

THE DAILY EXAMINER.

APRIL 19, 1895. THE SESSION.

The chief interest of the session which closed today, centred in the bill to make our sheriff's partisan and the budget. As a legislative outrage the former compares not unfavorably with the most mischievous of the rascally measures with which Mr. Premier Peters has entrenched himself in office. By taking control of the officers who select the juries to try the cases in our Supreme courts, the Government has placed itself in a position in which it may at any time be suspected of tampering with justice in the interest of party or partisan suits. The change, may, perhaps, for a time, result in the appointment of good executive officers; but it must also have the effect of weakening the public confidence in the Supreme Court, and we need not say that confidence in the Supreme Court ought to be strengthened rather than weakened. As to the budget, it must have been exceedingly disappointing to all those who hold that this little farrowing Province ought not to be encumbered with debt. Upon the principle applied by Mr. Peters as against the McLeod administration, the debt of the Province is now about $430,000.00, and is still growing, notwithstanding all the taxes levied and paid. One would suppose that a party which, in Opposition denounced deficits, even when they were covered by amounts received from Ottawa—would be greatly dissatisfied on account of the present state of the Province, and greatly concerned for the future. But our Organized Hypocrisy are, apparently, quite happy.

THE LAST LAND BILL.

At the end of the session, Mr. Premier Peters brought in a little bill to enable the Government to milk and strip, more effectively, the Land Office cow. It was delightful to hear honorable members of the Government party dilating upon the injustice of letting any debtor to the Land Office escape the payment of any money that he owes. After legalizing discounts of twelve and eight per cent, and to that extent committing injustice upon every farmer who has paid his instalments in full; after compounding with some defaulters at a few cents in the dollar, and taking the full amount due by others, the members of the Peters Party prate about justice! The necessity for passing an act by which all lands shall be held and bound for the payment of all amounts still due the Government is now held to be imperative. The bill provides that "the amount of money collected by the Commissioners appointed under the various acts relating to the lands purchased shall be a lien and charge upon the land itself, having preference over all other liens and charges upon such lands." It is further "declared that the amount due the Commissioner of Public Lands for the purchase of any land held by him, as aforesaid, may be recovered, notwithstanding that proceedings have not been taken for the recovery of the Land for twenty years after the right to recover the sum accrued; and further, that the statute regarding the limitation of actions shall not be considered as ever having applied to such claims; but nothing herein contained shall in any way affect the title obtained by possession before the lands in question became vested in the Commissioner of Public Lands."

Mr. McKinnon put in a strong plea for the tenant. He thought that if the bill passed in its present form the peace of the country would be disturbed—that the sheriff would be sent out and there would be eviction scenes such as occur in Ireland. He did not think that tenants who had been in possession for twenty years should be ousted. If a tenant was in possession for over twenty years, he had a right to occupy the land. He believed the Government had enough to do to collect the amounts owing within twenty years. He regretted to hear of the Attorney-General on the point of law which he maintained was right, viz., that the twenty years did not now bar the Commissioner of Public Lands. He claimed that the statute regarding the limitation of actions shall not be considered as ever having applied to such claims; but nothing herein contained shall in any way affect the title obtained by possession before the lands in question became vested in the Commissioner of Public Lands. That is to say, the lands of a man holding against the proprietor for nineteen years and never having returned to the Government may now be alienated and he be compelled to pay the Land Office the amount demanded by the Commissioner, on pain of eviction. In connection with this section a point of law was taken by Mr. McKinnon which was sharply traversed by Mr. Peters. Mr. McKinnon held that the Commissioner of Crown Lands could not run against the Statute of Limitations; and in this view he was supported by Mr. Bell. Mr. Peters, on the other hand, held that the Government is in a different position from the ordinary landlord, and that squatters rights on land owned by the Government cannot be acquired in the same manner as squatters rights in land held by the proprietors. The legal strife was interesting, and a good many of those who listened to it were inclined to the opinion that Mr. McKinnon had the best of the argument. If, it was asked, squatters' rights to lands vested in the Government cannot be acquired, why enact "that the statute of limitation regarding the limitation of actions shall not be considered as ever having applied to such claims?" The inference to be drawn from Mr. Peters' bill is against Mr. Peters' contention, and in favor of that of Messrs. McKinnon and Bell. We are informed that the bill will affect hundreds of titles that have for years been regarded as valid. Our correspondent, "Lot 30," furnishes a case in point, showing how wrong and injury may be done the purchasers of rights in land obtained and held by possession. The bill is certainly not such an one as ought to be hastily passed at the end of the session.

The Legislative Assembly was in Session four weeks yesterday, and will be prorogued this afternoon. The first sheet of the Assembly Journal was placed on members desks yesterday. It contains His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor's Speech at the opening of the session. This and nothing more.

The pleasing feature of the session was the manner in which the Opposition, led by Hon. Mr. Gordon, stood together and contended, day after day, for prudent and righteous action on the part of the Legislature and Government. We are not without hope that their efforts will, ere long, be more effective than they have been during the course of the past month.

The fact that Hood's Sarsaparilla, once fairly tried, becomes the favorite spring medicine, speaks a volume for its excellence and merit.

PROVINCIAL LEGISLATURE.

THURSDAY, April 18.

After recess the House went into committee on the bill respecting the payment of amounts due the Commissioner of Public Lands, with Mr. Godkin in the chair.

The bill was discussed at considerable length by Messrs. Peters, Bell, McMillan, Rogers (Alberton), McLaughlin, McKinnon, Laird, A. Peters, Robertson and Farquharson.

Mr. Bell took objection to the measure, claiming that it was similar in its object to the old escheat law. He argued that if it passed it would operate unjustly against those tenants who had not returned—that it would deprive them of the titles they had acquired by reason of their having been in possession for twenty years.

Mr. McKinnon also spoke very strongly so framed as not to apply to those tenants who had been in possession for twenty years.

Mr. Rogers (Alberton) thought that this matter should be made perfectly clear. If a doubt existed in respect to the class of tenants referred to he thought it should be removed.

Class 1 of the bill provides as follows: "The amount of money calculated by the commissioners appointed under the various acts relating to the lands purchased by the Commissioner of Public Lands shall be a lien and charge upon the land itself, having preference over all other liens and charges upon such land."

Mr. McKinnon moved the following amendment to this clause: "Provided that the foregoing shall not affect the rights or titles (if any) acquired by possession."

Mr. Rogers (Alberton) seconded the motion. The House divided on the amendment as follows:— Ayes—Gordon, Shaw, A. J. Macdonald, J. A. Macdonald, James E. Macdonald, Blanchard, Rogers (Alberton), McKinnon, Bell, McWilliams—10.

Nays—Peters, McLean, McMillan, Farquharson, Richards, Sinclair, Forbes, Laird, H. C. McDonald, Warburton, Prose, Rogers (city), A. Peters, Wise, McLaughlin, Atken—16.

The amendment was declared lost, and the original clause carried.

Class 2 provides as follows:—"It is declared that the amount due the Commissioner of Public Lands for the purchase of any land held by him as aforesaid, may be recovered, notwithstanding that proceedings have not been taken for the recovery of the Land for twenty years after the right to recover the sum accrued; and further, that the statute regarding the limitation of actions shall not be considered as ever having applied to such claims. But nothing herein contained shall in any way affect the title obtained by possession before the lands in question became vested in the Commissioner of Public Lands."

This clause also provoked considerable discussion. Mr. McKinnon put in a strong plea for the tenant. He thought that if the bill passed in its present form the peace of the country would be disturbed—that the sheriff would be sent out and there would be eviction scenes such as occur in Ireland. He did not think that tenants who had been in possession for twenty years should be ousted. If a tenant was in possession for over twenty years, he had a right to occupy the land. He believed the Government had enough to do to collect the amounts owing within twenty years. He regretted to hear of the Attorney-General on the point of law which he maintained was right, viz., that the twenty years did not now bar the Commissioner of Public Lands. He claimed that the statute regarding the limitation of actions shall not be considered as ever having applied to such claims; but nothing herein contained shall in any way affect the title obtained by possession before the lands in question became vested in the Commissioner of Public Lands. That is to say, the lands of a man holding against the proprietor for nineteen years and never having returned to the Government may now be alienated and he be compelled to pay the Land Office the amount demanded by the Commissioner, on pain of eviction. In connection with this section a point of law was taken by Mr. McKinnon which was sharply traversed by Mr. Peters. Mr. McKinnon held that the Commissioner of Crown Lands could not run against the Statute of Limitations; and in this view he was supported by Mr. Bell. Mr. Peters, on the other hand, held that the Government is in a different position from the ordinary landlord, and that squatters rights on land owned by the Government cannot be acquired in the same manner as squatters rights in land held by the proprietors. The legal strife was interesting, and a good many of those who listened to it were inclined to the opinion that Mr. McKinnon had the best of the argument. If, it was asked, squatters' rights to lands vested in the Government cannot be acquired, why enact "that the statute of limitation regarding the limitation of actions shall not be considered as ever having applied to such claims?" The inference to be drawn from Mr. Peters' bill is against Mr. Peters' contention, and in favor of that of Messrs. McKinnon and Bell. We are informed that the bill will affect hundreds of titles that have for years been regarded as valid. Our correspondent, "Lot 30," furnishes a case in point, showing how wrong and injury may be done the purchasers of rights in land obtained and held by possession. The bill is certainly not such an one as ought to be hastily passed at the end of the session.

Mr. McKinnon said that he was not so sure of that. There was no record of the Leader's promise in respect to that matter, and in a year or two he might forget that he made it.

After some further discussion the clause was put to a vote and carried on the following division:— Ayes—Peters, McLean, McMillan, Farquharson, Richards, Sinclair, Forbes, Laird, H. C. McDonald, Warburton, Prose, Rogers (city), A. Peters, Wise, McLaughlin, Atken, McWilliams—17.

Nays—Gordon, Shaw, A. J. Macdonald, J. A. Macdonald, James E. Macdonald, Blanchard, Rogers (Alberton), McKinnon, Bell—9.

Hon. Mr. Forbes moved that the following clause be added to the bill:—"Nothing in this Act shall affect the estates which have been reported at any time by a committee of this House or by a committee of the Executive Council of this Province as being self-sustaining, but tenants occupiers of lands on such estates can obtain deeds from the Government upon payment of a sum to be named and settled between said tenants and occupiers and the Commissioner of Public Lands."

On motion, the Speaker took the chair, and the chairman reported that the committee had agreed to the bill without amendment.

Hon. Mr. Peters moved that the report of the committee be adopted.

Mr. McKinnon moved in amendment that the report be not adopted, but that the bill be referred back to the committee for the insertion of the following amendment to clause 1:—"Provided that the foregoing shall not affect the rights or titles (if any) acquired by possession."

The amendment was lost on the following division:— Ayes—Gordon, Shaw, A. J. Macdonald, J. A. Macdonald, James E. Macdonald, Blanchard, Rogers (Alberton), McKinnon, Bell—9.

Nays—Peters, McLean, McMillan, Farquharson, Richards, Sinclair, Forbes, Laird, McDonald, Warburton, Prose, Rogers (city), A. Peters, Wise, McLaughlin, Atken, McWilliams—17.

Mr. McKinnon then moved that the bill be referred back to the committee for the striking out of clause 7. The motion was considered "out of order," however, and was subsequently withdrawn.

The motion that the report of the committee be adopted was then put and carried, and the bill was ordered to be read a third time to-morrow.

After recess, the bill respecting coroners was read a third time and passed. House then went into committee on the paper scales, with Mr. Prose in the chair. The committee reported certain resolutions agreed to. The bill incorporating the members and trustees of the Presbyterian Church of Tryon and Bonshaw was read a first and second time and ordered to be read a third time to-morrow.

The bill incorporating the Watchman Publishing Company was read a third time and passed.

Mr. Wise then submitted his resolution respecting the levying of a poll tax on all bachelors over a certain age. He supported the resolution in a speech that provoked considerable merriment, dropping into poetry on at least one occasion.

Mr. Arthur Peters seconded the motion. He referred to the great importance and necessity of some such measure as that proposed.

The resolution was then read by the Clerk, and Mr. Wise moved that it be considered in committee with Mr. McWilliams in the chair.

Mr. McWilliams asked to be excused from acting as chairman, claiming that he desired to speak to the resolution.

Mr. Rogers (Alberton) asked if the tax on bachelors was a government measure. Mr. Wise said it was not a government measure, but it was intended to benefit the government.

Hon. Mr. Peters agreed with what had been said respecting the importance of the subject matter of the resolution and moved in amendment that it be allowed to lie on the table for the present.

Hon. Mr. McLean seconded the motion on which Mr. McKinnon moved that the House then adjourned till 10 a.m. on Friday.

FRIDAY, April 19.

House met at noon. The bill respecting the Commissioner of Public Lands was read a third time and passed.

On motion of Mr. Warburton the bill to incorporate the ministers and trustees of the Presbyterian Church of Tryon and Bonshaw, was read a third time and passed.

Mr. Rogers (Alberton) seconded by Mr. Robertson, introduced a resolution respecting the abolition of Government House.

When recess was taken at one o'clock Mr. Rogers was speaking in support of his resolution.

Following is a list of the bills passed during the session:— 1 An Act to provide for the incorporation of Cheese and Butter Manufacturing Associations.

2 An Act for the reclamation of marsh lands in Prince Edward Island.

3 An Act to amend an act to incorporate the Grand Rapids Dairying Company.

4 An Act respecting the office of Sheriff.
