The Late Rev. George Butcher.

The Watchman, of London, contains the following sketch of the life of one who was well known to many citizens of Charlottetown, as an earnest and faithful Minister of the Gospel:—

"The Rev. George Butcher was born Aug. 9, 1823, at St. James, Suffolk, but the family left England whilst he was yet an infant, and settled at Charlottetown, Prince Edward Island. From thence he returned to England in 1852. He was brought up as an architect, in which he became an expert, and, though he did not finally follow this, yet the skill thus acquired stood him in good stead in after life, when his opinion and advice were always available and very valuable as to the building, improvement, or repairs of the chapels and other edifices. It was whilst living at Newark that he first felt a Divine call to the ministry. The doors of the Methodist Church in England, owing to the unfortunate dissensions of that time, being closed against him, he returned to Prince Edward Island, and received his first appointment in 1856 to Guysborough, Nova Scotia; thence to Fredericton, the cathedral city of New Brunswick, where he labored with great energy and success for two years. Berwick, Nova Scotia; Dorchester, and Point de Bute, North Britain, were his next appointments. Family arrangements required his return to England in 1866, and in the following year he entered the home work, travelling in the Diss, Ilkeston, Aylesbury, Gravesend, and Hornsea Circuits, and staying at each place the full term of three years. He was appointed to Deal at the Conference in 1872, where he labored with great acceptance and usefulness till within a fortnight of his death. His preaching was earnest and marked by careful thought, and when his hearers got accustomed to a slight peculiarity in his delivery his ministry was, as expressed by his Hornsea friends, "revealed" in by his people. In social life and in fraternal meetings with his brethren his conversation betokened a well-furnished mind, a wide acquaintance with men and things; and he was a warm-hearted and genial friend. When public issues were concerned he would disregard all private interests and wishes. Throughout his life he was an earnest advocate of the temperance cause; and his last public appearance was as chairman of a blue ribbon meeting on Friday, Nov. 16. Both in America and England he leaves a large circle of friends who have heard of his death with loving regret."

Entertainment at Somerset.

A grand amateur entertainment, under the auspices of the Somerset Debating Club and Literary Association, was held in Somerset Hall, on the evening of the 5th inst. Considering the severity of the weather and extremely short notice given the public, the Hall was very fairly filled, about 250 persons in all being present. The total amount realized was, I understand, somewhere in or about $25.00. The programme consisted of several well chosen readings, recitations songs, dramas, dialogues, stump speeches, and Burlesque orations; and, if we may judge from the excellent order maintained by the audience throughout the whole programme, I think I am safe in saying that the audience was well pleased with the night's amusement. To one young lady in particular, Miss Katie O. Hammill, teacher, too much praise cannot be accorded for the very excellent manner in which she performed the many parts assumed by her, and as for "burnt cork" Sally, her impersonations were all O. K. I believe it is the intention of the Club to give another entertainment soon, and if I get due notice thereof, I'll be there with as many of my friends as will come along.

ONE OF THE AUDIENCE.

PRESENTATION.—On New Year's evening at the residence of James White, Esq., Mount Stewart, J. R. Bourke, Esq., on behalf of Mrs. White and Mrs. Bourke, who did the collection, presented the Rev. D. H. Lodge with a well filled purse as a New Year's gift from the congregation and other friends, as a token of their respect and esteem for the worker and his work. This, with other presents of value from various preaching places, show that he is laboring among a kind and appreciative people.

Cardigan Bridge Notes.

Mr. Michael Burke, of Georgetown, has about completed painting the interior of All Saint's Church. It is needless to say that he has done the work in an excellent manner. It speaks for itself. The graining is ash and walnut, and matches well with the pews which were lately placed in position by Messrs. Mark Wright & Co., of Charlottetown. They are built of ash, capped and finished with walnut. The altar, built entirely of marble and grey-stone, is pronounced by competent judges, the best work of the kind in P. E. Island. Altogether, the Church presents a neat and pleasing appearance, and is a credit to the parishioners of Cardigan, and a lasting monument to their liberality.

Messrs. Morson & Morgan have shipped, since the first of October, the following cargoes:—

Name of Vessel.	Oats.	Potatoes.	Turnips.
Ada E.	225	3500	175
Bridgewater.	50	3500	450
Beatrice.	525	3500	150
Belle.	150	1500	125
Dwina.	1100	1800	125
Day Spring.	700	2400	200
Walker.	100	1000	100
Emperor.	650	1600	200
Eliza Jane.	—	2500	—
Glida.	200	1400	200
Mary Jane.	—	1200	200
Martha Jane.	—	1400	—
Percy Roy.	225	2600	175
River Dale.	125	1800	250
Susan.	—	800	100
Sissie Bell.	200	1600	100
Titmouse.	—	3200	—
Victory.	125	2000	125
Van.	800	1800	350
Walker Alto.	600	3000	125
Vegete.	—	1400	225
Etta (2nd cargo).	—	1100	—
Total.	5775	43300	3325

The total value of the above cargoes, if we include a considerable quantity of beef, pork, etc., shipped on the same vessels, exceeds $11,000. The same enterprising firm also loaded the "Quivet" and "British Tar" in Georgetown. While prices ruled low in other parts, Messrs. Morson & Morgan paid 34 cents for oats, and 18 to 20 cents for potatoes, keeping ahead of quotations in many other parts of the Island, and as high as the highest during the entire shipping season. They are now storing large quantities of pork and oats, at the highest cash prices.

The following vessels were loaded by Mr. J. F. Norton:—

Name of Vessel.	Oats.	Potatoes.	Turnips.	Meats.
Victoria.	400	900	400	500
Jessen.	—	2700	200	—
Galaxy.	600	1200	300	1100
Vegete.	—	1300	—	—
Total.	1000	6100	900	2000

Value of above cargoes about $1,780. The fact that, with the exception of five or six vessels, all the above were loaded for Nova Scotia ports, is a triumphant reputation, as far as Cardigan is concerned, of the miserable, unpatriotic cry of the Grit growlers, that we have no home market. If the N. P. means ruin, then we say, "give us some more ruin."

Cardigan Bridge, Jan. 7, 1884.

Cardigan Notes.

The following prizes were awarded Mr. John Robertson, Inkerman Farm, Lot 52, at the Dominion Exhibition held in St. John, N. B., last October, viz:—First prize for Wangel Wurtzel Seed; first prize for Beet Seed; first prize for Parsnip Seed; first prize for Windsor Beans; third prize for White Field Beans. Mr. Robertson is a very successful exhibitor at our exhibitions, having secured quite a number of prizes at the King's County and Provincial Exhibitions. He has a very fine young orchard containing 250 choice apple trees, besides a number of plum, currant and other trees. His vegetable garden occupies nearly five acres, and is a model of neatness. His vegetables are well known to be of superior quality and meet ready sale whenever offered.

The cultivation of fruits and vegetables is a branch of farming that requires skillful management and great attention, and we are much pleased to see this industry so successfully prosecuted in King's County.

Farms are still changing hands in this vicinity, Mr. Donald Wilson, having purchased Mr. F. Davies' farm, and Mr. J. McKenzie that of Mr. J. McInnis. Trade at Cardigan Bridge has been brisk during the past fall, and a large quantity of produce has been shipped.

Mr. James Norton has his new store nearly finished, and it presents quite a neat appearance. The inside has been painted by Mr. F. A. Landry in his best style, and would be considered a first-class shop, even in Charlottetown.

Farmers in the surrounding settlements are steadily improving their farms and buildings, and many of their homesteads would compare favorably with those in any part of the Island.

Among the houses lately built are those of Mr. James Donodoe, Roseneath, Michael Bolden and John Fogerty, Grand River Road, John Parker and Donald Wilson, Cardigan, Edward Redmond, Donald Matheson, John Larthart, Patrick Ryan, and Charles Crawford, St. Peter's Road, Lot 53, besides many others that have been rebuilt and improved.

Notwithstanding the unpatriotic complaints of hard times by the Patriot and his confederates, the people are satisfied that they are not very poor and are investing their money in their farms which is the safest Bank they can get.

One of the best farms near here is that of Mr. Neil Nicholson, of Piquid Road, Lot 52, and taking into consideration the buildings, fences and cultivation, it would be hard to equal it in the Island. Mr. Nicholson is a wide-awake farmer, always ready to take advantage of any improvement that can be made to successfully carry on his business, and during the past summer has placed in his large 80 feet barn a horse hay fork and patent carrier, by means of which he will be able to secure his hay crop with much greater ease and speed than by pitching it by hand.

Mr. Roland H. Plummer has commenced carrying the mails from Cardigan Station to New Perth and Montague Bridge, in place of Mr. John J. Campbell whose contract expired on the 31st December. Mr. Campbell was a most punctual and obliging mail courier, and gave good satisfaction to the public during the time his contract lasted.

Cardigan, Jan. 7, 1884.

Dundas Notes.

There has been quite a large quantity of potatoes and oats shipped from this port this fall by the following shippers:—

R. Burdett, three schooners containing 7,200 bushels potatoes.
Hugh McLellan, two schooners containing 6,200 bushels potatoes.
E. Vikerson, one schooner containing 2,000 bushels potatoes.
Arch. McLean, one schooner containing 1,200 bushels potatoes.
J. G. Stiers, three schooners containing 3,600 bushels potatoes.
M. McLeod & Co., two schooners containing 5,500 bushels potatoes.
Morson & Morgan, one schooner containing 1,500 bushels potatoes.
Welsh & Owen, one brigantine containing 9,000 bushels oats.

Lauchlin McKay is doing quite a rushing business in the carriage and agricultural line. He has turned out a lot of splendid sleighs this fall, which are selling fast.

Mr. Hugh McLellan, one of our enterprising merchants, has left for Boston on business.

Mr. Arch. Currie, one of our largest importers, returned from Boston last week looking hale and hearty. He says he has ordered for the Spring trade 17,000 yards print and grey cottons.

R. Burdett is going to start business again in his old store. He intends building again on the site lately occupied by his store destroyed by fire.

Education is progressing favorably under the careful management of Miss L. Nelson as Principal, and Miss Bulphitt as Assistant.

New Years was enjoyed by the young folks by sleigh driving and a ball in the evening.

Mr. Charles Clay is going to start a singing school here. It is needed very much.

Your correspondent "Quiz" is very much astray about "black ducks." He must have been under the influence of "black ducks" when he wrote that article.

Our young friend, Mr. Stewart Hunter, has lately joined the army of Benedict's. We wish him joy in his new departure.

Dundas, Jan. 3rd, 1884.

Cape Traverse Notes.

A number of the folks who are most interested in our school spent the last afternoon of the old year very agreeably, witnessing Miss E. B. McPhail's examination of her class. She keeps her school in perfect order and her classes under good discipline: two very essential points in teaching. Her senior class, I should say, are well fitted for a college course. Katie Deagan (in this class) is not only bright but she is brilliant. It is to be hoped she may have the good fortune to finish her education in a convent. It appears to be Miss McPhail's hobby to teach thoroughly. This school had a very hard name before Miss McPhail took charge of it; but we fancy that it now stands on a par with the best on the Island. Below is given a list of those who made the highest number of marks in all branches, during the term, numbered according to merit:—

SIXTH CLASS.
1st, Simeon Howatt; 2nd, Katie Deagan; 3rd, Ella McPhee.

FIFTH CLASS.
1st, Dan Deagan; 2nd, Frederick Clarke; 3rd, James Bell.

FOURTH CLASS.
1st, Major Howatt; 2nd, Maggie McWilliams; 3rd, John Campbell.

THIRD CLASS.
1st, Robert Howatt; 2nd, Ernest Clarke, and Aggie C. Strang, equal.

SECOND CLASS.
1st, Annie Dickie; 2nd, Katie McPhee and James Wright, equal.

FIRST CLASS.
1st, Mabel Wright; 2nd, George Irving.

It is the intention, I understand, of Josiah Howatt, Esq., to send his son to college at the close of the term.

The New Year finds us all well, hale and hearty, full and plenty, and lots to spare; blessing the N. P. every day of our lives.

Josiah Howatt, Esq., and Mr. Thomas Bell and two of our best farmers, who know the value of their dollars and cents as well as any other two gentlemen on the Island, and hear what they have to say. They say "since we have commenced housekeeping we have never bought as cheap as at present, nor have never had better prices for our products, all owing to the N. P."

Mr. Strang has the contract of supplying the timber for the wharf. It is only fair that our people should have some hand in it. We can't see that the people of New Brunswick have a right to everything.

ARTHUR IRVING.
