Fine Wrestling And Boxing Card At S'side

A crowd-pleasing card of boxing and wrestling was put on by the Sports Department of the R.C.A.F. Station in Summerside at the recreation hall Saturday night, and a large crowd of spectators came away well satisfied.

Boxers from Shearwater naval base and with acts from the local station provided the boxing entertainment while Moncton wrestlers put their skill against Jerry Allard and Ken Greer of the Summerside R.C.A.F. in the wrestling events.

In the first event of the program Ken Greer pinned Paul Richards' shoulders to the canvas after eight minutes of wrestling. Chuck Hultor of the R.C.A.F. and Tommy Morgan of the Navy fought a three-round no-decision match, and Ken Robinson of Moncton and "Kid" Chester of Brockville, two navy men weighing 160 pounds fought a close fight. Robinson getting the nod from the judges. In the second wrestling event, Chuck Morgan of Whiteford, Sask., pinned Ron Vigars of Moncton in 12 minutes.

The best boxing bout of the evening was the go-between Sammy Johnson and Harry Hicks. Hicks winning the decision after three rugged rounds of boxing. Bomber Booth of Moncton edged Gus Gagnon of Ottawa in a very close three-round match. In the main boxing event, Jack Johnson of New Brunswick, Atlantic Command champion at 147 pounds, eked out a victory over Rimouski's Roger Theriault, who was a finalist in Nova Scotia in the same weight division.

The main event in wrestling and the event which stole the show was a best two out of three tag team match between Ron and Bill Babineau of Moncton, and Ken Greer and Jerry Allard of the local station. All four boys displayed top-notch wrestling ability, and a fine sense of showmanship, and before the match, which was won by Greer and Allard two falls to one, was over the spectators were worked up to a dizzy pitch of frenzy. The boys gave a rousing exhibition in which few, if any, holds were barred. They battled one another in and out of the ring, with the referee at times being drawn into the maelstrom.

At the conclusion of the show

To make room for Sleater, the Yankees asked waivers on Branca and said they will give the right-hander his unconditional release unless he is claimed. Branca, former Brooklyn star, won four and lost three in the American League this past season with a 3-3 mark at Detroit and 1-0 with the Yankees.

Sleater had a 7-7 record in the American Association in 1954 with Charleston and Kansas City and a 3.02 earned run average.

Welshmen Defeat Saints 7-5 In Exhibition Game

The Prince of Wales College football squad started their 1954 season with a win as they defeated the St. Dunstan's Varsity second team 7-5 in a rugged exhibition game played at the St. Dunstan's gridiron Saturday afternoon.

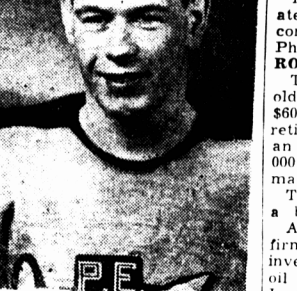

The Welshmen racked up all their points in the first half and were able to save an SDU rally early in the last half which collected 5 points for the men in Red and White.

The game was played in two straight forty minute periods, the first 25 minutes of which were very ragged at times with most of the play being restricted to center-field action started to pick up shortly after the 25 minute mark of the first half as the Welshmen pushed down to the Saints 25 yard line. Big Welshmen forward, Arnold MacLean, who played an outstanding game for the winners, picked up the ball just inside his opposing 25 yard line and smashed his way through the SDU defence to cross the touch-line for the first try of the game. Gordon Tweedy, who took top individual scoring honors, made the follow-up conversion good to put Prince of Wales ahead 5-0.

About five minutes later, the Welshmen were back in Saints territory with Tweedy rounding out the winners' scoring as he booted the oval over the bar and between the posts on a penalty kick. At the end of the half, Prince of Wales were back at Saints 5 yard line by the combined efforts of Dave MacLeod and Mark Lader.

Shortly after referee, C. McIsaac had blown the opening whistle of the second half, Saints' combinations began to work more accurately and within the first minute they were closing in on the Welshmen 5 yard line. At the two minute mark, Sandy MacDonald opened the scoring for the McVior coached men, making good on a penalty kick which made the score 7-2. The men in red and white threatened again several times during the following 20 minutes but were unable to cross the opposing touch-line. At the 25 minute mark Saints again advanced into Welsh territory.

8-Man Philadelphia Group Buys Control Of Athletics

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—An eight-man Philadelphia syndicate Sunday purchased control of Philadelphia Athletics, ending the 54-year-old dynasty of the Connie Mack family.

The syndicate, in a last-ditch manoeuvre, saved American League baseball for the city of Philadelphia.

Last week the American League had approved an almost certain sale of the Athletics to Arnold Johnson, a Chicago businessman, who would have transferred the team to Kansas City.

Roy Mack, executive vice-president of the club, was given until 11 a.m. EST today to decide whether he would sell the club to Johnson.

The syndicate is prepared with enough operating capital to hire a top general manager and field manager to build up the fortunes of both the parent team and its rundown farm system, a spokesman said.

FANTASTIC NEGOTIATIONS
The last-minute negotiations that led to the sale of the ball club to the Philadelphia syndicate ended a fantastic sequence of events over the last four months in which the Athletics had been reported sold from coast to coast to numerous buyers.

Last week in Chicago, Will Harridge, president of the American League announced that the Athletics would be sold to Johnson and transferred to Kansas City. Later, the league president elaborated on his original announcement by saying Roy Mack had until Monday to decide whether he would sell to Johnson or not.

Regiment Holds First Exercise

The 5 Signal Regiment held its first out-door exercise in the fall training program in the Montague area on Saturday. Over 100 all ranks, turned out for this exercise.

The basis of the exercise was supplying communication at the brigade level in the field. This included a four station wireless link, line construction, to various stations and driver training.

This type of exercise furnished a large number of new recruits with a view of signal operations in the field. The noon meal was served by the two restaurants in Montague, the Bison and the Blue Haven.

At present, Roy McMeekin, who played with Halifax Athletics last season, is playing with the Sudbury Wolves. An unofficial source has it though, that he is due for a replacement. Another former Atlantic who is now signed with the Wolves is defenceman Dean McBride. Novice Seaman Has His Troubles

CLEVELAND (AP)—A land-lubber who says he doesn't like railroads, is angry at buses and won't fly, set out for Nova Scotia in a home-made boat Wednesday. He got less than two miles before he was up to his ankles in water.

But Howard A. Tattrie vows he will try again.

He spent three months and $2,000 on his boat. Only 45 minutes after he set out the 32-year-old novice seaman was backed on the shore at Lake Erie, rescued by coast guardsmen.

"I guess I had a few leaks," the former boxer, who came to Cleveland from Canada three years ago, wants to visit his mother, who runs a small grocery store in Londonderry, N.S.

Because of his distaste for other means of transportation—he didn't say what he has against them—and despite the fact he never had been in a boat before, he bought a do-it-yourself boat kit and went to work.

But from the first, apparently, the work didn't go well. Roger Lovejoy, manager of the Lakewood Boat and Motor Co., where Tattrie rented work space, said Tattrie used an outboard motor instead of an inboard and filled the open propeller shaft hole with rags and painted over them; used ordinary window putty that dissolves in water, instead of caulking; hammered boards in balky screws, splitting boards; failed to put in a keel.

Lovejoy, who warned the Canadian against trying to use the vessel, commented:

"He was headed straight for the bottom of Lake Erie, not Nova Scotia."

Moscow Track Team Completes Tour of England

MANCHESTER, England, (AP)—The Moscow track team ended its tour of England Saturday with a 1-6 victory over a northern England team in drizzling rain and on an antiquated track which held performances far below international standards.

Russia's promising middle distance runner, Ardalion Ignatiev, ran the 220-yard dash in 21.9 for the best performance of the day. Considering the soggy track and the sharp bend he was forced to take, the time was good.

England's Gordon Pirie took the three-mile event in the disappointing time of 13:53.0. Russian Vladimir Kuc scratched from the event to rest for his meeting with Emil Zatopek in Prague this week.
