
Do you feel you never get your say in anything? Does your turn to speak never come? Do you want to learn to get your two cents worth in? If you answered yes to any of these questions, then you are a prime candidate for

Auctioneering School

Arlene Roberts, a local expert auctioneer, will be instructing a session on auctioneering on Wed., Nov. 14, 7PM in Marian Hall. All persons participating in this session will receive points for their floor, wing, or building in the Residence Life participation point system.

The four best auctioneers will be chosen by Mrs. Roberts to be the official auctioneers for the Residence Life Committee's auction to be held on Sat., Nov. 17., 1:30 PM in Marian Hall. Prizes and extra points will be given to the four best students of the auctioneering school.

So come on out and get your two cents worth!!

