Fines Against Tignish Man Total $70 In Alberton Court

ALBERTON — Michael McInnis, Tignish, was fined $50 and costs or 30 days by Magistrate W. Chester S. MacDonald at Alberton yesterday for failing to stop his vehicle when signalled to do so by police officer Howard Foley.

On a second charge, driving without reasonable consideration for others, McInnis was fined $20 and costs or 15 days. McInnis, who entered pleas of not guilty to both charges, was warned by the magistrate that any further infractions of the Highway Traffic Act would result in the cancellation of his license.

Lloyd Gavin, Ascension, and William Clayton Bell, Mill River, received fines of $10 and costs for squealing tires while Leroy Arsenault, Nail Pond, was fined $10 and costs for driving without reasonable consideration for others.

For causing a disturbance by spinning wheels, Ralph Oliver Smallman, O'Leary, was fined $10 and costs.

Gerrard Percy Ready, Tignish, and Allan Gregory Harris, O'Leary, were each fined $10 and costs for driving without a license.

For driving without due care and attention Clair MacDougall, O'Leary, was fined $10 and costs.

Phillips Auto Sales, Tyne Valley, and Leslie Everett Gray, Mill, received fines of $10 and costs for failing to transfer registration.

For crossing the solid white line Ralph Paul McCarthy, Sea Cow Pond, was fined $10, and costs.

CASE ADJUDGED
Ian Strang, O'Leary, pleaded not guilty of driving while his license was suspended and the case was adjourned to May 5.

Shane Peter Rochford, Alberton, was given a warning for driving with a defective muffler.

Lloyd Arsenault, Howlan, and Clifton Gavin, Tignish, received fines of $5 each for parking in a restricted area in Alberton.
