LARGE attendance at market yesterday.

NEW HAY.—New Hay at Ma ket yesterday.

ALL Fishing gear at greatly reduced prices to clear at Dodd's Medical Hall.

GREEN PEAS.—Quite a large quantity of green peas were to be had at the market yesterday.

THE Eastern Assurance company of Canada has declared a half-yearly dividend of 3 per cent.

COMPLAINT—A citizen would like to know why the electric light on Upper Great George Street has not been lit the last two or three nights. This should be attended to.

WILLIE HYDE, the boy that was kicked while driving some horses out of a field last Monday, is a little easier, although still very low. His father is expected home to-night.

THE proposed excursion to Charlottetown of the Moncton Corn t Band has been abandoned, owing to unforeseen difficulties. It has not yet been settled where the Band will hold its excursion to.—Moncton Transcript.

ALTERATION and extension sale.—Messrs James Paton & Co., have decided to offer every suit, pants and vests, in fact every ready-made article in stock at greatly reduced figures. Special inducements to cash buyers.

FISTIC ENCOUNTER.—In the market house yesterday, two men began disputing over some matter, and one losing his temper, called the other a liar. No sooner had he uttered the wo d than he received a heavy blow on the face; they then closed and exchanged a few blows and it was over.

OUR old friend Mr. John Colwill, whose death is recorded in the proper column to-day, was apparently in his usual health and took part at the Railway Gospel Meeting last Sunday. He was asked to lead the meeting on the next Sunday (to-morrow) and selected as his l sson for that occasion the first Psalm.

GREAT inducements to purchasers of boys, youths and men's ready-made clothing. We wi'l offer this month and until we have cleared out every suit at greatly reduced prices. As it is impossible to enumerate the lot, call and see for yourselves. —Jas. Paton & Co.

WE are gratified to be able to state that Mrs. Longley, who has been dangerously ill for a week with diphtheria, is now very much better and in a fair way of recovery. The attorney-general is still in quarantine, but he expects to get permissi n from the authorities to leave the house by Monday next.—Halifax Chronicle.

ARRIVAL.—The steam yacht Nooya arrived here on Thursday evening from a pleasure trip up the Gulf. She ran in here for some repairs to her boiler. Through the kindness of the captain we were shown through her, and, without doubt, she is one of the nicest yachts we have seen here. She is likely to remain three or four days.

REVOLUTION IN HAY CARRYING.—This is what is meant by The Porter Adjustible and Reversible Carrier for which Messrs. A. Horne & Co, are the agents. It is undoubtedly the best machine for the movement of hay from one end of the barn to another, which has yet been invented, and no farmer who can afford the price—$12, can afford to continue on in the old way.

REV. MR. DIENSTADT conducted the religious meeting in the Methodist vestry last evening. Rev. Mr. Read, who has reached town, was also present and made the acquaintance of many of his new congregation. Mr. Dienstadt is already well known to the people of Moncton and Mr. Read comes to make their acquaintance under very favorable circumstances.—Moncton Times.

ONE of the pleasantest excursions imaginable is that by rail to Point du Chene, thence by steamer to Summerside or Charlottetown. The new steamer, now running on the route to P. E. Island, is a very fine boat, containing all the comforts and many of the luxuries of modern travel at sea. The Intercolonial, in common with the boats and Island railway, have prepared a very low Saturday excursion rate for this trip.—Moncton Times.

KICKING.—Last evening while a countryman was driving home in a drunken condition and abusing his horse, the animal decided to give those around an exhibition of his kicking ability, as well as scare his owner. He kicked in such a professional manner that he thoroughly frightened the master and gave great amusement to the onlookers. At this stage of the proceedings the horse's former master came along and knowing how to prescribe for his treatment, unhitched him from the truck waggon, and hitched him to his own buggy and then commenced the second act which was a little more exciting than the first. After administering a dose of long-tail oats he started for home amid the shouting and cheering of over a hundred small boys.

PROF. MCLEOD, of the Prince of Wales College, has very kindly placed on our table a box of mammoth strawberries of the Bubach and Crawford varieties, that would simply "astonish the natives." Two of the luscious beauties weighed 2⅜ ounces, and sixteen filled a quart measurement. The Crawford strawberry is the product of probably the greatest strawberry grower on the continent—Mr. Crawford, of Ohio—who presented Prof. McLeod with half a dozen plants. Under the Professor's treatment this variety has shown itself to be remarkably adapted to this country. It is not likely that any one in the Province could produce a box of finer or larger berries than those laid on our table. Prof. McLeod has made a specialty of strawberry culture in recent years, and his success should lead others to do likewise. If the government could only make it worth the Professor's while to impart some of his knowledge on fruit culture to his boys at the college, it might stimulate a new and general industry that would bring thousands of dollars to the Province.

How Diphtheria is Spread.

QUEBEC July 16.—It has been discovered that a prolific source of the spread of diphtheria in this city is the method of burying the dead. It is alleged that in case of infants the caskets are placed in ordinary cabs and thus taken to the cemetery to save the expense of hearse. The cabs thus used are afterwards employed as public vehicles without any attmpt to fumigate them.

Sunday Services

Movements of the Fish.

July 16.—The fisheries are reported dull in all branches on the shores of Anticosti. Codfish are reported very plentiful off English Bay but will not take hooks. The cod and herring fisheries are reported poor on the south coast of Quebec, excepting at Grand River where the cod is good and the herring fair. At Point Escuminac the cod and salmon fisheries are fair and mackerel are taking hooks quite freely. The mackerel fishery is reported good at Miminegash, P. E. I., some boats with four men each having as many as 4,000 per boat; and fair catches by hooks and nets are being made all along the coast round to Alberton. In Cape Breton the fisheries are exceedingly dull owing to unfavorable weather Squid are beginning to appear on the north coast in the vicinity of Ingonish. Fishing of all kinds also very poor in Nova Scotia. Fair catches of cod and herring reported at Lockeport, N. S., but no other reports worthy of mention.

A Curious Coincidence.

A young medical student of Quebec was drowned recently at Bic. A painful coincidence, brought to the recollection of the missing young man's family, is that his father was drowned in the same place under similar circumstances when he was only 27 years of age, the same age as his son, and the fatal accident took place on the same day, date and month, viz., the 6th of July.

Teachers Convention.

SEVENTEEN THOUSAND DELEGATES IN ATTENDANCE AT TORONTO.

TORONTO, July 16.—Seventeen thousand persons were present at the teachers' convention last night. Honorable W. T. Harris, the commissioner of education for the United States, and the minister of education for Ontario spoke on their systems of education in the rink, which was crowded. This morning resolutions leading to representative action from all English sovereign states on spelling reform were unanimously passed. The theatre of the normal school was crowded to overflowing with the first meeting of Canadian teachers from British Columbia to Nova Scotia At 1,30 p.m., Dr. Allison spoke for the Atlantic provinces. The attendance of Canadian teachers is more than double the estimate before the meeting was called. To-morrow Canadians meet to discuss a dominion convention. The weather is delightful.

Stereopticon Entertainment.

The Summerside Journal says:—"Owing to the storm last Tuesday evening, only a small audience witnessed the stereoptican entertainment given in the Market Hall by Mr. A. W. Struthers, of Toronto. Those present, however, enjoyed a really delightful evening. The views thrown upon the screen by powerful stereopticons, using oxy-ether caliaum light, were as near perfection as such illustrations can be brought. The entertainment began with a collection of landscapes, battles, towers, illustrations of "Ten Nights in a Bar Room," and "From Greenland's Icy Mountains." The second part was "The Life of Christ," illustrated by copies of paintings found in the art galleries and cathedrals of Europe, and in the Vatican. They were simply magnificent. We trust that Mr. Struthers may be prevailed upon to repeat the entertainment here at no distant day, when we feel sure that Market Hall would be crowded to the door.

Mr. Struthers will be in the Lyceum on Monday next, afternoon and evening. For fulla particular see advertisemen in our columns.

NEWS BY TELEGRAPH.

Another Sensation

Before the Privileges Committee.

OTTAWA, July 17.—The evidence given to-day by P. Valin, ex-M. P., and a member of the Quebec Harbor Commission, caused a sensation. He said that Sir Hector Langevin had told him to consult with McGreevy on all questions, and McGreevy had said that he was Sir Hector's confidential friend. He also said that he signed the document stating that the charges against the Harbor Commission were untrue, because Langevin asked him to do so. He stated that he had personally received money from Larkin, Connolly & Co. and McGreevy, and when he went to the latter for more the latter said to him, "Caron is always after me; I have not enough to satisfy him; we have Sir Hector at Three Rivers." Witness also asked Sir Hector for money, and was told: "I have seen McGreevy this morning; go and see him; he is in charge of the distribution committee." Witness further said that his salary on the commission was a thousand dollars, but he had contributed about fifteen hundred for elections.
