Reception At Montague For Candidate For P.C. Leadership

A reception was held at the hill Side Inn, Montague Wednesday night, for those wishing to meet Mr. E. Davie Fulton, M.P., candidate for the leadership of the Progressive Conservative Party in the next Federal Election. A large number of people, including many ladies, from Montague and other sections of Southern Kings were in attendance. Mr. Fulton's party included Lt. Col. John A. MacDonald, candidate for the Federal seat in Kings County, Wing Commander Angus MacLean, M.P. Queens County, and Mr. Heath MacQuarrie, candidate for Queens County. Mr. Cyrus Shaw introduced Mr. Fulton to those present, and then addressed the group briefly. He stressed the feeling of restlessness he noticed as he travelled across the country, and thought this feeling stemmed from the policies of the present government. He felt the people were looking for a government that would replace the arrogance and incompetence which is now evident, with deeds. Mr. Fulton stressed that the Conservatives were the only party that could supply this leadership. In reference to the coming Convention, he stated that although it's immediate purpose was the selection of a National Leader for the Progressive Conservative Party, a second purpose of the Convention was just as important: this is to decide on a policy which the party will pursue in conducting the business of the country if they are elected. In speaking of P.E.I. he commended the conservative organization.
