History Society

The History Society is having a very successful year. To date, we have showed movies, had a Christmas party and many fun-filled meetings. We would like to thank those of you who turned out to our movies. Thank you for coming. The History Society is now selling raffle tickets. First prize is a crested sweatshirt donated by the UPEI Bookstore. Second prize, two deluxe pizzas from Domino's, and third prize are 5 movie tickets donated by Plaza Video. Tickets are one dollar each and the draw will take place on March 17th. If you are interested in buying a ticket, be sure to contact someone in the History Society. They will be able to hook you up with the tickets. Congratulations go out to Father Bolger, who recently received the Order of Canada. To those of your who would still like to join the Society, we meet on Fridays at 1:30. All are welcome to attend.

Your historical questions for this week are:

1. Who was the longest reigning monarch of England?
2. How long was the American Civil War?
3. Who became the ruler of Rome following the death of Julius Caesar?
4. When was the CPR finally completed?

I know that I forgot the answers from last week. Sorry!!

Join Hostelling International and win a 22-day trip for 2!

When you purchase a Hostelling International membership before May 31st, you can enter to win two spots on a 22-day "Roman Roads" tour with Roadrunner. The contest prize also includes return airfare to London, England plus $100 of long distance telephone time on the new Globafon prepaid calling account -- an added feature of every new membership in 1995.

Roadrunner Hostelling Treks are packaged tours without the "package feel". They offer the security of a guide; convenient minivan transportation, flexibility in choosing activities and the informality of small groups of 12-18. Their 1995/96 brochure includes tours in Britain, Europe, Japan, South Africa, Canada and the United States. There is no age limit on Roadrunner treks, but most passengers are between 18 and 35. The aim is to create a young, "go-for-it" attitude among the group.

The Roman Roads tour starts in London, England and visits major sights in 14 countries throughout Europe. Accommodation is mainly in Hostelling International hostels and includes a castle in the Alps and a Florentine villa, as well as modern city centre facilities. The program includes city tours in London, Paris, Montreaux, Grenoble, Nice, Florence, Rome, Venice, Innsbruck, Budapest, Vienna, Prague, Munich, and Amsterdam; Rhine cruise through the Lorelei Valley; and visits to St. Peter's Basilica in Rome, the Leaning Tower of Pisa, and a Burgundian vineyard.

The tours are available to all members of Hostelling International. One-year membership is just $25 plus GST. The winner will be advised June 30, 1995. Membership and contest entry forms are available at any Hostelling International Canada office or Travel CUTS or call toll free 1-800-663-5777.

Personals:

Trent...

I'm pining away for you as I write, without your column I cannot survive the trials and tribulations of daily life. Please return to me, my beloved.

Your B-Movie Babe

Jules:

Why don't you come to the pit anymore? I promise I will never substitute your cigarettes with marijuana anymore, and anyway... I paid your bail!

Dan.

Roses are red

Violets are purple

I love you so much,

You make me burble.

E:

Remember our date. 4 years and counting. Be there.

Jester,

I had a dream last night. It involved ice cream, a vacuum cleaner, and several spatulas. Lets give it a try, shall we?

Puddin'

Brown Eyed Girl

I saw you in the Nursing computer lounge, in a beat up baseball cap writing a paper. I was in the row across from you. I'd really like to get to know you. If you are interested, write me back here next week.

An admirer

I saw you when I stumbled into the ladies washroom last week, and I admire your composure... among your other attributes. I know you were interested too, because I saw you watching me too. Lets meet at noon on Sunday, same place, and see what happens.

Thumper

When you read this, it will finally be time to have fun. You know why. What would you like to do first?

Kitten

LM

Judging from the state of the parking lots around here, Creative Parking 101 will be a requirement for graduation.

SKP

To the jerk who can't figure out the signs on the bathrooms in Main.

I didn't appreciate your staring, and if you think I was impressed, you are dead wrong. Try your pick-up lines somewhere else.

EM

To K.F.

I think that after we are all moved in to our new place, and we are finished of all our over-time work, we should take a few days off. We could buy ourselves some smoke and not get out of bed at all. Doesn't that sound appealing?

G.K.
