

Fact & Opinion

By Stephan MacLeod...sexpert

FACT: Smoking women have more lovers than non-smoking women.

OPINION: Guys like to sleep with women who smoke because chicks with yellow teeth remind them of their grandmothers.

FACT: 80 percent of men report that they orgasm during their sex dreams.

OPINION: My sex dreams usually involve a farm, a dozen naughty little sheep, and a night spent in a jail cell. No wait, that wasn't a dream. That was last summer in Souris.

FACT: 1 million condoms are sold daily in the US.

OPINION: You should practice safe sex in order to avoid STD's. And having anal sex with junkies in an alley way doesn't help either.

FACT: 9% of women regularly masturbate while their partner watches.

OPINION: You can learn about what turns your partner on by watching them masturbate. But watching complete strangers masturbate can get you arrested, if they catch you hiding in the closet.

FACT: According to Playboy, literature is the most common sexual aid.

OPINION: Of course Playboy would say literature is the most common sexual aid. That's like Oprah's magazine saying Oprah is person most guys fantasize about in bed.

FACT: Everyday, 200 million couples around the world have sex, which is about over 2000 couples at any given moment.

OPINION: You'd think with all these people having sex all the time, people would be less uptight when I masturbate in movie theaters.

FACT: Women are most likely to want to have sex when they are ovulating.

OPINION: Forget spanish fly, and alcohol, if you want a woman to sleep with you give her some eggs.

FACT: It was during the Victorian era that the formerly nude Cupid was redesigned as wearing a skirt.

OPINION: The Victorians were so into cross-dressing that they once put Santa Clause in a wedding gown.

FACT: 30% of women over the age of 80 still have sexual intercourse either with their spouse or boyfriends.

OPINION: If you want to sleep with an 80 year old, you're going to have to wait until either their spouse or boyfriend dies.

FACT: Fellatio ranks as the number one sexual act desired by heterosexual men.

OPINION: That's why it should be a compliment when you call someone a cocksucker.

FACT: Mosquitoes, which mate in the air perform a sex act that lasts only 2 seconds.

OPINION: The way I have sex is very similar to a mosquito. Except for the whole mating in the air thing.

FACT: Women with a Ph.D. are twice as likely to be interested in a one-night stand than those with only a Bachelor's degree.

OPINION: When you spend as much money on your education as someone with a Ph. D. chances are you're so used to getting fucked by high tuition, campus bookstores, and student unions that a one-night stand won't make much of a difference.

FACT: Australian women have sex on the first date more than women the same age in the USA and Canada.

OPINION: God wanted Jesus to be an Australian, but he couldn't find three wise men or a virgin...and the place smells like kangaroo shit.
