Processions.

The following is from the Witness, of Montreal:—

"If a number of persons think of having a parade in the streets they should consider whether the onlookers will like it as well as they, and if they see reason to believe that it will be offensive to a considerable number of onlookers they should simply not go on with it. No one has, morally speaking, a right to amuse himself, or even to promote his religious opinions, or to hold religious (they could hardly be called Christian) services, at the expense of unnecessarily annoying his neighbors. It does not alter the case to say his neighbor has no right to be annoyed. That may or may not be; it is certainly a point on which opinions differ, and of which the person causing the annoyance is not the best judge. It does not alter the case that his neighbors annoy him in like manner. Two blacks does not make a white. The doctrine that he has no right to be annoyed may be healthily applied here. It does not alter the case that his neighbor threatens him most unreasonably and unlawfully. If his course is a wrong one, any amount of overbearing threats on the part of his neighbor will not make it right. It is for reasons like these that we have held throughout to the view that Orange processions should not be held."

KING'S COUNTY.

DR. MCINTYRE has at last succeeded in obtaining a colleague. After ransacking the County—after even asking Mr. Roderick Munro to run in conjunction with him—he has induced Mr. Malcolm McFadyen to help him through. Mr. McFadyen is a business partner of the Hon. D. Davies; and it may be that he was induced the more readily on that account. The election of Mr. McFadyen, if it be possible, will, to a certain extent, break Mr. Davies' political fall. But we are convinced that Mr. McFadyen's election is not possible. The name of "Davies" is hateful to King's County; and Mr. McFadyen's connection with the Hon. D. Davies renders his return impossible, even though Mr. McFadyen were not opposed by two such popular and capable men as "McDonald and Muttart."

It is not probable that Mr. McFadyen will risk the contest. Unless pressed very hard by Mr. Davies, we feel sure that he will not act so imprudently. Mr. McFadyen is a pretty canny man, and he is not likely to throw away the candidate's entrance fee of fifty dollars—with the certainty of defeat on the day of polling.

McDonald and Muttart.

We are pleased to learn on the authority of a reliable man who lately traversed King's County that "McDonald and Muttart" are decidedly and unmistakably the favorites of the people. The low arts at which the canvassing officials of Dr. McIntyre resorted have naturally contributed to the success of their canvass.

A Contemptible Mode of Political Warfare.

The following is the heading and opening sentence of a Grit editorial:—

"SILLY SIR JOHN.—The speeches delivered by Sir John A. Macdonald, the Tory chieftan, afford the best evidence that he is in his dotage."

False Free Traders.

THIS is the way the Ottawa Free Press—the organ of the McKenzie Ministry—disposes of the Free Trade cry:—

It is a curious sort of double-barrelled policy which the Opposition politicians are following. While Sir John is crying out against Mr. McKenzie as a Free Trader in the West, one of his organs at St. John is accusing him of being a protectionist, and quotes the following proofs:—

Mr. McKenzie said:—Sir Francis Hincks stated last year in his election tour that he was in favor of Incidental Protection—I SAID I AM IN FAVOR IT."

At Hamilton Mr. McKenzie said:— "As long as duties are levied upon imported articles they should be LEVIED UPON ARTICLES PRODUCED BY OUR OWN PEOPLE."

This is also the policy of Incidental Protection.

Mr. Huntington has declared again and again, "I AM NOT A FREE TRADER."

Mr. Laflamme has declared that the Question of Protection and Free Trade could not divide the two parties in Canada. Mr. Jones said:—

"The American Government—always averse to the interests of their people and all that relates to the prosperity of their country, have recently passed a Treasury order increasing very considerably the drawbacks on white refined sugar, the result of which, I learn, has been that the great bulk of that quality now used in Canada comes from that quarter, and their manufacture entirely abandoned at Montreal, where formerly large quantities were made; hence it follows that if our trade is to be encouraged or sustained SUCH EXCEPTIONAL LEGISLATION AS I HAVE REFERRED TO MUST BE MET BY CORRESPONDING LEGISLATION ON OUR PART."

The fact is, the cry of "Free Trade" against the Government is a piece of arrant humbuggery. Free trade is an impossibility in this country. The policy of the Government is not free trade but a revenue tariff, more protective than Sir John put in force while he controlled public affairs, and so adjusted as to afford incidental protection to home industries without unduly pressing upon the consumer. Sir John's policy is: "Open your mouth and shut your eyes, and see what I will give you—when I get into office." To whatever extent he may have succeeded in deceiving a portion of the people by specious promises of restored prosperity, conditional always on his return to power, and the cry is now pretty effectually exploded, as the result of the elections will show.—Ottawa Free Press.

Supreme Court.

YESTERDAY application was made to the Supreme Court for a rule nisi to show cause why a writ of prohibition should not issue restraining the City Council from discharging Mitchell and Potter from custody of the Sheriff of Queen's County, to which they had been committed in a suit in which they had been convicted of selling spirituous liquors without license, upon the ground that the City Council had no authority to grant such discharge. The Court granted a rule returnable next day. This morning the Recorder appeared and stated that the City Council had rescinded their resolution discharging Mitchell and Potter. The matter was allowed to drop.

At four o'clock the criminals appeared before the Bar and received sentences as follows:—The Queen on the prosecution of William B. Allen vs. Thomas McClusky, submitted on an indictment for an assault, sentenced to four months imprisonment with hard labor. The Queen on the prosecution of J. S. Carvell and another vs. James Kelly and John Cavanagh, conviction for larceny, sentenced four months imprisonment with hard labor. The Queen on the prosecution of J. S. Carvell and another vs. Frederick Davy, convicted for receiving stolen goods, sentenced five months imprisonment with hard labor.

The Queen on the prosecution of William Swan vs. George Swan—pleaded guilty on an indictment for larceny, sentenced to four months imprisonment with hard labor.

The Queen on the prosecution of John R. Hooper vs. William Nickerson alias O'Brine—pleaded guilty on an indictment for larceny, sentenced to three months imprisonment with hard labor.

The jury in the case of Beales vs. Foster retired at four o'clock and have not returned up to the time of going to press.

The McCarthy Murder.

The trial of the Osbornes for the supposed murder of McCarthy will begin at Moncton on the 18th inst. Recently a man named Horn, said to be from Prince Edward Island, has intimated that he has some slight knowledge of the murder of McCarthy, or at least, that on the morning of the 13th of October, 1877, at about two o'clock, he saw Annie Parker, McCarthy and two other persons leave the Osborne House and proceed towards the Scoudac River bridge, that he spoke to McCarthy, etc., and dunned him for money. Horn has, however, since making this statement, encountered other horns, and has been in trouble. Little credence is therefore given to his story and he is looked upon as a fraud.—Truro Times.

Correspondence.

We do not hold ourselves responsible for the statements or opinions of our correspondents.

To the Editor of the Examiner:

SIR.—You will observe that the Patriot and its scribblers are busy at their old, contemptible employment of pelting dirt at everybody who ventures to oppose the Organized Grit Hypocrisy. The political meetings don't appear to please them. First, the Souris meeting was most grandiloquently commented upon by Grit scribes. Then the Georgetown meeting comes to their relief. The ex-M.P. and cashiered Railway official steps to the front and pronounces his benediction on the honest "Free Trader," and his malediction on the candidates of the Liberal-Conservatives for King's County, and any one else who dares to utter a word in their favor. Who is the self-conceited critic who acts the part of Special Correspondent to the Patriot? What right has he to misrepresent and falsify the few remarks that fell from the Hon. D. Gordon, who spoke not from a political, but from a purely business standpoint. Talk about squelching! The way in which the political wind bag collapsed under the keen and well directed thrusts of Mr. Gordon, was amusing in the extreme. "What a pity the reporter chanced to leave the room while Mr. McFadyen and Mr. Munroe were speaking, so that we have not got even a synopsis of their speeches!" What a great loss this will prove to the world! These political solons will surely repeat, in the hearing of somebody who will carefully take down each nicely rounded period, the speeches they delivered at Georgetown. As philanthropists and world renowned political economists, they will surely give the world the benefit of their opinions. Let me tell this egotistical, sneaking hypocrite (I say personal abuse and falsehood is to be the tactics in the present political campaign, there is more than one way of meeting lies and slanders, and this they may find to their cost before the election is over. In the meantime, let the Special Correspondent leave his letters alone, or he may have a page of his history written that will not be very pleasing either to his eye or ear.

Yours truly,
CARDIGAN.

Personal.

Postmaster General Huntington will return to Ottawa next week.

Mr. Gladstone, a London paper says, is no longer invited to state dinners.

Among the royal visitors in England is King George of Bonny, in Africa.

Mme. McMahon is described as short and stout, of a presence not impressive.

Queen Victoria has ordered all the papers in the Mackonochie case to be sent to her.

"A cock-eyed pelican of perdition" is what a California editor calls the editor of a contemporary.

A French writer, presumably married, defines trowsers to be things which the men put on and the women wear.

On the day before Queen Mercedes died 11,000 inquiries as to her health were made at the palace, by letter or telegram or in person.

The Right Rev. M. G. Racine, the new bishop of Chicoutimi, will be consecrated on Sunday, August 4, at the Basilica, Quebec.

Prince Bismarck is said to be proud of his well stocked cellar and the products of his kitchen, to which he devotes much care. He gives very delightful dinners.

Louis Wihl, the German poet, was the author of this pretty and profound remark: "Music is an art inferior to poetry; it can say 'I love,' but it cannot say 'I love you.'"

King Alfonso has created Gen. Martinez Campos, Captain-General of Cuba, Knight of the Golden Fleece, and elevated Gen. Jovellar to the rank of Captain-General of the army.

Lord Charles Beresford, M.P., brother of the Marquis of Waterford, was lately married to Miss Mina Gardiner. The Prince of Wales and many other distinguished people graced the occasion.

Among the stories regarding the devotion of King Alfonso and the Princess Mercedes to each other before their marriage is one to the effect that a telephone connected the King's room at Madrid with that of the Princess at Aranjuez.

Mgr. Capel's college at Kensington has collapsed, it being impossible and undesirable to keep up so expensive an institution for the benefit of but thirty pupils. The buildings will probably be sold and the college re-established at Kingston-upon-Thames.

Baker Pasha is stated to have tendered his resignation as General of Division in the Turkish army, on the ground that the Turkish officers who fought side by side with him in the battle of Lachkisan have, despite his recommendation, not yet been promoted to higher ranks.

The Shah of Persia has received from his son, the heir to the throne, Prince Veliahde, a telegram giving an excellent account of the affairs of his kingdom. A contract has just been signed for the immediate construction of a railway—the first in the country—between Hinzelle, one of the chief ports of the Caspian Sea, and Teheran.

Father Hyacinthe delivered his concluding lecture in Paris on Sunday afternoon, June 23. He advocated a reform of Catholicism, based on the abolition of Papal supremacy, popular election of priests, vernacular liturgies, and liberty of marriage for priests. His auditors have been chiefly Protestants, but the attendance has been throughout exceedingly limited.

After the death of King Theodore, Great Britain raised Prince Kassa to the Abyssinian throne, with the style of King John. A Choa letter of May 17 says that King John, though the most powerful and capable of African potentates, has recognized the fact that his title is not regular, and abdicating has given up the crown to King Menelek II, who claims to trace his descent from King Solomon and the Queen of Sheba.

THE Presbyterian Tea Party at Cardigan Bridge was an exceedingly enjoyable affair; it was patronized by people from all parts of the County, and by all denominations. All the arrangements were perfect, no pains being spared to cater to the appetites and amusement of the large concourse of people assembled on the occasion. The tea-tables were garnished tastefully and substantially with beautifully decorated cakes, which reflected great taste and credit on the donors. From the refreshment booths were dispensed all the delicacies of the season in great variety and abundance, and all presided over by affable, obliging and painstaking attendants. The sea, the field, the larder and dairy were put under contribution to make this reunion pleasant and successful. Old and young seemed to enjoy themselves immensely. Near the close of the day's recreation a great number of beautiful cakes were offered for sale by auction and realized fair prices. The competition was not so sharp as could be wished, but the pleasant sallies of humor of the very efficient auctioneer, James Aitken, Esq., of Montague, dispelled the dullness and all was disposed of. Whatever be the amount realized by the sale of the cakes would be rather from their great number than from the prices paid for them, as they went far too low.—Advertiser.

An Astonishing Fact.

A large proportion of the American people are to-day dying from the effects of Dyspepsia or disordered liver. The result of these diseases upon the masses of intelligent and valuable people is most alarming, making life actually a burden instead of a pleasant existence of enjoyment and usefulness as it ought to be. There is no good reason for this, if you will only throw aside prejudice and skepticism, take the advice of druggists and your friends, and try one bottle of Green's August Flower. Your speedy relief is certain. Millions of bottles of this medicine have been given away to try its virtues, with satisfactory results in every case. You can buy a sample bottle for 19 cents to try. Three doses will relieve the worst case. Positively sold by all druggists on the Western Continent.

DENTAL.

DR. STRICKLAND begs to inform the itinerant Ten Dollar Dentists, now sojourning in the Island, that he will, for a moderate fee, instruct them in an important Branch of Dentistry, of which they are utterly ignorant, viz: Carving and Making Artificial Teeth. It will be necessary to apply immediately, as my time is very much occupied, owing to the large increase in my business, consequent upon malpractice by inexperienced operators.
