

Saints Football Team Set To Open Here Monday

Saint Dunstan's Varsity football team gets its first taste of 1959 intercollegiate competition on Thanksgiving Day, Monday, Oct. 12.

That afternoon at Saint Dunstan's field, the Red and Whites will meet the Acadia Axemen in the season's opener. The following Saturday the Saints will play their only other home game and that will be against the powerful University of New Brunswick squad. Their two games away from home will be at Sackville against Mount Allison and at Halifax against Saint Mary's. Saint Thomas College, Chatham, the fifth member last year, is not a member of the loop this season.

Last season, coach A.J. MacAdam was a happy man as his boys racked up a fine 2-2 record. They defeated Saint Thomas and Saint Mary's here in Charlottetown and downed the Axemen at Wolfville. Their losses were to Mount Allison and UNB.

That was a pretty fair record for a team making its first start at Canadian football. But coach MacAdam has a big job on his hands this fall. He is minus several of last year's top men who did much to make the Saints record such a good one.

Jack Hooper a halfback from Maryland; Lennie Ellis, wingback from Reading, Mass.; Ben MacLennan, a tackle and centre from Boston; Jim Benham, a fullback from Toronto and Ray Hache who performed so brilliantly for Junior Varsity last fall.

Other new material includes Gaston St. Louis, Matane, Quebec; Russel Brown, Montreal at defensive end and Gordon Dooley, Montreal at defensive halfback.

Members of last year's squad who are back with the local Saints are: Charlie Sark who will captain the offensive squad; end Gerry Tingley, guard Ian MacDonald, guard Emmet Foley; tackle Ken MacKinnon; wingback Charlie Fisher; defensive end Pete Levesque; defensive tackle Frank Driscoll; defensive tackle Brendon Dumphy; defensive guards Bill Cain and Rollie Sullivan; linebackers Parker Lund, Lon LeClair and Vince MacIntyre; defensive end Walter MacEwen and defensive half Frank Gillis and Vernon MacDonald.

Sharing quarterbacking duties will be Ray Hache and Paul Arsenault from Montreal who was a member of last year's team.

Saints' opponents for Monday, Acadia Axemen, are reported much improved over last season. The Axemen failed to register a win last year but the Wolfville squad is rated much better than the outfit of twelve months ago.

Starting time Monday is fixed for 2 o'clock.

DOWN THE BACK STRETCH

We had the pleasure Thursday afternoon of a visit from Otto Irvine, Mars Hill, Maine, who was paying a visit to Charlottetown. We talked about the days when he was starter at our Old Home Week meets, and made such an excellent job of it.

We looked up our book of clippings for the year 1942, and read of the races on Friday, August 14th. It reads: "The largest Friday afternoon attendance in the history of the Exhibition made each of the four days a record-breaker." Pat went on with a good description of all the races, and made reference to the upset, that occurred in the free-for-all trot when Millie Kalmuck 2:09 1/4, won from Watchin' 2:07, June E. Evans and Sunnymede. Millie won the first and third heats, with Watchin' winning the second heat, time 2:11, 2:09 1/4 and 2:10 1/4.

On Thursday afternoon, the 2:19 Trot and Pace, second division, was won by Jean Henley, driven by Billy Hood, with a 1-1-3 summary. Hal Britton (Harley Harrison) was 2-2-1, Babe McElwain (J. Power - J. O'Brien) 3-3-2, four other starters, time 2:10 1/4, 2:10 and 2:13. And now we come to the race which caused as much excitement as anything we have ever witnessed on the Charlottetown track - the free-for-all trot and pace.

Contrary to expectations, it was won by Chestnut Bars 2:06 1/2, driven by B. Poley, with a 1-1-1 summary. Duddy Patch 2:06 1/2 (Joe O'Brien) was 2-2-5, Victor Lee 2:07 (A. Langille) 3-3-2, All Grattan 2:06 1/4 (T. Semple) 4-3-3, Tracey Hanover 2:03 (Bob Morrison) 5-4-4, Rainey G. Henley 2:06 (Roy Barnett) 6-d-r., time 2:07 1/2, 2:06 and 2:07.

with the following results: Races 1 and 5 - U-Kum (Eagan) 1-2, Queen's Ball (Bickford) 2-5; Goldust, Belle (Cluff) 4-1; Hi Acres Peter (Craft) 3-3, three others, time 2:17 and 2:18. Races 2 and 6 - Sunny Maid (Langille) 1-1, Abbe Brewer (Giberson) 2-6, Spirit (Cluff) 3-4, Sunny Wickham (Belyea) 7-2, Roman Counsel (Millett) 8-3, three others, time 2:16 and 2:16 2-5.

Races 3 and 7 - Johnny Thunder (Grimes) 1-1, Vanguard (Lindon) 2-2, Mighty Grand (Cluff) 4-3, Anne Castle (Savage) 3-d-r., three others, time 2:15 and 2:14 3-5. Races 4 and 8 - Senator Hedge-wood (C. Bishop) 1-2, Rodney Volo (DeWitt) 2-1, Racket (Grimes) 3-5, Shelton Key (Hoyt) 5-3, time 2:15. - and 2:13.

Dodgers' Drive In April Was Regarded As Joke

CHICAGO (AP)—They laughed when the Los Angeles Dodgers sneaked into first place in April. After their seventh-place finish in 1958 this was a huge joke. Who could take this club seriously?

Nobody is laughing today for the Dodgers rule the baseball world after beating the favored Chicago White Sox in a six-game world series.

This is not a great ball club—nobody would claim that. But an alert team with a fine manager who made the most of his scraps of material. A little patch work here, a kid back from the minors there and always somebody with a hot bat and a hot arm.

In early season it was Don Drysdale, blazing along at a fantastic pace. When Drysdale went sour in August and September, others filled in the gap.

Sandy Koufax set a National League record and tied Bob Feller's major league mark by striking out 18 San Francisco Giants in August.

From the farm system of Spokane came Roger Craig to win five in a row down the stretch.

at the coliseum when Sherry relieved Drysdale with men on first and second and nobody out. Sherry hit Goodman with a pitch, loading the bases. Then he buckled down. He made Smith ground into a double play on the first pitch, scoring a run, and retired Rivera on a pop.

The next afternoon Alston needed Sherry again with the score tied 4-4 in the eighth. Larry pitched two hitless innings and was the winner on Gil Hodges' homer.

In the finale it was Sherry again, marching to the rescue of Podres in the fourth with one out, a man on base and the Dodgers leading 8-3. The White Sox never scored again.

Gil Hodges, who won the fourth game with a homer, finished as the leading Dodger at .391. He was tied with the Sox' Ted Kluszewski for the series batting championship. Neal's 10 hits in 27 trips gave him a .370 mark.

Sox Players Go Home; Few May Not Return

BIGGEST HOLE

Missing is last year's general, quarterback, Gil Collins. Gil is back at the university but he is not eligible to play. Other members of the 1958 squad that will be among the missing Monday are Gerald Murphy, Brian Noonan, Bobby S. in m.o.s., Jack James, Pie Bodeau, Basil Gillan, Mike O'Brien, George Trainor/Larry Hickey and Peter Steele.

However, MacAdam is optimistic about his new material. He feels he is better defensively than one year ago but with an almost entirely new backfield, he won't do any predicting about his offensive power.

MacAdam has already hit the Red and Whites and halfbacks Gerry Gillis and Gord Dooley are nursing leg injuries. Charlie Sark and Ray Hache have minor ailments but MacAdam feels both will be starters against Acadia.

Some of the promising newcomers that will be wearing Saint Dunstan's uniforms this year are other Sox "power" hitter, Sherm Lollar, who also drove across one run by hitting into a double play.

Vecek, who said earlier in the 1959 season he did not believe the club, "as constituted now," would win the American League pennant, grinned when asked if he thought the White Sox could repeat in 1960.

"There is no need in being wrong twice," he laughed.

Although Vecek declined to name trading "expedients," it was evident he could and would dip into any department—catching, pitching, infielding or outfielding to get the strong stick man.

Neither would Vecek tip his hand on the specific talent he is seeking, but his sights may mainly be set on the power-packed lineup of the lowly Washington Senators.

"Generally, we'd like to find an outfielder who can hit the long ball, another good pitcher, a 1rd baseman and a first baseman," said Vecek.

"The big hat — boom, that's what we need."

By JERRY LISKA

CHICAGO (AP)—The world series-winning White Sox players began leaving for home Friday, quite a few not destined to return in 1960 if owner Bill Vecek keeps his promise to bustle in the trading mart.

Manager Al Lopez, already signed for next season, was en route to his home at Tampa, Fla., but Vecek had plenty to say about shooting for power.

"We are going to trade and deal as much as possible to make the White Sox more formidable next year," said Vecek, who took over the helm last winter.

"The main thing we are looking for is added power," Vecek said. "Ted Kluszewski gave us some power late this year, but the series proved there is no substitute for the long ball."

Of the 23 runs scored by the Sox against the Dodgers, 10 were driven across by Kluszewski for a six-game series record, and five came from the bat of the MONTREAL (CP)—Two former stars of Montreal Canadiens will be in master-minding roles Sunday afternoon when Sudbury Wolves make their bow in the Eastern Professional Hockey League against Montreal Royals.

Murph Chamberlain, the old hardrock forward of bygone years with the National Hockey League Canadiens, will be behind the Wolves' bench. Directing the Royals will be Floyd Curry, in his sophomore year as Royals' coach.

The game will be the Royals' second in the new circuit. They played to a 3-3 tie in Sault Ste. Marie Thursday.

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—The ex-wife of Ted Williams contended in court Friday that the $100 a month she receives for support of the couple's 11-year-old daughter, Barbara, is "grossly inadequate." She asked that it be increased to $250.

Ted Williams' Ex-wife Wants Cash Increase

And now we turn to another Maritime driver who has had an outstanding record through the years — Earl Avery, of Woodstock, N.B. The following is from "The Harness Horse," dated September 24th: "Adios Butler's performance in the Little Brown Jug was great, but just as outstanding were the two miles by the little youngster, Muncy Hanover, driven by Avery, for Norman Woolworth's Clearview Stable. His miles in 2:01 1/5, and back in 2:00 4/5, really cut the two-year-old pacing standard on the double oval. The old colt mark was 2:02 3/5, held jointly by Topid and Adios Express. The colt mark for two heats of 2:04 3/5 and 2:03 was lowered by five and three-fifths seconds by Muncy Hanover." Our Maritimers will all be proud, we are sure, of the above exhibition of Earl's prowess.

At Sackville Downs Monday night, an exceptionally good program was raced, with a good average time for the whole card. Here they are — Races 1 and 4 — Mighty Green (D. Ratchford) 1-2, Lord Knight (D. Pinkney) 2-1, Volo (Clarke Smith) 3-3, four other starters, time 2:13 and 2:10. Mighty Green owned by Byron Kennedy, Halifax, a red Lord Knight by P. J. Cadegan, Glace Bay, N.S.

The many friends of Mr. Cadegan will be delighted to see that he has had a good start. Lord Knight made a few starts last year as a three-year-old, winning $822 and taking a time record of 2:08 3/5 on a mile track, which is, admittedly, four seconds faster than a half-mile track.

Races 2 and 6 — Bad News (H. Fletcher) 1-1, Miss Wilma Dale (J. MacGregor) 2-3, Watchin' the Star (G. Mauger) 3-6, Dominator Pick (D. Pinkney) 4-3, three other starters, time 2:12 and 2:10 3/5; Bad News owned by H. Fletcher, Truro, N.S. It is interesting to learn that this horse started the season with a record of 2:18, and now is very close to the 2:10 mark. His sire is the local stallion, Jollity, and his dam is Peggy Lea. He is racing this year as a five-year-old. Races 3 and 7 — Lady Lakeburn (J. Arsenault) 1-4, T. O. F. (D. Ratchford) 4-1, Pineland Duke (G. Turner) 2-2, Pegaway (E. Halvey) 3-6, Direct Mite (Moreside) 6-3, Downtown 5-5, time 2:10 1/5 and 2:11; Lady Lakeburn owned by The Mepco Stables, Summerside, and T.O.F. by Byron Kennedy, Halifax.

SPORTS FRONT

By PIUS CALLAGHAN

"I THINK AL LOPEZ did the best job of managing I've ever seen. We went a lot further than I thought we could this season."

That's Chicago White Sox owner Bill Vecek speaking following the 9-3 win by the Dodgers Thursday, a win that gave the world baseball championship to the Los Angeles gang.

Such talk probably is hard for some ardent White Sox fans to take. We still find a few around these parts who are grumbling over what occurred at Comiskey Park on Thursday afternoon.

EARLY WYNN has been Lopez's money man all season long. It was the big right-hander that had been the greatest single factor in bringing an American League pennant to Chicago, Thursday was a "must" game for Lopez, so who could blame him for going with Wynn. After two were out in the third, Moon drew a base on balls. That was no great cause for alarm. Two were down and chances were that Early could take care of the next batter, Duke Snider. However, the Duke repaid Alston for giving him the chance to play by blasting one of Wynn's pitches into the stands for a home run. It was a 2-0 ball game and Chicago had its work cut out.

CAME THE FOURTH and Norm Larker opened with a single. He was sacrificed to second by John Roseboro. There was one away when pitcher Johnny Podres strode up to the plate. Lopez decided that Wynn would be able to dispose of Johnny. But Podres crossed him up and blasted a double that went over 400 feet. We are a bit ahead of ourselves. After Roseboro had been thrown out Wills singled to drive in Demeter who was running for Larker.

So Wynn got Podres, there would be two down and a runner on base. The Chicago manager decided his ace could take care of Podres but he was dead wrong. Johnny, a good hitting pitcher, chased Wynn from the game and the Dodgers were ahead 4-0 and were never to be headed.

Lopez yanked Wynn without any further delay and took his great stopper, Dick Donovan, in to face the Dodgers. Dick had been almost sensational in his two previous appearances. But how did he fare out Thursday afternoon?

He walked Junior Gilliam, gave up a double to Charlie Neal and then served a home run ball to the ever-dangerous Wally Moon.

Lopez's moves two days before had been perfect. His juggling of pitchers stopped the Dodgers cold in the seventh and eighth innings just when they appeared certain to break the ball game wide open. Thursday his moves all backfired and the White Sox were beaten before they got to bat in the fourth.

AND SO the second-guessers are having a whale of a time for themselves, figuring out what they would have done to win that sixth game from the Dodgers. They can second-guess from now till this time next year, but they wouldn't be able to come up with a defense for the Dodgers' power that erupted so violently Thursday afternoon before those ardent White Sox supporters. The Dodgers were run-hungry after that blanking of Tuesday and they were going to make up for that whitewashing and in a real hurry on Thursday.

THE MORE we watched the White Sox, and went over their lineup, the more we marvelled at Lopez getting them home first in the American League race. He had far less talent at his disposal than some of the other junior circuit pilots, yet he was able to get more out of them than anyone had ever expected.

So he loses the world series and some American League supporters are right on his back. He didn't have the horses, yet they expected him to win the race. What the oddsmakers who made the White Sox pre-series 11-10 favorites used as a basis for their reasoning is beyond us. It must have been something that we haven't yet found out about.

IF LOPEZ had finished fourth in the American League this year, we don't think there would have been too much grumbling. Cleveland Indians, New York Yankees and Detroit Tigers all had loads of talent that might easily have brought a pennant to the wigwam, the Stadium or the Motor City. But Lopez outgeneraled Joe Gordon, Casey Stengel and Jimmy Dykes and brought a flag to Comiskey Park for the first time in 40 years.

Yes, Al did himself proud this year and we think he has no regrets even though he lost the world series to the Cinderella Dodgers. Five years ago he was in a wrid series against the New York Giants. He was then pilot of the Cleveland Indians, a team that had set an American League record for games won in the regular season. The experts were calling the Indians to beat the Polo Grounders in that classic, yet Lopez's tribe failed to win a single game. To our way of thinking, he didn't have anything like the material of five years ago, yet he made a fine series showing.

THIS COLUMNIST has been a Dodger supporter all through the piece. That's probably the understatement of the year. Yet we hate to see a nice guy like Lopez blamed for failing to do something that he had no license to do.

These White Sox won that American League pennant more by team spirit than anything else. Had some of that spirit rubbed off on some of the contenders, Lopez might not have had an opportunity to manage in the 1959 world series.

But it didn't and the Pale Hose were Joe Cronin's representatives in the October classic. There had to be some limit to Lopez's magic and that limit was reached Thursday afternoon at Comiskey Park.

So hats off to Lopez. Give him a hand for a fine year's work and stop accusing him of miffing up this past series, or your head in shame.

Truman Gibson Pleads Not Guilty

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Boxing figure Truman Gibson Jr. pleaded not guilty Friday to federal grand jury charges that he conspired to muscle in on welterweight champion Don Jordan's contract.

The dapper Chicago lawyer, president of National Boxing Enterprises, filed a motion to dismiss the charges. The motion will be heard Oct. 26.

Gibson and four others were indicted by a federal grand jury investigating underworld influence in boxing. The others are Joseph Sica and Louis Dragna, both Los Angeles hoodlums; Frank (Binky) Palermo of Philadelphia, and underworld figure Frankie Carbo.

5 AHL Players Are Suspended

PROVIDENCE, R. I. (AP)—Five American Hockey League players, two from Cleveland and three from Hershey, were suspended Friday for from two to six days by league president Richard Canning.

The action was taken after Canning received referee Dalton McArthur's report of fights between the players in a game at Hershey last Wednesday.

Bill Shvets and Aldo Guidolin of Cleveland were suspended for six games from Oct. 9 through Oct. 18 for inflicting deliberate injury by swinging their sticks.

Ron Hurst and Hee Lelande of Hershey were suspended for two games, Oct. 10 and 11, for deliberate attempts to injure. Larry Zeidel, also of Hershey, was given a two-game suspension, Oct. 10 and 11, for kicking.

Canning pointed out that the players took part in several fights during the game. All received match penalties, which called for automatic fines of $100 each.

Diller Hanover Wins Classic

LEXINGTON, Ky. (AP)—Diller Hanover won the $3,810 Kentucky Futurity, third link in trotting's triple crown, Friday, and promptly was retired to stud.

Canadian-owned Lady Belvedere was third. Diller Hanover, three-year-old bay colt owned by Hall Stables of Watertown, N.Y., had little trouble winning the first heat but was challenged strongly by stablemate Tie Silk in the second.

The Silk, ninth in the opening race, wound up second in the summaries. Lady Belvedere had second and 10th finishes.

The victory gave Diller Hanover two-thirds of the triple crown. He previously won the Hambletonian at Duquoin, Ill. John A. Hanover took the other third in winning the Yonkers Futurity at Yonkers Raceway.

Trainer Ralph Baldwin was at the reins as Diller Hanover raced the first heat in 2:01 1/5, and the second two-fifths of a second slower.

The victory earned $29,595 for Diller Hanover, bringing his total earnings to $231,228.

Tie Silk, owned by Two Gait Farm of Indianapolis, earned $12,107 for his second place finish.

Lady Belvedere, only filly in the race, earned $5,000.

Eagles, Aces Play Sunday

Georgetown Eagles and Tignish Aces will resume their Island Baseball playoffs this Sunday afternoon at Georgetown.

The teams battled sixteen innings last Sunday at Tignish and were all tied up when darkness halted the affair. They'll start in the 17th and following that two more games, if necessary, will be played.

Game time is fixed for 1:30.
