The bidding:
East South West North
Stakgold Belladonna Hornum Avarelli
1 Pass 2 Pass
Pass 3 Pass 3 Pass
Pass 3 Pass 4 Pass

Opening lead—five of hearts.
Belladonna and Avarelli, the Roman pair, played an adventurous game which was not only bold in concept but decidedly accurate, considering the many artificialities employed in their system of bidding. Unlike their American counterparts, who had occasional partnership misunderstandings, the Romans gave a splendid exhibition of how smoothly a well-developed partnership can function.
Their confidence in each other, their rapport in all kinds of bidding situations and the ease with which they solved them, were a revelation to the American players who saw them perform. Not that they didn't make errors—they did—but the mistakes were practically always individual and not partnership errors.

YORK NOTES

Mrs. Elmer Brown, York, spent Saturday in Charlottetown.
Mr. and Mrs. Donald Crockett, York, were visitors to Hunter River on Sunday, they were the guests of Mrs. Annie Moore.
Mr. and Mrs. Ernest MacDonald and two children, Deborah and Shirley paid a short visit to Mrs. Jack Caswell who is a patient in the P.E.I. Hospital, on Sunday afternoon.
Mr. and Mrs. George White-way, York, had as their guests over the Easter weekend, their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. E.S. Whiteway of New Brunswick.
The many friends of Mr. De-war Swan are sorry to hear he is a patient in the Prince Edward Island Hospital.
Mr. and Mrs. Leslie and son David, York, spent Sunday in Covehead Road, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Seymour Birt.
Winners of last week's card game were: Ladies, Mrs. Frank Watt and Gentlemen, Mr. Frank Vessey both of York.
Miss Barbara Cooper, Charlottetown, was the guest of her parents on Easter Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Westley Cooper, York.
The many friends of Mr. Ira Lewis are sorry to hear he is confined to his home with the flu, all wish him an early recovery.
Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cooper, Charlottetown, were recent visitors to York, guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Westley Cooper.
Mr. and Mrs. Ruben Watts, York, spent their Easter holidays in Boston, U.S.A., with friends and relatives.
Mrs. Annie Cooper and granddaughter, Caroline, of Charlottetown, spent their Easter holiday in York, the guest of her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Westley Cooper.
Mrs. Vernon Hughes, Harrington, spent her Easter holidays in York, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Vessey.
The many friends of Mr. Ar-

An example of complete faith in partner may be found in Belladonna's three spade bid in the sequence shown. After Avarelli had doubled two hearts for take-out and Belladonna had responded three clubs, Avarelli requested his partner to name another suit, if he had one, by making a heart cuebid.
Belladonna obliged by bidding three spades on J-7—a rather dramatic vote of confidence—and the spade game was reached. Stakgold won the heart lead and returned the king. After taking the ace and ruffing a heart in his hand, Belladonna drew trumps, cashed five clubs, and made twelve tricks for a 600-point score.
At the other table the American pair slipped badly when the bidding went:

East South West North
Forrest Fishbein Stalocco Hazen
1 Pass Pass Pass
Pass Pass Pass

Whether Hazen was at fault in jumping to two spades, instead of doubling to show his fine hand, or whether Fishbein should have responded to the strength-showing skip bid, is left to the tender mercies of the reader.
The fact remains that the failure to reach game, regardless of whether it was an individual or partnership failing, cost the American team 6 IMP's.
It does not strike us that system had much to do with the bad result. The man, not the machine, broke down.
