Mr. Stuart Montgomery called the gathering to order and spoke very highly of Thane and added that he knew he would make a success of his career as an airman, as he did in all things he undertook.

Mr. Willie Birch read an address and Mr. Roddy Morrison presented Thane with a substantial sum of money. Thane expressed his thanks in a few words and all joined in singing "For He's A Jolly Good Fellow". Dancing followed in which nearly everyone took part. Music was furnished by Russel Ellis, Junior Strongman, Roger Yeo, Mrs. Laurie Birch, and Mrs. Claude Yeo. Lunch was served by the ladies of the Women's Institute.

The following is the written address:

Dear Thane:—The community has learned with great appreciation that you have joined the Royal Canadian Air Force. We are proud of the fact that another of our Port Hill boys will be protecting us from enemy aggression as have our boys in the past. Some of our boys have distinguished themselves and it is our wish and prayer that you may rise to great heights in the service of your country.

There are a few of us who realize the importance of your decision and we, especially, stand with you wherever the call of duty takes you, and we commend you unto Him Who said: "Be not afraid, for I am with you." We feel that words are just something intangible but let us assure you that they are our expression of gratitude to you. We feel also, that we should give you something tangible, and we ask you to accept this gift, in further expression that our good wishes go with you wherever you may go. Signed, residents of Port Hill.
