Track Meet Goes Today At S'side

SUMMERSIDE — The track and field program at the Summerside Lobster Carnival today will feature more than 100 of the top Maritime athletes, and will be highlighted by the attendance of Hal Brown, track and field coach at the University of Toronto, who was Canadian coach at the 1960 Olympic Games in Rome. He will be referee -in -chief at the sports program today where he has just conducted a two-day track and field clinic.

The sports day program will commence this morning at 10 o'clock at Queen Elizabeth Park with most major Maritime centres represented, and will continue throughout the greater part of the afternoon.

Among the prominently known athletes participating in the program today will be Summerside's own Alfred Groom, Canadian pole vaulting champion for the past two years, who will be attempting to better his competitive record of 13 feet 9¼ inches.

Bob Simmons of Charlottetown who threw the discus 179 feet, 5 inches last Saturday at the Antigonish Highland Games to break the discus record, will be in competition today.

Also entered in the events is Mike Dagg of Summerside, who established new records this year in the P.E.I. interscholastic competitions for the 220 and 440 yard dashes.

Long distance runner Bill Best of Minto, N.B., who established a Lobster Carnival track and field record last year for the three-mile run will be defending his title again this year, and will be going against some notable competitors including George Gallant of Shediac.

Strongest contender for the annual Lobster Carnival track and field team trophy this year appears to be a team of about 15 athletes from Antigonish, who will be in close competition with other teams from Amherst, Truro, New Waterford, Charlottetown, and Summerside.

In addition to the communities with "teams" entered in the meet, a great many other Maritimes centers are represented by independent athletes who are not associated with teams.

In addition to the referee-in-chief, Hal Brown, other officials will include the director of the Summerside Lobster Carnival track and field meet, Charles Ballem: director of physical education for P.E.I., David Boswell; while other officials will include F-O Noel Houle, head track judge; Charles Linkletter and Dee LeFurgey, head field judges; Rev. Mark Ferguson, Rev. Donald MacKay, George MacKay and James Hogan.

SUBMARINE PREGNANT?

SUMMERSIDE — Visitors to Summerside's Lobster Carnival yesterday had the rare opportunity to tour HMS "Astute", the British submarine in port this week at Summerside marine wharf.

During the visiting hours yesterday afternoon, an estimated crowd of 700 persons passed through the hatches and inspected the sub from stem to stern.

For practically everyone that toured the ship it was a first experience, and many had never before seen a submarine.

The large "sonar bubble" on the bow of the ship drew an interesting comment from one little fellow yesterday, as he said, "Look mommy, it's going to have a baby".

ROAD IMPROVEMENTS

The British ministry of transport estimates $600,000,000 will be spent on improving London's roads in the next 20 years.

MISS P.E.I., MOTHERS AND WINNING INFANTS

Most Beautiful Baby Title Is Won By St. Eleanors Boy

SUMMERSIDE — After 100 cute little toddlers has passed before the panel of three female judges, blond, blue-eyed James MacNeill, 20-month-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Tanton MacNeill, St. Eleanors was adjudged the most beautiful baby in the Lobster Carnival baby contest sponsored by the Summerside Lions Club.

Coun. Herbert B. Schurman, charter president of the Lions Club was master of ceremonies.

Cathy Campbell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ira Campbell, Summerside got the judges' nod for second place and Gordon Campbell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Campbell, Freetown captured third spot.

The century of beautiful babies was paraded around the stage by their mothers or other guardian, clad in play, sun or bathing suits, in groups of 10 during the preliminary judging and two semi-finalists were chosen from each group.

The judges were Mrs. Marjorie Mitchell, wife of Wing Cmdr. S.S. Mitchell, RCAF Station Summerside; Councillor (Mrs.) Winfred Perry and Mrs. J. Ernest Morrison, wife of Summerside's mayor.

Judging was based on beauty alone and there was an abundance of it for the large group of spectators, mainly women, to see, as the youngsters, up to two years of age paraded around in their brief costumes.

Prizes were presented by Miss P.E.I. of 1961, Miss Cheryl Oxon, while chairman of the event for the Lions Club, Stuart Drummond presented each judge with a small gift in appreciation of their major task of selecting a winner from the many beautiful contestants.

Co-chairman was Harry Barlow, who chaired this event last year and whose experience helped greatly in the smooth conduct of the contest, which saw 30 more babies entered than in 1961.

Carnival Cattle Judged During 'Farmers' Day'

SUMMERSIDE BUREAU OF THE GUARDIAN

Well yesterday was "Farmers' Day" at the Summerside Lobster Carnival and the farm folk had more than their share of luck (in both forms, that is).

Sunshine throughout most of the day was at a rare premium, and by late afternoon, a steady downpour temporarily halted show-ring judging of cattle. The rain, first since the carnival began three days ago did not, however, dampen enthusiasm of exhibitors and spectators, as the animals were paraded into the showring before judges.

The rain cancelled the cattle parade of champions that was to have been held prior to the horse races last night. The races were also cancelled due to the wet condition of the track.

Livestock Exhibition Secretary Graeme Linkletter stated that the show was "very smoothly run, with more interest displayed than last year". Most interest was shown in the 4-H showmanship competition. The show in general was termed "better than last year", with not quite all of the 300 entries being exhibited.

The judges had high praise for all cattle breeders and their exhibits, which they said were in "top condition".

Following is a list of champions in the classes judged:

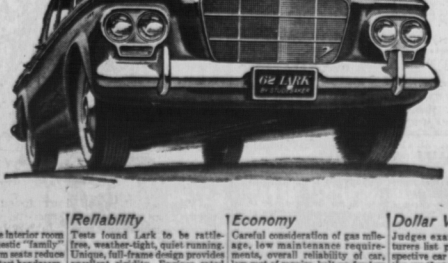
new '62 LARK

"Car of the Year" Award Winner

The 1962 Lark was selected winner of the "Car of the Year Award" over all domestic cars. Canada Track and Traffic, the nation's leading automotive journal, thoroughly tested every make of car. Design, quality, comfort, room, handling, economy, reliability, craftsmanship—every aspect in the design, manufacture and performance of an automobile was carefully checked. The 1962 Studebaker Lark was found to be the best automobile buy of all domestic cars.



Design
Unanimously lauded by judges as handsome, functional and free from false ornamentation that forces obsolescence. Finish and interior decor of highest quality. Overall appearance—tasteful, stylish.

Performance
Rated tops, with choice of V-8 or 6 cylinder engines ranging to 225 H.P. Widest selection of transmissions—standard, automatic, four-speed floor shift and overdrive. Chosen by many police forces and cab companies.

Comfort
Proved to have more interior room than any other domestic "family" car. Well shaped, firm seats reduce travel fatigue. Greatest headroom. Easy entry and exit. Driving position and visibility considered excellent.

Reliability
Tests found Lark to be rattle-free, weather-tight, quiet running. Unique, full-frame design provides excellent rigidity. Engines rated dependable and trouble-free. Victory in First Trans-Canada Rally proved Lark's reliability.

Economy
Careful consideration of gas mileage, low maintenance requirements, overall reliability of car, low cost of repairs, bolt-on fenders and Canada-wide service facilities earned Lark top honours as a most economical car to operate.

Dollar Value
Judges examined all manufacturers list prices against the respective car and selected Lark as the car that gives most per dollar. It was noted Lark's basic price was lowest except for one model, which was a few dollars less.

Public Acceptance
Lark sales have increased 108.3%. Satisfied customers across Canada are reporting thousands of miles of trouble-free driving, lower operating costs and superior, all round performance.

Suppers Sale Shows Gain

SUMMERSIDE — The sale of lobster suppers, for the first three days of the carnival, is up 25 per cent over last year, officials reported last evening following yesterday's count of 710 which brought the three-day total to well over 2,700.

This figure does not include complimentary suppers.

Officials stated that very few complaints have been received and for the most part each patron is delighted with the meal. One party of tourists has attended the suppers each day so far and stated last evening they would return again today.

Also quite a number of tourists and residents have enjoyed the meals on two occasions, all expressing delight at the flavor of the lobsters this year.

The Summerside Lionettes Club catered yesterday.
