BLOOD DONOR CLINIC MISSES QUOTA

BLOOD DONOR CLINIC FAILS TO MEET QUOTA

Many thanks are extended to all donors and to those who helped to organize the blood donor clinic which was held Tuesday, Jan. 22/80 at Alumni Gym. Unfortunately, the clinic failed to meet its quota of 200 donors. A total of 133 showed up to give blood and only a small fraction of these were rejected.

Congratulations are in order for the Sophomore class. The Student Union donated $30.00 to the class which had the most donors and the Sophomores won the prize. This money is turned over to the Sophomore class, giving them an approximated total of $500. raised thus far.

I would also like to thank A & W, University Ave., for donating Happy Burgers and rootbeer coupons to such a worthy cause.

The Blood Donor Clinic will arrive again next Fall at UPEI. Students attending UPEI and citizens of Charlottetown are urged to keep this in mind. Your support is gratefully acknowledged!!

Sincerely yours, Patti Bradley

AND ANOTHER BIG PROBLEM IS APATHY

WHO CARES ABOUT APATHY

SUN V.S. cimn

(SUN Bulletin)

In the upcoming Bowl for Millions Campaign to aid Big Brothers one team will be attracting a lot of interest, that of the SUN staff. It has been rumored that they have challenged cimn radio at UPEI led by Pat (Gutterball) Kelley. The SUN team will trounce the cimn "so-called" bowlers since they have received aid from the Phantom Bowler of Charlottetown.
