Minor Hockey Starts

CHARLOTTETOWN'S minor hockey program get rolling this Saturday and indications are pointing to a highly successful season.

Jim Fox, Charlottetown's new recreation director, has lined up a strong band of workers for the biggest job the Forum will have all season. These folks do a great community service and we cincerely hope that their fine efforts are fully appreciated, especially by the parents of the children concerned. They give many hours to this minor hockey work, all wihtout any remuneration, but they do it because they undoubtedly feel its a community service that must be maintained.

WE understand that this season, some of the lower age brackets will play their games across the ice. They will not have the benefit of the entire rink which will be divided into three rinks while these kiddies are on. We heartily agree with such a setup because we have always thought it a waste of time and effort having some of these little fellows try to go the full length of the ice, we're certain some of them never got to the other end all winter. Goalies in such games hardly had any work because very few got close enough to take a crack at the opposing netminder.

Now in the lower age brackets, three games can go on at once and we're certain all of them will see much more action than in the past.

More Than Winning

WHILE the great interest of coaches is surely appreciated, we don't think for a minute these coaches should let the desire to win spoil their vision.

These minor hockey programs are instituted to give ALL children a chance to participate and it is certainly not fair to let some youngsters get a lot more ice time than others. We readily admit that hockey talents vary greatly but the youngster with little talent still wants a chance to share in the community program. He doesn't want to be on the bench most of the game while some of his mates stay out there for long periods without interruption.

We don't think that any minor hockey program is in operation for the purpose of developing NHL stars. Any youngsters with that kind of talent will eventually make their way to the top. The vast majority of those participating in minor hockey are average players who want to be in competition for the fun of it. Such being the case, we can't see any reason to deny some of these less talented their full share of ice time.

IF the prime purpose is just to develop hockey talent, then you might as well send these other youngsters home and tell them not to return. They couldn't feel as hurt as they do when they wend their way to the rink and occupy the bench the greater part of the game.

We think this desire to win can be injurious to a minor hockey league program. We don't suggest you send your team out there with instructions to lose but we do suggest you use the players you have without hurting the feelings of the boys who haven't been blessed with too much hockey talent.

For this very reason, coaches shouldn't be a bit worried whether they have strong or weak teams. The fellow who sees to it that his club has equal ice time, who teaches his boys as his best he can, who sets a good example to his players, has few equals as a minor hockey league coach. Whether his team came first or last shouldn't enter into the picture at all.

Off On Right Foot

AND so as this hockey program gets moving Saturday, we urge all coaches to see to it that all boys get their regular turns on the icelanes. Sure, you could probably win a game by benching one youngster in favor of another. However, by doing this you have hurt the feelings of a lad who came to that rink with the idea that he'd get his chance the same as any others. Probably the next week you will not have to worry.. about this inferior hockey player. Chances are his feelings are so hurt that he will not even show up. We can't see any coach wanting this to happen.

So let's get going on the right foot. Our minor hockey programs here have been successful in the past. Let's try to make an even better job of it in the season just beginning.

League Is Off To Good Start

The new Prince County Hockey League has gotten off to an auspicious start. The electing of Bob Schurman as President was a master stroke. Bob handles the meetings with facility and good judgment, and, together with his executive, is coming up with some interesting promotional ideas that augur well for the success of the league. Given a fair degree of balance among the teams, and anything approaching a normal winter, this league should have a banner season.

O'Leary's signing of Ron MacArthur as coach was another stroke of genius and should go a long way in helping O'Leary to compete on even terms with the other teams. MacArthur, who retires from hockey every November didn't make this announcement in 1963 so Ron must be feeling extra frisky this fall. Our guess is that Ron has quite a few years left in that jumbo-sized frame of his, and with such fellows as Baglole and Gorrill to keep him company on the blueline, they should form a rearguard which opposing forwards will treat with a good deal of respect. Ron should help the boys in the tricks of the trade also. The Combines will certainly miss him, but in the interest of that beloved word "balance" the management has been sporting about it and surrendered his card without too much resistance.

Gallant Is Back In Town

Lloyd "Toy-Toy" Gallant is back in town. Each fall Lloyd goes forth to the training camps, makes the grade, plays a little hockey with the team which picked him up, then the wanderlust fades, and the old siren song, "Home, Sweet Home" rings in his ears loud and clear. Lloyd will up the stock of the Junior Legionaires a lot if he joins them, but having played with the Penguins last year, he is presumably a free agent, and may play with any team he chooses. Of course, team must choose him too, but do you know any teams around here that wuld refuse to add "Toy-Toy" Gallant's name to their roster? Neither do we.

A large crowd is expected at Civic Stadium on Friday night when the Junior Legionaires take on the Borden Nationals in the first game of the newly organized league. Everybody in Borden except the baby-sitters is expected to be present. A lot of O'Leary fans will want to see how their rivals look on ice, and Summerside hockey followers will be there to support their Juniors as the whole town is talking about this new Legion-sponsored team. Add fans from other parts, and you will realize that it might be wise to squeeze yourself through the door in plenty of time so as to get one of the better seats—and you might be the lucky customer to win the door prize. If you do, you will be eating high on the hog till Christmas.

Whitton A Poor Sport?

The irrepressible Mayor of Ottawa, Charlotte Whitton, has accused the Ottawa Rough Riders of deliberately taking a dive to the Hamilton Ti-Cats in their 45-0 defeat last Saturday because the club wouldn't pay the shot to take the players' wives to the Gray Cup game should they win their way to the Canadian final. If Miss Whitton cannot provide fool-proof substantiatin of this charge, she will be the leading candidate to receive a "Poor Sport of the Year" plaque to add to her "Woman of the Year" awards. Only fellow we think might give her a run for honors is Punch Imlach who says uncomplimentary things about his players every time they lose a game. It's tough enough for the Rough Riders to be mauled by the Ti-Cats without having other stray cats taking pot shots at them.

MAYOR A. Walthen Gaudet hands over the keys of The Forum at last night's opening ceremonies viewed by several hundred persons. The city purchased the building last spring from Maritime Central Airways. The recipient of the keys is Forum manager, Wes 'Bucko' Trainor.

Forum Officially Opened; Vast Improvements Made

Activity is in full swing at Charlottetown Forum.

The official opening of the ice palace now owned by the City of Charlottetown took place last night before several hundred spectators.

His Worship Mayor Walthen Gaudet presented the keys of the renovated building to Forum manager, Wes 'Bucko' Trainor, former member of the New York Rangers club.

Mayor Gaudet urged all citizens to co-operate in the successful running of the Forum. He maintained that the city had an obligation to purchase the Forum when the former owner had decided to sell. He lauded the community spirit of Capt. Carl Burke who had maintained the building for the citizens for the past several years.

His Worship was introduced by Councillor W.R. MacNeill, chairman of the Forum committee. Mr. MacNeill introduced manager Trainor to the audience as well as James Fox, newly appointed recreation director for Charlottetown.

Attending the opening ceremonies were His Honour Lt.-Gov. W.J. MacDonald and Premier Walter R. Shaw.

The Prince Edward Island Regiment Band under the direction of Lt. Charles MacGregor was in attendance for the official opening and played selections for the skate enjoyed by the large crowd until 10 o'clock.

This afternoon children under 16 years of age are guests of the Forum at a skate from 3.30 to 5 o'clock.

New equipment, including hand driers, has been placed in the rest rooms, and a complete new furnace has been installed.

But the most noticeable change in the Forum is its general appearance, since a complete paint job has been done.

The exterior is turquoise, with trim of a darker shade of the same color, and doors of a brilliant red.

The canteen, offices, dressing rooms and the main entrance have been done over completely with wallboard, squared ceiling and new lighting.

The seating area is red, blue, and black; the exits, yellow.

The ceiling, the steel beams, the promenade, and the ridge along the balcony have been painted white.

Coun. MacNeill said that, although the city does not expect the operation of the forum to be a profitable move, it will pay in the welfare of the citizens, particularly the young

Whitton's Statement Brings On Remarks

OTTAWA (CP)—Mayor Charlotte Whitton's charge that Ottawa Rough Riders quit against Hamilton Tiger - Cats in the opener of the Eastern Football Conference final has prompted club officials to bare details of two meetings between players and general manager Red O'Quinn two days before last Saturday's game.

Riders were humiliated 45-0 and face the almost impossible job of overcoming the deficit Sunday in Hamilton when the teams meet in the final game of the total-points series. Kick-off time is 1 p.m. AST and the game will be carried on the CBC and CTV networks.

The mayor's charge has been denied by club president Barry O'Brien, O'Quinn, coach Frank Clair and the players. Miss Whitton's remark also led The Ottawa Journal to say in its lead editorial Wednesday that "the mayor never seems sure whether her role is that of chief magistrate or chief gossip."

The mayor said she learned from two aldermen that "two-thirds of the players lay down and for good reason" in the first game of the final. She said the reasons centred around a meeting of the players before the game.

HAD NO EFFECT

O'Quinn said there were two meetings and none of them had any effect on the way the team played or on the final outcome of the game.

At the first meeting O'Quinn told the players the club was reneging on its promise to take wives along to Vancouver for the Grey Cup game if Riders won the title. The league threatened to impose a $10,000 fine unless the club backed down on its promise, O'Quinn said.

The second meeting was between O'Quinn and Rider co-captains Kaye Vaughan and Russ Jackson.

The two reported dissatisfaction among the players with the $300-a-game they were to receive for each playoff game. They said the players felt the league was being unfair"and didn't have the players' interests at heart."

O'Quinn said he sympathized with the players and promised to bring the matter up at league meetings in Vancouver during Grey Cup week.

"Nothing in God's world but injuries and psychological letdown against a really fine team brought on that clobbering," continued O'Quinn.

'YOU FIGHT BACK'

"Anyone who has played anything knows that as soon as you go out there and get belted in the nose, you fight back. You may not be effective individually and you may not be able to function as a team, but you don't let anybody just kill you if you can help it."

Clair said the mayor's remarks were "off the beam."

"Our main concern now is to make sure it doesn't happen again on Sunday."

Centre Gerry Selinger said:

"Tell the mayor to stop worrying about the football team and fix some pot holes. My old car is being beaten to death."

At Board of Control Wednesday, Controller Don Reid demanded that the mayor either substantiate her charge or make a public apology to the players for her "reprehensible" remark.

"I still have freedom of speech," replied Miss Whitton.

"Since when did Don Reid become a football expert?" asked the mayor. I'd make a better tackle than he would."

Souris Lads Capture Title In Series With O'Leary

By ED CLINTON
Souris Bureau of The Guardian

The world of sport has seen a number of firsts for the town of Souris during the past two years. And now, another first has been added. In these instances, we refer to Island championships. The latest first to be added to the list is the P.E.I. Interscholastic Senior "B" Football championship. Souris Regional High School won the title in their first year of competition, by defeating O'Leary in the Island finals.

Souris finished the season with four wins and two losses, which for a team in its first season, is a good one. Their first game was against the more experienced PWC team, and this game they lost by only two points. The second game, also an exhibition encounter saw the locals defeat Kinkora. Then came the playoff series with Montague Regional, a team also playing its first year in competition. Souris won both games and drew a bye into the finals. The first game against O'Leary was played in Souris and the locals won 41-0 and then in O'Leary they lost 14-12, winning the round 53-14.

During the season Souris scored a total of one hundred and eight points, while allowing sixty-eight or defeating their opponents by an average of 18-11 per game. This average of only eleven points a game being scored on them, we think, is an exceptionally good one. And their defensive team did not give up one touchdown by means of pass and run. They also intercepted three passes that they can back for touchdowns of their own.

TEAM EFFORT

While Joe and George Cheverie were without a doubt leading factors (Joe scored seventy-five per cent of the team's total points, while George was the quarter-back, and both played outstanding defensive ball) other players deserve a share of the lime-light. Notable among these is Pius FitzPatrick. Pius was the team leader and spark-plug. Full of life he always kept the boys on their toes. It was Pius that directed the team during the warm-ups, and kept the defensive squad alive.

Roland Ching and Francis Power played solid two way games, along with fleet- footed Eugene MacDonald. Bobby Pierce was also outstanding going both ways. Joe Rogers and Guy MacIntosh also played good ball. It was a great team effort and to the boys and to their youthful good- natured coach, John Hughes, who had a lot to contend with we extend sincere congratulations on winning the Island title. Members of the new champions are: Butch Cheverie, George Cheverie, Joe Cheverie, Roland Ching, Gus Clinton, Terry Clinton, Pius FitzPatrick, Alfred Fraser, David Gallant, Mark Gallant, Paul Gallant, David Kassner, Brendon MacAulay, David MacDonald, Eugene MacDonald, Joe MacDonald, Wayne MacDonald, Guy MacIntosh, John McQuaid, Gerald MacPhee, Bobby Pierce, Francis Power, Joe Praught, and Joe Rogers.

The next sport that we'll see on a competitive level, Island-wide, will probably be basketball. Practices will get underway right away. The boys team lost out last year in competition with Morell and Montague. They will have mainly the same team back from last year with only a few changes. The girls team are the defending Island champs, and also a few changes will be made on this team. One of last year's stars, Carol Ann Power, is going to SDU this year.

SCORES TWO GOALS

Bobby Hull Leads Hawks To 5-2 Win Over Wings

CHICAGO (AP)—Bobby Hull continued his red-hot scoring pace with two goals Wednesday night to help Chicago Black Hawks overcome a 2-0 deficit and defeat Detroit Red Wings 5 - 2 in a National Hockey League game.

The victory, the Hawks ninth in a row on home ice, kept Chicago eight points ahead of runner-up Montreal Canadiens.

The fourth-place Wings now have failed to gain a victory in eight road games. They have one tie.

A power play by Ed Joyal and a penalty-shot marker by Doug Barkley shot the Wings into a 2-0 lead by the 12:00 mark of the first period. But before the frame had ended, Bobby Hull had tied the score with his 13th and 14th goals of the season.

Kenny Wharram's 11th goal of the year pulled the Hawks into a 3-2 lead in the second period and tallies by Elmer Vasko and Bill Hay sewed it up for Chicago in the last frame.

Hull's two goals moved him into a two-point lead in the league scoring race. Hull has 28 points to 26 for Montreal's Jean Beliveau.

Chicago team captain Pierre Pilote suffered a fractured nose in the final period when he was struck by the puck.

Habs Defeat Toronto 3-1

By DAVE BETTS

TORONTO (CP) — Toronto Maple Leafs outdid Montreal Canadiens in the department of errors Wednesday night, and a 3-1 win by Montreal moved them into sole possession of second place in the National Hockey League.

The Canadiens top scorer, Dave Balon, fired home his ninth of the season as an insurance marker after Billy Hicke and defenceman Terry Harper scored in the first two periods.

Toronto's lone goal was scored by Dave Keon.

Captain George Armstrong of the Leafs failed for the third straight game to score his 200th career goal.

It was mainly a matter of who made fewer errors as both teams looked sloppy and ineffective with the exception of Montreal goalie Charlie Hodge, who turned aside 13 Leaf drives in the first period and 31 during the game.

Toronto goalie Johnnie Bower looked shaky and unsure of himself as he bobbled long shots and appeared to lose the puck on several occasions.

Montreal now has 20 points on eight wins and four ties. The Leafs have 18 points on eight wins and two ties.

Toronto dominated the play for the first 1½ periods, although Montreal went ahead 2-0 during the time.

First period — 1. Montreal, Hicke 4 (Laperriere) 15:35. Penalties—Talbot 0:53, Stanley 10:35, Horton 14:26, Laperriere 18:30.

Second period—2. Montreal, Harper 2 (Berenson) 9:20; 3. Toronto, Keon 6 (Horton, Mahovlich) 13:41. Penalties—Talbot 0:49, Stewart 5:25, Richard 5:55, Watson and Duff 7:57, Larose minor and Duff two minors 12:22, Balon 19:50.

Third period — 4. Montreal, Balon 9 (Backstrom) 13:15. Penalty—Backstrom 3:34.

Hockey Teams Plan Practice

There will be a practice for Charlottetown Minor Hockey Association teams on Saturday morning at the following times: 8.00-9.30, Pee Wees (10-12 years); 9.30-11.00, Paperweights (8-10 years); 11.00-12.30 Bantam (12-14 years); 5.00-6.30 p.m., Midgets (14-16 years) and Juveniles (16-18 years).

Sunny Isle Teams Play

In Sunny Isle Farm League action last night, Covehead defeated Southport 4-1. G. Vessey led the winners with two goals while G. MacCallum and D. Hughes scored singles. G. Herman picked up the lone tally for Southport.

In the second game of the evening, Glasgow Road shutout Mt. Albion 4-0. Gene Clark picked up two goals for the winners while Jack Barrett and Bill Wilson each scored one.

CRICKET'S ORIGIN

Some historians believe cricket developed in England from croquet, a game earlier popular in France.

Rangers Tie With Bruins

NEW YORK (AP)—New York Rangers, with goalie Gilles Villemure making 32 saves in his National Hockey League debut, battled Boston Bruins to a 1-1 tie at Madison Square Garden Wednesday night.

Villemure was subbing for the injured Jacques Plante.

The tie kept the Rangers two points ahead of the last-place Bruins.

Dick Meissner, an ex-Bruin, scored for Rangers at 15:42 of the opening period. The burly right winger backhanded a 10-footer past Bruin goalie Ed Johnston after taking a pass from Don McKenney, also an ex-Bruin.

At 17:13 of the second period Tom Williams scored for the Bruins on a short shot from in front of the net after a pass from behind the net by Murray Oliver.

First period—1. New York Meissner 3 (McKenney, Johns) 15:42. Penalty—Kennedy 19:51.

Second period — 2. Boston, Williams 5 (Oliver, Gendron) 17:13. Penalties—Neilson 1:46 Howell and Prentice 2:50.

Third period — No scoring. Penalty—Leiter 5:43.

Kuntz Is 'Full Of Hate' At Start Of Ball Game

HAMILTON (CP) — Bobby Kuntz — standout fullback and linebacker with Hamilton Tiger-Cats—is "full of hate" when he trots out on a football field.

"You have to hate out there—I'm just hating at everyone," Kuntz says. "For 60 minutes of each ball game the field is a vertiable no - man's land, the game a physical battle and thee's only one tune, the final gun."

This is an emotional obsession Kuntz slips into the moment he steps on the field. When the final gun sounds he once again becomes a peace-loving citizen.

Kuntz and the rest of the Ticats say they will not let up for Sunday's second game of the two-game total-points final series for the Eastern Football Conference title, even though they do have a 45-0 point lead over the Ottawa Rough Riders.

Kuntz played six season with Toronto Argonauts in the Eastern Conference and now is in his second season with Ticats.

PLAYS BOTH WAYS

He doesn't care whether he plays offence of defence, although he admits "you get more knocks on defence."

Kuntz rates Ottawa middle guard Kaye Vaughan as one of the toughest to play against.

"He's hard, tough and loves to hit."

Contact is something Kuntz likes too. He loves to throw devastating blocks, hit hard, fight his way through masses of muscle and flit all over the field in reckless, rugged pursuit of the opposition.

Even when he's on the sidelines he jumps around like a crackerjack, pleading with coach Ralph Sazio to let him back in the action.

MADE HIM VALUABLE

This devotion and determination has been one of the things that has made Kuntz so valuable to Ticats.

But he is the first to admit that it is the club and coaching styles of Sazio, Joe Restic and Kelley Mote that has been invaluable to him.

"We did an awful lot of preparation for a game when I was with the Argos," he said, "but it never seemed to be for the right things."

Word from the Hamilton camp about Ron Ray, a defensive end who injured his knee in a game against Toronto Oct. 20, is that he may be out the rest of the season.

This was the same game that Garney Henley cracked a rib and bruised his kidney. He has not played a full game since.

Ray got into last Saturday's game in Ottawa for a few plays, but had to come out when his knee started to give him trouble.

TOUGH TEAM

Ray and Pete Neumann had formed one of the toughest defensive end partnerships in the country this season.
