniture, plated ware, china and glass, pictures, stoves, plants, beds and bedding, &c., &c., of Alex. McNab, Esq., at his residence, Dundas Esplanade, and will continue on Tuesday, until all is disposed of. Full particulars in catalogue. Sale to commence at 11 o'clock sharp.—A rare change to refurnish at auction prices.

THE weather predictions to-day, will be reassuring to many.

The latest important arrest in Ireland is that of Mr. Halloran, general secretary of the Land League.

So far, this season, the salmon fishery on the St. John river has been very poor, the catches as a rule being small.

A Berlin despatch says it is expected that there will be a dissolution of the Reichstag and a general election in Germany.

The supposed real heir to the Sir Roger Tichborne estate has been discovered in Winnipeg; he is an invalid in the hospital and his name is James Riches Coles.

Voluntary exile to Siberia is something new, yet the cable states that a wholesale emigration of peasants in that direction is taking place in the Russian government of Tomsk. Hard times are at the bottom of the movement.

A SINGULAR COINCIDENCE.—James Tremaine died several years ago; and the next day witnessed the decease of Stephen N. Binney, both well-known citizens. During the present week, Mrs. James Tremaine died on Thursday, and Mrs. S. N. Binney on Friday, the two widows passing from life to death at exactly the same interval as between the death of their husbands.—H. Recorder.

The hearing of evidence at the inquest on the London disaster was concluded last night, when the jury retired to deliberate. Among those examined during the day were Mr. Parish, superintendent of the Thames Navigation Co.'s line; Captain Rankin, and Engineer Bell, of the Victoria. After the jury had retired Mr. Parish and Captain Rankin were arrested on an information laid by Mr. Jones, postmaster of London West, charging them with manslaughter. Both were admitted to bail at four thousand dollars each.

London Truth insists that just as England has prospered by the carrying of the Reform Bill in 1832 in spite of the Tories looking upon the measure as a "Charter of Anarchy," so would Ireland prosper were the principle conceded that the Irish ought to be, in local matters, their own masters. He adds: "If at first they make mistakes, they would have to pay for them. Self-government can only be learnt by experience, but nothing is more incontestable than that it is eventually learnt by experience. The first step to educate a nation is to trust its people."

The action of the Government relative to the decoying of English girls for infamous purposes by foreign agents has not been taken too soon. Several mysterious disappearances of young girls have been reported lately, and there are grave reasons for fearing that they have been trapped and conveyed out of the country. One of the latest cases of missing girls is that of Mary Seward, aged 14, who lived with her parents at Westham, and the publicity given it has elicited information showing that for years past there has been in London a systematic attempt at kidnapping young girls in that district. It has become absolutely dangerous for girls of twelve years old and upwards to be out on the streets alone, as they are accosted or run after by strange men or women who always seem to have plenty of money, and have expressed their willingness "to pay a good price" to anyone who will assist them to get girls. These circumstances are vouched for by men working at the Victoria docks, and the only wonder is that they have not before now combined to punish the "foreign gipsy-looking people" who are intent upon despoiling their homes. Mary Seward has been missing several weeks, and although no direct clue has been found as to the whereabouts of the girl, it is thought the information gained by the policy may yet lead to the solution of the mystery.
