

THE DAILY EXAMINER.

SEPTEMBER 17, 1894.

A NOTABLE ANNIVERSARY.

CANADA has made such immense strides in the interval that we can hardly credit the fact that only sixteen years have elapsed since the Waterloo of the Grits. Just sixteen years ago, on the 17th day of September, 1878, the battle was fought which resulted in the National Policy, the Canadian Pacific Railway, the improvement of our canal system, the opening of the great Northwest Territories to settlement, the opening of a line of steam communication with Australia and the East, the building up of Winnipeg, Calgary, Vancouver and many other towns, the immense development of Montreal, Toronto, Ottawa, Hamilton, Moncton, etc., the construction of permanent public works all over the country, the end of the Grit era of depression and despair and fly-by-the-wheel statesmen, and the beginning of a prolonged era of national prosperity.

This sixteenth anniversary finds the victorious Liberal-Conservative Party still strong in the favor and affection of the people. At the head of this party there stands a statesman who has won credit at Washington, Paris and London, as well as at Ottawa; and supporting his respected leader are such political veterans as Bowell and Costigan, such able young statesmen as Foster and Tupper, together with many powerful debaters in the Senate and in the House of Commons, included in the large "Government majority."

JERUSALEM CURIOSITIES.

All those who are interested in Bible history and instructing the young at the Sunday schools should not miss the opportunity of calling at the Y. M. C. A. building to see the very interesting collection of Jerusalem curiosities which is exhibited by Mr. J. Knabler, of Jerusalem. These curiosities were brought by him from the Holy City for the purpose of explaining the customs, habits and dress of the people of Palestine. He has wood-carved or agricultural and domestic implements used by the natives and a large number of photographs of persons and places in the Holy Land and of the railway stations between Jerusalem and Joppa. Besides these, he has many objects of interest, illustrative of the Bible, such as a scroll of the Book of Esther, written on parchment in Hebrew, an ancient terracotta and oil lamp, like those used by the ten virgins, model of a hand-mill, burnt bones from the Passover lamb offered by the Samaritans on Mount Gerizim, unbleached linen of the Passover, sacramental bread used in the Armenian Church at Jerusalem, organ of a Bethlehem shepherd, husks, like those of the prodigal son, bitumen and lava from the Dead Sea, water from the River Jordan, pieces of pottery from the Potter's Field, a sling like that used by David, model of the chapel built over the Holy Sepulchre, root of the mandrake representing human figures, an inkstand, a hand horn, a phylactery, anklets, armlets, amulets, bracelets, charms, the ten pieces of silver like those mentioned in the Gospels, a barley loaf, a bill of divorce in Hebrew, a copy of the Koran in Arabic, an Arabic hymn-book and newspaper, the purse, the scrip, the sandals, different kinds of shoes and head-dresses and more than a dozen oriental costumes worn by a Bethlehemite bride and groom, Bekothin, Damascus, Jerusalem and Nazareth men and women, a Mohammedan dervish, a Jewish rabbi and a Greek priest and monk.

There is also a large number of articles of choice wood and mother-of-pearl, carved at Jerusalem and Bethlehem, silver crosses, altar of roses, exquisite table-cloths and cushions woven at Damascus and Mount Lebanon and many other beautiful articles for sale.

We would therefore advise all who are interested in the study of the bible and in the manners and customs of the people of the Holy Land not to miss the opportunity of seeing such an interesting, instructive and genuine collection while Mr. Knabler is with us in this city. He will take all pains to explain everything and give valuable information respecting the Holy City and his own country. Doors will be open on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday only.

THE CATHEDRAL BAZAAR.

Be sure and remember that during the days of the Exhibition there will be hot dinners served at any and all hours in the Rink. Also remember that the price of admission and dinner combined is only 25 cents.

A Generous Politician.—The well-known and popular member for Prince County, the Hon. John Yeo, has sent the ladies of the Bazaar Committee $20 in cash. Splendid!

Have a look in Beldin Bro's window and see the silver given by B. Rogers, Esq. To see is to admire and appreciate. Ice Cream.—Carter's make of ice cream cannot be excelled. Knowing this, Mr. W. F. Carter has given the ladies' committee a generous donation of ice cream for the Bazaar. Be sure and not miss it. Thanks, Mr. Carter. Don't forget the Art Gallery at the Bazaar.

NEW CATHEDRAL IN LONDON.—Roman Catholics in London will soon have a cathedral of an architecture unique in that city. It will be a basilica, built on the model of Constantine's original church of St. Peter at Rome, 339 feet long by 170 wide and 100 high, and will hold 10,000 people. Attached to it is to be a monastery for thirty monks and forty-five lay brethren, to which the Benedictines, who for centuries served Westminster Abbey, are to be transferred. The land was bought by Cardinal Manning nearly thirty years ago for £55,000, and is now worth £300,000. The buildings will cost £250,000, toward which one contributor has already given £1,000.

—Mr. J. L. Stewart, editor of the Newcastle World, is the owner of a fast yacht, the winner in recent races.

A HAYTIAN REVOLT.

It was Speedily Crushed With Awful Slaughter. The New York Herald's correspondent in Kingston, Jamaica, writing under date of September 4, gives the following details of the recent uprising and attempt to assassinate President Hipolyte's daughter: The long threatened attempt to overthrow the Government of President Hipolyte has at last taken place, and although the uprising has been quelled at the sacrifice of many lives, it is evident from the news which reached here today by the steamer Alvena, from Port au Prince, that the spirit of revolution is at large in the black republic. While the Alvena was lying in the harbor of Port au Prince last Saturday a general uprising of the revolutionary element occurred in the capital. The streets were filled with armed mobs, one of which collected behind the palace to the north of the city, while the main body congregated in the market square facing the harbor. It was the evident intention of the rebels who beleaguered the palace, to shoot the President as soon as he should appear. Hipolyte, was, however, confined to his room, and surrounded as he was with guards would probably have been treated with contempt had not several rifle shots been fired at his daughter as she was proceeding along a balcony leading from one window of the palace to another. One bullet whistled close by her head, and another passed through her skirts. On hearing of the attempt on his daughter's life, the President insisted on leaving his bed, and ordered his horse to be brought, vowing that he would wreak summary vengeance on the rebels. Before he could mount, however, his strength failed him, and he was carried back to his chamber by two slaves. The situation was critical, and had the rebels known of the condition of the President they would probably have been emboldened to make an assault on the palace. The guards, however, were on hand and instantly opened such a furious fire on the mob that they turned and fled in the utmost disorder, throwing away their arms as they ran. The guards, headed by officers of Hipolyte's staff, immediately set on foot a search in killing many of the mob and capturing several ringleaders. In the market place the main body of the revolutionists stood firm and greeted the soldiers with repeated volleys from rifles and pistols, killing one captain of the President's guards and wounding several privates. The guards returned the fire, and desultory firing continued till evening, when victory rested with the forces of the Government. Business was totally suspended during the day, and when the streets had been cleared of the rebels, guards were stationed at all the corners with orders to shoot down anyone who fired at random at the guards.

When the Alvena left it was said that the revolution was fast spreading over the whole island.

CIVIC AFFAIRS.—On Saturday the City Clerk received a telegram from Mayor Dawson, declining to call the special meeting to consider the matter of an election, etc., as referred to in the Examination of that date, claiming that he (the Mayor) had the power to call an election vested in himself, and he did not think it necessary to hold a special meeting for that purpose.

This forenoon the clerk received another telegram from Mayor Dawson, authorizing him to call an election to fill the vacancy in ward two, caused by the lamented death of Councillor Robertson, and fixing October 3rd, as the date of the election.

As already announced, notices are out for a special meeting of the Council to be held on Tuesday at 10 a. m.

CAIRO, Sept. 14.—The finding of the court in the case of the persons charged with purchasing slave girls was published today. It shows that Wafey Pasha, a retired general of the Egyptian army, was convicted, as reported, but was acquitted. Abdel Hamid was convicted and sentenced to six months imprisonment. In the case of the dealers and brokers in slave girls, who were tried by the same court, there were convictions in each case, the prisoners being sentenced to 18 months imprisonment at hard labor. The scharif has signed his approval of the court's decision, the army and another one has not confirmed the finding of the court in the case of those acquitted.

WINNIPEG, Man., Sept. 14.—There is a growing impression here that while Premier Greenway and government will refuse the petition of the Roman Catholics for the re-establishment of separate schools they will offer as a compromise a system of purely national schools without any form of religious exercise whatever. Separating schools from no doubt is acceptable to the Catholics, but there is a large section of the Protestants who bitterly oppose them, calling them Godless schools. Greenway's answer is expected early next week.

Terence O'Brien, Governor of Newfoundland, says that the majority of the people of Newfoundland, though loyal to the empire, would, if compelled to choose, prefer union with the United States to union with Canada.
